

MARTIN'S STAND ON GRANGE LOBBY RECEIVES PRAISE

STATE HOUSE, Salem, Feb. 26.—(Special)—In a statement issued by the executive office today it was announced that "Governor Martin is receiving a great many telegrams and letters commending his outspoken denunciation of Ray Gill and Morton Tompkins, purporting to represent the Oregon state grange."

The letters were described as coming from all parts of the state and to include members of the grange.

The statement said:

"One member pointed out that political activity on matters not directly relating to agriculture was contrary to the spirit of the grange," said the statement.

"One prominent wheat man of eastern Oregon wrote the governor as follows in referring to Mr. Gill and Mr. Tompkins:

"These men do not represent Oregon agriculture, as is evidenced by the fact that the eastern Oregon wheat league, representing more than 20,000,000 bushels of wheat production annually, the Oregon growers, the Oregon cattle and horse raisers, Oregon dairymen and Oregon potato growers have for years past sponsored the county unit plan for public schools in Oregon."

Opposition by Gill and Tompkins to the governor's county school unit bill, which was defeated in the senate, caused Governor Martin to express a wish last week that the two men were back on the farm plowing instead of "pestering the legislature on matters that are not their affair."

Noted Harpist In Normal Concert Night of March 6

Ruth Lorraine Close, who will appear in concert in Ashland under auspices of the Southern Oregon Normal and Junior college, the evening of March 6, is a member of the Portland symphony orchestra, and a solo harpist of acclaim in this country and abroad.

Recently she returned from a four months European trip. While abroad she studied in her art, under direction of European musicians, and gave concerts in London and Paris. Concerning her appearance in London the London Times states:

"Miss Close is a very skillful player, with great ingenuity and knowledge of effect. She managed her tone gradations well, her harmonies were clear, and her facility at fingering most dexterous."

The Paris Tribune reports: "Miss Close is a harpist of real talent, and as good to look at with her picturesque instrument as she is delightful to hear."

During the past four seasons Miss Close as a member of the Portland symphony orchestra has played under the direction of such distinguished leaders as Willem Van Hoogstraten, Walter Henry Rothwell, Theodore Spiering, Jacques Gerahovitch, and Carl Denton.

Miss Close states: "While I was in London, Mr. Richard Northcott, virtuoso of the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden, after hearing my concert, presented me with a harp from his private collection at the museum. This harp is over 100 years old, and is naturally a very rare instrument."

The concert will be held in Ashland at the Southern Oregon auditorium at 8:15 o'clock.

FEHL'S CREDITORS SAY FRAUD TRIED

The purchase by E. H. Fehl of the $15,000 judgment against him in the Roy Parr libel suit, and the assignment to Fehl's mother-in-law, Corintha E. Stalley, "was for the sole purpose of defrauding creditors," the reply of T. E. Heimroth of Griffen Creek and J. B. Thomas of Ashland, in the Niedermeyer, Inc., interpleader suit charges, in answer to the claims of the Fehls.

The reply further alleges that "but $950, and no more," was paid Parr for the libel judgment, and it was made on assignment of salary to Mrs. Stalley by Fehl.

The claim of Fehl that no names were on the certificate of sale for the Pacific Record-Herald building, is countered with the claim of Heimroth and Thomas that they were listed thereon, as owners and purchasers. The two loaned Fehl approximately $5400 to enable him to buy the building at a sheriff's sale.

Parr, a former game warden, was awarded a verdict of $15,000 in a criminal libel suit by a Jackson county jury in 1932.

J. E. (Bud) Hitton, miner, reputed to have wrested $16,500 from claims in the Siskiyou, will appear in circuit court March 1, to show the amount of mineral wealth he has recovered. An order requiring Hitton to appear for examination on the date was issued yesterday by Circuit Judge H. D. Norton upon motion of George M. Roberts and four other plaintiffs in the action.

The move followed the motion filed by Hitton, seeking a vacation or modification of the restraining order, prohibiting use of the $16,500 in controversy.

J. Frank Grimes, President of Independent Grocers' Alliance

Grocers who are associated with the Independent Grocers' Alliance in the Medford area will journey to Klamath Falls on Wednesday, March 6, to meet J. Frank Grimes, president of the association, and listen to his address directed to southern Oregon members and who are interested in the association's merchandising activities, according to an announcement today by Sabin Gibbs, manager of Mason, Ehrman & Company here.

Mr. Grimes, president of the Independent Grocers' Alliance of America, a nationwide voluntary organization, has long been recognized as one of the country's most aggressive supporters of the cause of independent business. Through his untiring efforts, the Independent Grocers' Alliance, composed of many thousands of independent grocers from coast to coast, has grown to be the largest and strongest organization of its kind in the world.

The title of Mr. Grimes' talk is "Independent Business Stages a Comeback." A thorough student of the many factors involved in the economic changes now taking place in industry generally, Mr. Grimes is frequently called to Washington to discuss matters of vital importance to independent business. His lifetime endeavor has been directed toward safeguarding the independent merchant and all small business.

Mr. Grimes will offer evidence of a definite consumer trend toward independent business, which he finds is directly traceable to the alertness of the independent in meeting the demand of Mrs. Consumer. Through a nationally organized merchandising and advertising program, Mr. Grimes has found, the independent has materially improved his status during the past two years.

IRRIGATION LOAN COIN READY SOON

Final arrangements for the disbursement of approximately $450,000 of federal money to 1300 bondholders of the Medford Irrigation district, under terms of a loan granted to the district by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation are now underway.

The "mechanics" of the transaction have been completed and the actual distribution of the coin, is expected within ten days or two weeks at the latest.

Olen Arnsperger, general manager of the Irrigation district, left yesterday for Salem for a conference with the state engineer, and carried with him all data and papers bearing upon the project. The two will attend a conference with R. F. C. and federal reserve bank officials, in Portland at the end of the week.

Attorney Neff will also attend the meeting. Attorney Neff has been the legal advisor of the district, making trips to Washington, D. C., on behalf of the project, and to straighten out multitudinous details. Arnsperger recently returned from a trip to California where he procured agreements from the last of the bondholders.

The loan has been approved and granted and the $450,000 is on deposit with the Federal Reserve bank at Portland.

Make HAPPINESS a Habit

Wouldn't you like to step up the amount of enjoyment you get from life? The knack of keeping fit is largely a matter of regular habits. Your happiness may be hampered by common constipation due to insufficient "bulk" in your meals.

Did you know that your grocer has a natural cereal food which corrects this condition? Kellogg's All-Bran, eaten regularly, supplies generous "bulk." Also vitamin B and iron.

The "bulk" in All-Bran is gentle—and safe for normal individuals. More effective than the "bulk" in leafy vegetables, as it does not break down within the body.

Two tablespoons daily are usually sufficient. Chronic cases, with each meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Isn't this natural food much better than taking patent medicines? Serve it as a cereal with milk or cream, or use in cooking. Get Kellogg's All-Bran at your grocer's. It contains much more "bulk" than part-bran products. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

I'm your best friend

I am your Lucky Strike

Others may disappoint. I never do. I'm always mild, always fine to taste—because I'm made of fragrant, expensive center leaves, only. Turn your back on top leaves. I do. They're raw, bitter, stinging. Turn your back on bottom leaves because these coarse, sandy, grimy bottom leaves don't belong in your smoke. Before I consider it worthy, every leaf must be a center leaf, mild, fine-tasting, fragrant. That's why I'm your best friend.
