K. P. Hall Scene Of Gay Cocktail Party and Dance

One of the gayest events of the new spring season was the formal cocktail party and dance given Friday evening at the Knights of Pythias hall, which was attractively decorated in a Valentine color scheme of red and white with huge bouquets of flowers and pussy-willows banked along the walls.

The sixty couples who attended were served cocktails at 8:30, and dancing started at 10 o'clock.

The hall was made lovely with bouquets of red carnations and the huge clumps of pussy-willows, which pervaded the rooms with a touch of spring and left impressions of a delightful evening. The buffet table was attractively arranged with red carnations and candles.

Hosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Flavius West, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Norris and Mr. and Mrs. Don Newbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gray of Portland, who are the house guests in Medford of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Eisermann, also of Portland, house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jackson, were the out-of-town guests at the dance.

The music was furnished by Whipple's orchestra.

SONS To Hear Kathleen Bratton In Piano Recital

On Monday morning, February 19, at 9:45 Kathleen Bratton, a highly gifted young pianist and pupil of Rosa Blackmore Willett, will play a group of brilliant compositions before the student body of Southern Oregon Normal, at assembly.

Her numbers will be, "Fantasia Impromptu" and "Berceuse," both by Chopin; "Wings of Spring," Mendelssohn-Liszt; "Tarantella," by Liszt. She will appear in full recital later.

Three Generations Assemble at Party

Mrs. Gust Peterson was pleasantly surprised on her 67th birthday at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Troxell, 39 Myers court, last Tuesday evening.

A delicious two-course dinner was served in honor of the occasion. At a long candle-decked table were seated many of her descendants, the company representing three generations.

The following friends and relatives were present: Gust Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Troxell and children, Clyde, Delbert, Dorothy, Arlene and Frances; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Balderston; Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Smith and son, Lionel; Mr. and Mrs. Vern Troxell and the honor guest, Mrs. Peterson.

All of Mother Peterson's children were present except one son, Earl Troxell, and his wife and children, Lyle and Margaret, whose home is in Ellston, Iowa.

Four Circles At Neighbors' Rally Held In Phoenix

The Four southern Oregon Circles of Neighbors of Woodcraft held a rally in Phoenix Feb. 11.

Oak Circle No. 242 of Phoenix was hostess and circles taking part were, Chrysanthemum, Azalia and Acorn.

A short program was provided before the regular meeting. Three folk dances by the girls of the Phoenix grade school were greatly enjoyed as well as a piano solo by Miss Marian Moore. Following this, juveniles of the Phoenix circle exemplified their work under direction of their senior guardian, Mildred Ward. The three visiting senior guardians, Mrs. Bigler, Medford; Mrs. Parr, Ashland, and Mrs. Latham of Grants Pass were their special guests and were each presented with a beautiful corsage by the Past Guardian Neighbor of the Juveniles, Rosemary Bishop.

At the meeting the ritualistic work was beautifully done by the visiting circles. Officers and guardians of Ashland opened the circle in form. Medford presented the flag and Grants Pass put on the closing ceremony. Phoenix officers and guards gave the initiatory work. The following new members were initiated: Mrs. Olive Floyd of Phoenix and three candidates from Grants Pass.

The session was greatly saddened by the sorrow of Mrs. Hilda Hansen, the advisor of Chrysanthemum circle, Medford, and a resolution of sympathy for herself and family was adopted by the body as a whole.

There were 25 visitors from Chrysanthemum Circle No. 84, Medford; 37 from Azalia Circle No. 183, Grants Pass, and 25 from Acorn Circle No. 54, Ashland; 1 from Naomi Circle, in Idaho and 2 from Lebanon Circle, Ore.

Guardian Neighbor Pankey of Ashland gave a cordial invitation to all circles of the southern Oregon district to meet with them in Ashland, March 18.

At a late hour the guests retired to the dining room where a pleasant time was spent in eating and visiting.

Mrs. Jackson Is Luncheon Hostess

Fluhrrer's HOLSUM DONS A NEW DRESS

- During the past six months we have been gradually modernizing our bread wrappers . . . one at a time we have changed them from the old fashioned curly cued designs to simple modern packages which enable the customer to identify them at a glance.
- At the same time we believe we have added immensely to their appearance . . . given them a bright clean look of quality to match the contents they enclose.
- Tomorrow we will introduce the third of this series of new wrappers on Holsum Sliced . . . in the small size. It will be a bright, cheery and distinctive Blue Wrapper which you can easily identify.

- There will be no change in Fluhrrer's Holsum except for the gradual improvements we are able to make as we go along. The Holsum of Today is an improved loaf over the Holsum of a few years ago. It is finer, richer in milk and shortening and has met a steadily increasing demand since its introduction three years ago.
- Our aim is "To Build A Business Which Will Never Know Completion" . . . and whenever a new method or a better way is found to make better bread Fluhrrer's will be the first to utilize it.

No Compromise With QUALITY —

In our plant, the finest of its size in the West, there is no compromise with quality . . . Our customers are proud to ask for Fluhrrer's Products . . . because they know there is nothing finer on the market.

You can distinguish Fluhrrer's SESAME . . . also in an attractive blue wrapper . . . by a red and white label around the loaf.
