

CUBAN SOLDIERS HOLD HAVANA UNIVERSITY IN EFFORT QUELL RIOTING

(Copyright, 1935, by the Associated Press)

HAVANA, Cuba, March 7.—(AP)—A detachment of 300 soldiers occupied Havana university today as the government of President Carlos Menéndez sought by forceful measures to quell the strikes menacing its authority.

The action was taken after a day of violence which resulted in the deaths of two persons and injuries to 12.

The invasion of the university grounds ended the institution's jealously cherished autonomy. Under the Cuban constitution no policeman, soldier or sailor is permitted to enter university property, but constitutional guarantees are now suspended.

Before the soldiers took over the university, they surrounded its grounds, temporarily imprisoning 300 teachers and students, among them the directing committee of the strike. Later they were allowed to leave and go to their homes.

Newspaper men were barred from the area. Censorship was placed over all Havana newspapers.

SUN WILL BRING RUSH IN PLANTING

Wet conditions in the fields of Jackson county are delaying spring planting of wheat and other grains, according to County Agent Robert G. Fowler. Clearing weather and drying ground will bring a rush to get the seed in the ground. Last fall, seed planting was delayed, owing to the dryness of the soil. Fall sown grain is progressing fine, the county agent reports.

Ground moisture conditions are now excellent, according to Olen Arnsperger, general manager of the Talent and Medford Irrigation districts. Emigrant dam is now approximately three-quarters full, he states. Hiatt Prairie and Fish lake will have to await the spring runoff before filling substantially. This generally occurs in April.

Arch Works Irrigation engineer of the Federal orchard, Watermaster Smith and Manager Arnsperger are now drafting a report on the water and moisture situation, which will be published when all the data is available.

NEWEST MONARCH PREFERS TO PLAY

LAUSANNE, Switzerland, March 7. (AP)—The world's most widely newly proclaimed king would rather play than rule.

He is tiny Prince Ananda, only 11 years old, but ordered by the people of his country to leave school and toys here and return to receive the homage of his subjects in far-off Siam.

The prince gave out his first interview today.

"Are you glad to be king?" he was asked.

And he answered: "No."
"What would you like to do?"
"I like to play—with locomotives and trains."

It was suggested to the lad he would be able to have a great many of his favorite toys when he was enthroned as king, but the wise little prince commented:

"No, I won't. They won't let me."

HUEY TO POUR WRATH OVER ETHER TONIGHT

WASHINGTON, March 7.—(AP)—Senator Huey P. Long of Louisiana said today his radio speech tonight in answer to General Hugh S. Johnson, former NRA administrator would "cover all the brigands."

"I have forty five minutes on the radio tonight," he said. "I'm going to take forty minutes to tell them what all of them are and then five minutes to tell them what Johnson isn't."

Long is scheduled to speak at 11:30 p. m. E. S. T.
