St. Mark's Guild Entertains Friday At Colonial Party

Among the outstanding social events of the week was the Colonial party sponsored Friday by the ladies of St. Mark's Guild. Twenty-four tables of cards were in play during the afternoon with honors going to Mrs. J. H. Cochran, Mrs. J. R. O'Connor and Mrs. Rose Scheffell.

On entering the Guild Hall the guests were greeted by the committee, dressed in colonial costume. The decorations in the hall were befitting Washington's birthday. Mrs. John Peter and Mrs. Clyde Eakin presided at the tea table.

The program was given at the close of the afternoon by Mrs. R. C. Mulholland.

Miss Mary Kem, who has the lead, and Miss Catherine Moore, both in the high school operetta, "Chimes of Normandy" sang selections from the production, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Burgess at the piano. They were in costume.

One of the most enjoyed parts of the program was the first violin presentation of "Little Richard" Bishop, 7, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Bishop. He played several patriotic airs.

Piano selections by Miss Alice Holmbeck were well received, as were violin numbers by Miss Dorothy Gore. During the program Martha and George Washington were impersonated in a minute.

A number who were not in attendance at the card party came later for the program and tea.

Other members of the committee were Mrs. John Bernburg, Mrs. Van Gilbert and Mrs. Hal Platt.

Mrs. Laura West Hostess at Dinner

Mrs. Laura M. West was hostess on Thursday evening at her home, 344 North Bartlett, inviting 14 guests for dinner. The evening was spent at bridge, high score going to Miss Ora Cox. Guest prize was won by Mrs. Helena Woodley of Seattle, who is the guest in Medford at the home of Miss Claire Gungluis. Mrs. J. V. Rogers received consolation prize.

Those enjoying the evening were: Mesdames Woodley, Rogers, Albert Fitch, Harry Turner, Ira Chastain, Eunice Smith, Elmo Russell, George B. Canode, Leona Crane, J. H. Cochran and the Misses Cox, Gungluis, Lucille Abbott and Ora Tucker.

Band Will Benefit By P.-T. A. Party

Thursday evening, February 22, in the late set for the card party to be held in the Junior High School auditorium. The benefit is being held to raise money for uniforms and music for the junior high school band. The public is cordially invited to cooperate with the P.-T. A. in making this a success. Bridge, auction, five hundred, contract and pinocle tables may be reserved by calling Mrs. Thomas Roseberry.

Alpha Delta and Bible Classes to Meet at 9:45

The Alpha Delta class of the Christian church will meet with the Men's Bible class this (Sunday) morning at 9:45 o'clock, in the conference auditorium. All members and friends are urged to attend.

V. F. W. Auxiliary To Sponsor Party

The V. F. W. Auxiliary will give another of their card parties Thursday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Joe Wood, 8 South Orange street. These card parties are open to the public. Prizes will be given and refreshments served.

The Auxiliary gave a similar card party at the Armory Thursday afternoon. Bridge and five hundred were played. Mrs. Joe Wood won first in bridge with Mrs. Dick Wandrey low. Mrs. George Averill won first in five hundred with Mrs. Tom K. Flynn low. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Flynn Entertains

Members of Crater Lake Guild spent a most delightful evening at the home of Mrs. Fay Flynn, February 18.

Mrs. Lois Wright had charge of the devotionals using the topic "Citizenship." Miss Mary Ann Gates sang "Your Eyes Have Told Me So" and "L'Annour-Toujours" accompanied at the piano by Miss Marian Moore.

The feature of the evening was a most interesting talk by Mrs. M. J. Norris, who used the subject "World Conditions at the Present Time—Or Revolution or Reformation."

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Fay Flynn, Ruth Clement and Margaret Morrison.

THEY'RE THE RANKING 'DOLLAR PRINCESSES'

With the marriage of Doris Duke, for some time Number One heiress of the country, a new array of eligibles claimed the spotlight and vied for the vacated top rank spot. The air is filled with heiresses to fortunes of oil, steel, banking, toothpaste, merchandising and whatnot among whom are Ethel DuPont, "Princess of Delaware" and daughter of Eugene Dupont; Katrina McCormick, daughter of the late Senator Medill McCormick; Hazel Forbes, heiress to dentifrice millions and a screen prospect; Helen Lee Doherty, Henry L. Doherty's daughter by adoption; and Dorothy Fell, daughter of Mrs. Ogden Mills. (Associated Press Photos)

Missionary Society Elects Mrs. Oliver At Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church was held at the home of Mrs. A. R. Clement Tuesday afternoon with more than 40 present. The rooms were beautifully decorated with spring flowers.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. George Oliver; first vice-president, Mrs. A. R. Clement; second vice-president, Mrs. Frank Albert; recording secretary, Mrs. Harry Baker; corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. F. W. Spilner; secretary for literature, Mrs. R. S. Daniels; secretary for missionary education, Mrs. A. J. Hanby; secretary for membership, Mrs. Frank Hagerty; secretary for stewardship, Mrs. A. R. Clement; secretary for national missions and overseer of sewing, Mrs. Belle Littler; treasurer, Mrs. Carl Brummer.

The topic for the afternoon was "Stewardship." Mrs. Iverson presented the program in the following little play, "Who Is My Neighbor?", teaching a lesson of joy in going the second mile. Mesdames Baker, Albert, Iverson, Oliver, Guches, Miss Ruth Clement and Laura Alice Bailey took part in this dramatization.

Mrs. T. M. Stott, Presbyterian president of Grants Pass, was guest speaker for the afternoon and dwelt on Stewardship of Time and Prayer.

Mrs. L. D. Hodjkins favored with a solo, and old missionary hymn, "A Zion Host." Mrs. Simpkins accompanied her.

The program for the afternoon closed with a very beautiful dedication service conducted by Mrs. Iverson, after which a social hour was enjoyed.

Mrs. F. C. Albert, the retiring president, presided at the tea table and Mesdames Hagerty, Gribble, and Gould assisted Mrs. Clement as hostesses for the afternoon.

Washington P.-T. A. Celebrates Birthday With Program, Tea

Founders' day was observed with an interesting program Friday by members of Washington school P.-T. A.

After a short business meeting the numbers presented consisted of a reading, "The Minuet," by Natalie Parker, and a group of songs by the Washington school glee club, under the leadership of Miss Alice Cromar, who is given much credit for her splendid instruction by members of the P.-T. A. A pageant, "This is the Oak Tree," was presented with 30 children taking part.

The founders' day candle-lighting ceremony was an interesting feature given by the past presidents of the P.-T. A. Each past president was given a beautiful corsage of purple and gold, by Mrs. J. H. Hoer, the president. Those taking part were Mesdames Bryant, Brockway, Heyland, Chaney, Dixon, Kroschel, Faye, Fichtner and Hodgkins.

Following the program, the annual Washington silver tea was held. The table was beautifully decorated in P.-T. A. colors, purple and gold, with the founders' day birthday cake, bearing 31 candles, as the centerpiece. Mesdames Hoy and Fichtner presided.

A generous offering was received to be used for the extension of congress work.

Little Miss Jerome Hostess on Birthday

Twelve members of Medford's very young set enjoyed a party Saturday afternoon from two to four o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jo Jerome in Everett Court, honoring the seventh birthday anniversary of her daughter, Miss Jeraldyn Jerome.

Decorations, favors and refreshments followed the Washington's Birthday motif. Appropriate games were played by the little guests who included: Beverly Jean Whitman, Charmaine Brault, Polly Ann Hoffman, Rosalie Aekley, Claire Thomas, Cloy Lyons, Bobby Watson, Walter Brown, Jimmy Scheffel, Herbert Robinson, Allan Flynn and Jeraldyn.

Miss Alice Hanley Hostess Wednesday Past Matrons Club

The final activities of the year for the Past Matrons club of Nevada chapter, No. 93, O. E. S. was the one o'clock luncheon given by the retiring president, Miss Alice Hanley, at her beautiful country home last Wednesday.

Covers were laid for twenty members at beautifully arranged tables. Centerpieces of spring blossoms and similar with Washington Day decorations were the motifs carried out. After luncheon the hosts invited the club into the spacious living room for a short business meeting. The curtain committee reported the purchase of drapery material for the windows of the chapter home and displayed the material selected. Mrs. Gay Husband kindly offered to make up the curtains. This offer was very much appreciated and accepted. These curtains are a gift from the club to Nevada chapter.

In honor of Mrs. Bertha Russell's 30th wedding anniversary, Mrs. Jennie Merritt, on behalf of the club, in her gracious manner, presented Mrs. Russell a lovely solid silver set of teaspoons. Mrs. Leta Kyle was initiated into the club and presented with a pretty corsage in honor of becoming the Junior Past Matron.

New officers for the year 1935 are:

President, Junice Merritt; vice-president, Mollie Neal; Inez Ferguson, who has served for several years as secretary-treasurer, was unanimously re-elected.

At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Elsie Martin invited the club to meet at her home Wednesday, March 20.
