A very successful meeting of the Extension unit was held at Mrs. Irva Seaman's Friday with 19 members present. Miss Lucy Case, nutrition specialist, presented the second lesson on menu planning and correct usage of table service. Next meeting will be on "Bread Making," at Mrs. J. E. Ousterhout's in March.

Mee, local leaders conducting the second project meeting on breadmaking. Seventeen women, including several visitors from Provolt, were present for the allday meeting. A brief period during the afternoon was devoted to group singing and discussion of plays to be given by the unit this month. Members are looking forward with exceptional interest to the next meeting, March 19, when Mrs. Mabel Mack will conduct the second meeting on the menu planning project, which also will include simple entertaining and table etiquette. Although members have enjoyed the informality of pot-luck dinners through the club season, they believe that a planned menu would be appropriate for the next meeting, and it is to this end that the refreshment committee will work in planning a balanced dinner.

Rogue River

ROGUE RIVER, March 8.—(Spl.)—The many friends of George Stead were shocked and grieved Wednesday afternoon when it became known that he had passed away at his home here of a sudden heart attack. Mr. Stead had been around town as usual about 3:30. He was in the room with his step-daughter, Mrs. Marion Lance when without much of a warning he passed away.
