St. Louis Kid

James Cagney comes to the Studio theater today in "The St. Louis Kid," which is said to be the most thrillingly funny as well as the most thrillingly dramatic production in which he has yet appeared.

The story revolves about a milk trust war which Jimmy has unwittingly started by a speech conjured up to get himself out of jail for having knocked a milk magnate cold.

Myrna Loy Seeks Air Thrills

A stirring picture of adventure and romance above the clouds, "Wings in the Dark," starts a three-day run at the Craterian theater today with Myrna Loy and Cary Grant cast as flying sweethearts in the co-starring roles.

trans-Atlantic flight forces his withdrawal from the project. He attempts the flight again but is blinded by an accident and flees to the woods for solace. Miss Loy brings him one of the famous "Seeing Eye" dogs and helps him to regain his self-respect.

Miss Loy plays a headline hunting, thrill seeking aviatrix, while Grant acts the role of a scientist of the air. His life work is the perfection of a bling flying device.

The two are first brought together when Miss Loy's brazen attempt to cash in on the publicity of Grant's

Guests of George Hunt Enjoy Early "Roberta" Showing

Mark up another musical triumph for the company which produced "Flying Down to Rio" and "The Gay Divorcee," for they are followed with another gay, tuneful hit which surpasses in color and entertainment values both of its brilliantly successful predecessors. It simply bristles with novelties.

A little group of Medford people who were guests of George Hunt Friday evening at a pre-showing of this most talked-of picture of the season—"Roberta"—revealed in the singing and acting of the peerless Irene Dunne and the matchless dancing of that sparkling team, Fred Astaire and lovely Ginger Rogers. The three

Viennese Romance at Rialto

Lifting romance of Vienna, borne on the wings of music, lends charm to "The Merry Widow," co-starring Ramon Novarro and Evelyn Laye at the Rialto theater for today and Monday.

Created by Oscar Hammerstein and Sigmund Romberg, who gave the world "New Moon," "Desert Song" and other outstanding hits, it is a haunting story of the Imperial Ballet.

players are perfectly suited to swiftly moving comedy and "Roberta" has everything which goes to make up smash entertainment!

Based on the Jerome Kern hit which made stage history last season, the picture offers a treat to the eyes as well as the ears. Furthermore, it

"The Merry Widow" at Roxy Today

Continental romance and glamor, aid; spectacular settings, whimsical humor, and the world's most popular musical romance brought with its full flavor to the talking screen, mark "The Merry Widow," which opens at Roxy theater today.

girls are gorgeous. Miss Dunne never before has looked quite so lovely or sung quite so beautifully as she does in this production, while Astaire and Rogers are positive knockouts in their dance routines.

In addition to the best of the Kern musical numbers from the original stage show, including the memorable "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," the picture introduces new sure-fire hit numbers.

Just a word about the dancing—there is so much to talk about in this production. Spectacular as were the "Carolea" and the "Continental," Astaire and Miss Rogers have succeeded in topping them with their routines in "Roberta."

The story, which moves gaily and tunelessly to a dramatically romantic climax, centers about the intriguing theme of love in a Paris gown shop. Throughout, comedy, romance, melody and foot-tlingling dancing are perfectly blended.

Outstanding supporting performances are contributed by Randolph Scott, Helen Westley, as Madame Roberta; Victor Varoni, Claire Dodd and Irls Albert.

"Roberta" will soon be shown at the Craterian theater in this city and those who are seeking the very finest of musical comedy entertainment should watch for its coming and make it a point to see it!—H. O.

Able Leave Hospital—Mrs. B. J. Palmer, having been a patient at the Community hospital in this city and those who are seeking the very finest of musical comedy entertainment should watch for its coming and make it a point to see it!—H. O.
