RELIEF IN OREGON NEARS STNDSTILL FOR WANT OF COIN

Federal government get together on a definite agreement under which the heavy burden will be shared. Last night, after an all-day executive session, members of the state emergency relief administration issued a statement. It said: "There are funds in the relief committee's hands sufficient to carry forward the direct relief in Oregon for at least four or five days, by which time we hope that satisfactory arrangements will have been made between the state and federal government to continue the work relief program as outlined."

The federal government has been contributing about one million dollars a month to Oregon on the understanding that Oregon does its part in matching this money. Notice has been served on the state that not one more cent will be available from federal sources until Oregon adopts a relief program. The legislature now is wrestling with the program.

SALEM, March 1.—(P)—While 30,000 persons were reported to have been taken off the federal state payroll today until the state legislature enacts immediate legislation, the senate was expected to rush through the $8,000,000 unemployment relief program.

The bill, which increases the amount that can be used of the liquor revenue the next biennium for unemployment from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000, was passed by the house late yesterday. It is known as house bill 61. Since but $1,500,000 liquor revenue has been used for relief, the increase means an appropriation of $4,000,000 for the next two years.

Work Suspended. Announcement of suspension of all work on relief projects was made late yesterday by Elmer Goudy, secretary of the state relief committee, who was here conferring with Governor Charles H. Martin. The governor professed no alarm as he believed federal funds would be received immediately upon passage of house bill 61.

The Oregon state police may now be called upon to intervene in labor disputes and strikes under terms of the bill which passed the senate by a 20 to 10 vote, after squeezing through the house with a bare majority.

Under the present law state police were barred from taking part in strikes, either for the employer or employee. The Oregon constabulary system has been in operation now nearly four years, having been organized by Governor Julius L. Meier under his administration measure in the 1931 session.

Martin will sign. The measure, which now goes to the governor and which will be signed by him, according to proponents of the bill, was the only one of four so-called anti-labor measures, ridiculed at organized labor as outgrowths of the prolonged longshoremen's strike last summer, which got through the lower branch. Because the state police were denied the right to intervene, National Guard troops had been mobilized for about 10 days.

Senators voting for the police intervention bill were: Aiken, Allen, Best, Bynon, Duncan, Dunn, Fisher, Francisovich, Goss, Lee, Lessard, McCormack, McKay, Pearson, Spalding, Staples, Stelver, Walker, Wallace and President Corbett.

Those opposed were Senators Burke, Carney, Chinnock, Dickson, Hazellet, Hess, Strayer, Stringer, Wheeler and Zimmerman.

Loan Interest Fixed. The senate, by approval of a house bill, placed the maximum interest upon loans of $80 or under at 3 per cent per month, the same rate that has been used on loans from $30 to $300. However, upon rejecting a minority adverse report on a senate measure, the bill placing the interest rate on the latter classification to a maximum of one per cent a month was placed on the calendar for final passage today. The vote was expected to be close.

The proposed cabinet form of government, as oft times urged by friends of the administration, and for which a bill had been prepared by Budget Director D. O. Hood, will not appear during the present session of the legislature.

It was reported no sufficient support could be secured from the members of the two houses, and Governor Martin decided not to attempt to put through even a modified form at this late date of the assembly. The legislature now has been in session 46 days.

Kill Tobacco Tax. The 10 per cent tax on tobacco, proposed in a committee bill in the house was killed by indefinite postponement. The house passed a resolution voicing disapproval of the recall election in Lane county against Representative Howard Merriam, called for March 19. The move was started by Townsend Old Age Pensions clubs because, they asserted, Merriam voted against the $200 a month plan.

The resolution stated Merriam was a fine gentleman and legislator, had voted his convictions in good faith with a majority for a modified Townsend plan, and that the house had confidence in Merriam's integrity. Pension Bill Drawn.

An old age pension bill was received in the house, bearing the names of Representatives Honyman and Merriam. It serves as a tie-in with the federal government for 0 per cent cooperation through the state and county relief committees. While the residence and age limits remain unchanged, the principal feature is that it increases the amount that may be received to $30 instead of the $7.50 and $10 paid in average cases under the present law. Its administration would be carried out along present lines.

The bill which would give the state and defendant an equal number of peremptory challenges of jurors in criminal cases was turned down, 17 to 11, by the senate. Under the present law the defendants is allowed twice as many such challenges as the state.

STANDARD AND EXTRA CUBE BUTTER HOISTED HALF CENT, PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Ore., March 1.—(AP)—Both standard and extra cubes were advanced 1/2 cent a pound during the late session of the produce exchange with a differential of but 1/4 cent a pound between them, although the print price was showing a spread of 1 cent, which addition was pocketed by the distributor.

Butterfat was advanced 1 cent a pound but most of the trade was paying the higher figures anyway. Market for eggs continued to reflect a weak tone here but there was no further change in the open price for the day. Storage supplies were now being assembled.

Market for live chickens held a strong tone with recent price advances continuing generally. All sorts were meeting with favor of buyers. While demand was comparatively limited some dressed turkeys were being moved into consuming channels. Most of the toms were still going into storage but the hens were taken for fresh consumption.

A cut of 1/4 cent a pound made during the late session of the exchange for cheese indicated a generally easier tone than previously reflected here. Tillamook reported no change.

Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, March 1.—(AP)—The stock market stiffened today in the late dealings under leadership of mining issues which pushed up 1 to more than 4 points in response to higher prices for precious metals. The greater portion of the list moved dully, however, and transfers approximated only 620,000 shares. The close was a little better than steady.

BOWLING LEADERS ROLL-OFF TONIGHT

A battle royal is promised tonight when the Golden Glow and Jennings bowling teams meet in a roll-off match for the championship in the first round of the City Bowling League. The teams ended the schedule in a dead heat and possession of the major share of a large purse depends on tonight's contest at the Smoke House alleys. Both squads have shown ability to "turn on the heat" in the pinches and both boast stars who can be depended upon to turn in games over the 200 mark when needed. A large crowd of bowlers and fans, particularly those who participated in the tournament just finished, is expected to be on hand.

Happy ending to "Coffee-Floating"

MRS. HANNA knew all the movie stars—and knew the ones she liked best. It was hard to get her to a picture, unless one of her favorites was playing.

"Listen, Ruth," Mr. Hanna said one morning, "you're the funniest woman in the world. You won't give a movie star a break, unless you like him. But you'll take on any coffee that comes along. Don't you honestly get tired of this floating around from one brand to another? Let's get a coffee that knows how to put on a good performance. I mean Hills Bros. Coffee.
