

NIGHT CLUB BRAWL FATAL TO MAJOR

Maj. Charles A. Ross, battalion commander of the 30th Infantry, in line with regimental officers at the anniversary services of the Presidio's infantry in which he listened to a prayer for late troops of San Francisco's "own." This picture was taken only a few hours before Ross (indicated by arrow) died in a San Francisco night club fight. Three persons, including the club operator and two of his assistants, were charged with manslaughter. (Associated Press Photo)

QUEEN VISITS SNOWY DOMAIN

Mildred Vahl of Portland, Ore., and Francis E. Williamson, director of recreation of the Mt. Hood national forest, inspect her country where she rules the winter sports of the region. (Associated Press Photo)

WHO WOULDN'T WANT CARD SCORED?

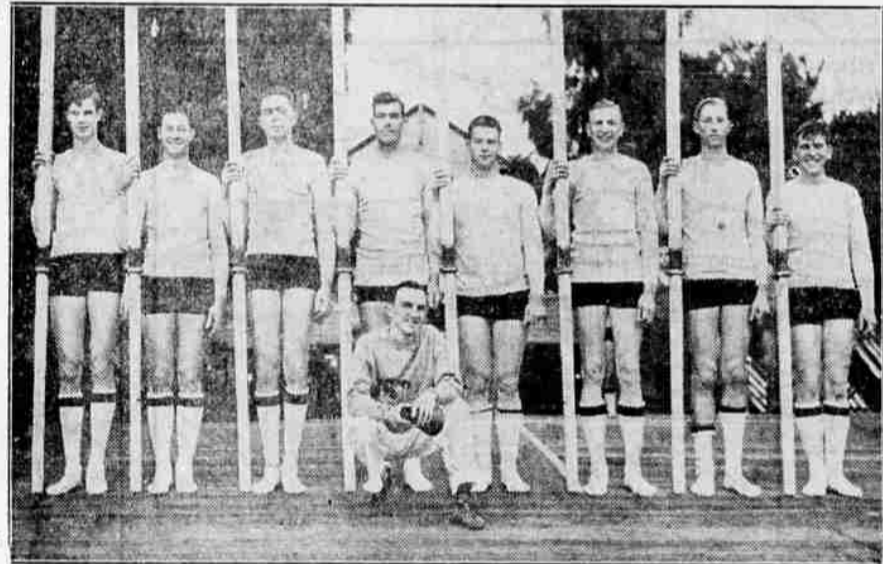

One of the reasons the first Palm Springs, Cal., invitational golf tournament was so popular was Betty Veterlein who is shown with Walter Hagen, a veteran golfer, as he autographed a helmet. Girls in shorts scored the desert meet. (Associated Press Photo)

EXPOSITIONETTES FOR COMING FAIR

Pretty San Diego, Cal., high school and junior college girls have formed an organization, called the expositionettes, to take an active part in events preparatory to the opening of the California Pacific International Exposition there May 29. Capt. Betty Fulkerson (in foreground) is shown with some of the members. (Associated Press Photo)

CALIFORNIA CREW STRETCHES MUSCLES ON ESTUARY

Coach Ky Enbright of California's champion eight-oared boat, has started sending his charges through their paces on the Oakland, Cal., estuary preparatory to the regatta season. Some of the oarsmen out for work are (left to right) Richard Burnley, Laurence Dodge, Ferd Elvin, Ray Andreson, Carrol Brigham, Ewald Swanson, Jack Yates, Frank Dunlap and (kneeling) Rego Watt coxswain. (Associated Press Photo)

AN ADMIRAL IS LAID TO REST

The body of Admiral Robert E. Coontz, former commander of the United States Navy, was laid to rest in a Hannibal, Mo., cemetery overlooking the Mississippi river. He died in Bremerton, Wash. (Associated Press Photo)

MEXICO HOLDS SUSPECTED PLOTTERS

Several of the 13 men arrested for alleged participation in a widespread military plot being interviewed in the Mexico, D. F., jail. The Mexican government charges American money financed the plot.

Proposes Arkansas For New Deal Test

Rep. Leo E. Nyberg (above) tentatively proposed in the Arkansas legislature to offer the state to the national administration as a laboratory for new experiments in the New Deal. (Associated Press Photo)

SWOLLEN CREEK KNIFES THROUGH MARINE DRIVE

A chasm 50-feet deep was cut in the marine drive at Vancouver, B. C., when a swollen creek washed through it after a severe snowstorm, followed by a warm spell and rain. Some of the damage is shown.

QUESTIONED IN WIDOW'S DEATH

These four persons were held by Los Angeles police in connection with the slaying of Mrs. Amanda E. Watson, 66-year-old widow. Left to right: Claude Lane, Leslie Fesperman, who authorities said signed a confession that he beat Mrs. Watson to death with robbery as the motive, and George Mathis. Inset is of Mrs. Eula King, the fourth suspect who was charged with being an accessory. (Associated Press Photo)

SPEEDBOAT RACERS DEVISE NEW WATER THRILL

Southern California speedboat enthusiasts have taken to a new sport known as "balloon bustin'" to amuse the crowds. Here the Rising Sun, fast Japanese craft, and Johnny Weismuller's speedy Tarzan are steeple contest. (Associated Press Photo)

HOLLYWOOD GIRLS IGNORE THREAT

Rosmary Smith (left) and Robin Annesley, both seeking motion picture careers, with a note which threatened they would "be taken for a ride" if they did not leave Los Angeles. The two girls ignored the note. (Associated Press Photo)

Fights War Profits

Frank Belgrano, Jr., national commander of the American Legion, as he testified before the house military committees in Washington, D. C., that his organization is behind the move to abolish excessive profits from war. (Associated Press Photo)

MIKE CHOOSES HIS PICTURE BRIDE

Dolores Del Rio, Hollywood film star, shows "Mike," her pet bull terrier, his future mate. The photograph is of "Bonnie," another bull terrier, which is coming from Boston to be "Mike's" bride. (Associated Press Photo)

SLAY RELIEF WORKERS, SELVES

Henry W. Arden, 25, and his mother, Mrs. Ruth Arden, killed two Chicago relief workers and wounded two others before turning their guns on themselves. (Associated Press Photo)

Acting Warden

Deputy Warden J. C. Woodward (above) was appointed acting warden of Ohio State penitentiary in Columbus following the suspension of Preston Thomas. (Associated Press Photo)