McLEOD, March 11.—(Sp.)—Installation of Grange officers for the newly organized Upper Rogue Grange was witnessed by a large number of people from all over the valley, Wednesday evening at the Rogue Elk hall.

Arthur Brown, state Grange organizer, and the Pomona installation team, directed by Mrs. Haak, conducted the meeting.

Following are the new officers installed: Master, Katie Grieve; overseer, Paul Robertson; lecturer, Evelyn Coburn; steward, Leo Hoag; assistant steward, Vic Chapman; treasurer, Stewart Weeks; chaplain, J. W. Richardson; secretary, Bruce Grieve; gatekeeper, Ruhe Moore; ladies of the court, Sylvia Manning, Lena Allworth, Jennie Hoag; lady assistant steward, R. Robertson; executive committee, R. H. Alverman, E. D. Hoag, N. F. Oht.

After the impressive ceremony, Mr. Brown called for short speeches from prominent members of other Granges to which the following responded with words of cheer and encouragement: R. E. Nealon of Sams Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Maust and Mr. Ward of Phoenix, Mr. Conger of Jacksonville, Perry and Haak of Eagle Point, and others.

A few remarks were added by Harry Merriman, through whose efforts chiefly the new Grange was organized. Mr. Merriman, who was referred to as the father of the Upper Rogue Grange, spoke feelingly of various attempts by himself and others when they met with no encouragement at organizing.

The new Grange starts off with a charter membership of 34, and promises to become one of the strongest Granges in the county.

Mrs. Harry Merriman and her committee served delicious refreshments to all. About 175 people were present.

LOYAL H. SETTLE OF LAKE CREEK PASSES

Starts Tuesday

"Sweet Adeline," the sensational musical comedy hit by Jerome Kern and Oscar Hammerstein II that set all New York a-whistling, now comes to the screen and starts a three-day run at the Rialto theatre tomorrow.

Irene Dunne, whose golden voice won fame for her on the stage in such famous hits as "Show Boat," "Irene" and many others, appears in the stellar role.

The picture is laid in the glamorous Broadway theatrical district; a fashionable setting place for young bloods and their lady loves on the outskirts of the city and in a picturesque Roboken beer garden of the gay nineties.

Four of Hollywood's most talented comedians take part. They are Hugh Herbert, Ned Sparks, Joseph Cawthorn and Nydia Westman.

Air Film Pleases All At Craterian

No matter whether you're interested in aviation or not—whether you can tell a plane's type by the noise it makes in the sky or whether you're unable to tell an aileron from a wing—you have a stirring, dramatic treat and an hour of thrills, chills and grand comedy in "Wings in the Air" awaiting you.

The picture, starring Myrna Loy and Cary Grant, opened at the Craterian theatre, yesterday.

Although the plot is based on an aviator's unswerving work for safety in the air through the perfection of "blind flying," the picture is so replete with drama, suspense, heart-tugging romance and novel and original stunts that it sweeps you along on a wave of enthusiasm for its sheer entertainment value.

Its hero is Cary Grant, who distrusts Myrna Loy because he believes that her spectacular, publicity hunting flights bring disrepute on his profession. When, as a result of an accident on the eve of a flight that will climax his experiments, he is blinded, Miss Loy comes to his aid.

Chevalier Irked By Recent Roles Will Return Home

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., March 11.—(Sp.)—Disatisfied with the pictures in which he has been cast recently, Maurice Chevalier has severed relations with the M-G-M studio and will leave this week, probably Saturday, for his native France.

The French actor plans to return to the United States in a few months. He said he thought his part in "The Chocolate Soldier" were invited to him.

Desperate, he flees to the woods. But Miss Loy follows, bringing him one of those grand Seeing Eye dogs. Between her love and the dog's devotion, they work a miracle and Grant resolves to return to his work.

Miss Loy undertakes to do an extremely hazardous long distance flight. As she approaches her goal, fog settles down over the field. Hung in the clouds with her gas rapidly dwindling, she fears death or injury until Grant is galvanized into action.

In the stirring and original final scenes of the picture, Grant rescues Miss Loy, proves the value of his experimental work, and best of all, regains his sight.

3000 INSURGENTS ARE CAPTURED BY LOYAL SOLDIERS

George Kondylis, minister of war, to have been abandoned early this morning before the advance of his forces who marched triumphantly into town.

Later accounts said Drama, Kavalla, and a host of smaller rebel centers had capitulated.

Four Face Judge ON DRUNK CHARGE

Four men were arrested Saturday night on charges of being drunk in a public place. W. W. Donnelly, John Luchowicz, Floyd G. Thurman and Herbert W. Lynch. They appeared in city court this morning, and all but Luchowicz were fined $10. Luchowicz was asked to leave town, being given that choice of going to jail for ten days, according to city police.

COTTON SUFFERS BAD REDUCTION IN VALUE

NEW ORLEANS, March 11.—(AP)—After breaking more than $9 a bale on the belief that the government would not continue the 12-cent loan, cotton futures here today staged a rally and in the late afternoon trading prices were holding at about $6 a bale under Saturday's closing prices.

By a vote of 17 to 13 the senate passed senate bill 393, providing for the creation of county child welfare committees, to aid in taking care of dependent and delinquent children. Senator N. G. Wallace, who backed the measure, pointed out that it would aid in cutting down the number of children sent to state institutions.

The upper house voted to change the name of the eastern Oregon and Southern Oregon Normal schools to include the words "junior college." The measure was amended on the floor to include the Ashland institution.
