Ye Smudge Pot

The next war will be fought by radio. This means the non-combatants will have to distinguish between the shrieks of a shell and a soprano, butting in on a battle, to get some free advertising for herself and a new liver pill.

The legislature adjourned "sine die," same being its most notable achievement.

The chief objection to an ideal place to live is that cranks like it too. (Los Angeles Express)—Pearl of wisdom from a region that can speak from observation and contact, it reports be true.

It is pasting strange in these days of tall promises of sudden wealth, from political windjammers and four-flushers, nobody recalls when all good Oregonians were assured of electric lights for nothing.

IT'S A GOOD THING

(Salem Capital-Journal)
The speaker's lack of knowledge of the duties of his office, his total inability to expedite business, and his fear of offending and failure to decide, made an ass of his party and a monkey of himself.

SUMMER

The long-time resident, who, in a letter to the editor came out fearlessly and flat-footedly against local summers, is Civic Hero No. 1, and as much entitled to a medal and welcoming reception as Admiral Byrd, now returning home from two years at the South Pole. There is not much difference between freezing to death, and roasting to death. Our hero is quite apt to get a roasting from both the Sun, and the Chamber of Commerce Committee on the Falsification of the Climate. There has been no such display of down-right ferocity, since a bored citizen, in 1928, denounced the student races at the county fair as the least bit of nothing to behold by way of waiting an afternoon.

AMERICAN COUPLE CHARGED AS SPIES

PARIS, France, March 15.—(AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gordon Swifts of East Orange, N. J., were indicted with 30 other persons today as members of an alleged Soviet spy ring.

MEDFORD HOTTEST POINT

The indignation committee always cools off when advised the headline was based on the odd figure of the weather bureau, and no insult was meant by designation as the champion hot spot of the nation.

HUGE TURNOVER SEEN TODAY IN MONEY MART

NEW YORK, March 15.—(AP)—Government refunding operations, tax collections and dividend payments combine to swell the turnover in the money market today to an estimated $1,300,000,000. Upwards of 150 dividends will be paid on corporation shares.

SLUGGER POLITE BUT HURTS JUST THE SAME

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 15.—(AP)—The slugger was polite, but that didn't ease the pain in William Blunt's head. Blunt was riding home on a street car when he received a heavy blow on the head, looked up to see an assailant with a blackjack. "Excuse me," the fellow stammered. "I made a mistake," and ran from the car.

BRUNO TO WATCH THREE MEN TAKE GALLOWS MARCH

But hats entered the death house when the cold, egg-shaped Hauptmann was led in. Mule, Scarpoone and De Stefano made the place horrible with their shouts and screams. Hauptmann, according to his jailers, never changed expression, never made reply. Probably that is how he will watch Mule, Scarpoone and De Stefano go to their chair next week—and probably that is the way he will tread the long path to punishment himself if courts of appeal support the verdict found in Justice Thomas W. Trenchard's little court room at Flemington.

MERRIAM RECALL TO COST $4200

SALEM, March 15.—(AP)—A deficiency bill covering the state's share of the Merriam recall election in Lane county next Tuesday will be required as the result of the legislature's failure to approve an appropriation of $200 for the election. The deficiency would have to be presented to the 1937 legislature.

BEER RETAILERS HANDED NEW TAX

PORTLAND, March 15.—(AP)—Oregon brewers are passing on to the retailer the burden of the beer tax imposed by the legislature.

HONOR WHITEMAN 'DEAN OF JAZZ'

NEW YORK, March 15.—(AP)—The men to whose music New Yorkers dance, paid tribute last night to Paul Whiteman as his 20th anniversary as a dance band maestro.

WATERTOWN BOWLERS SET CONGRESS PACE

SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 15.—(UP)—Watertown, N. Y., pin topplers today set the pace in the American Bowling congress, with 1164 of Tucker and 2, Smith beat in doubles and a good team performance.

AGED MAN CHEATS DEATH BY INCURABLE DISEASE

SAN GABRIEL, Calif., March 15.—(AP)—Andrew B. Collins, 85, learned today he had an incurable disease. He put the muzzle of a revolver in his mouth and pulled the trigger, killing himself.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

Mr. La Guardia's brain trust, A. Berle, Jr., is supposed to have originated a scheme to create a municipal corporation with federal money and lend money through it to delinquent taxpayers, enabling them to pay their city taxes. It has been put before the RFC several times and rejected.

There is no question that Mayor La Guardia of New York is playing ball fully with the new dealers in nearly anything they want to do. But the latest one he has tried to put over on them here is a little too much.

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY

NEW YORK, March 15.—Thoughts while strolling: There's a Thyras window story in the aristocratic decay of old Murray Hill. I can't read Vicki Baum. What's become of Allie rettel's? Eliza Maxwell bob, bob, bobbin' along. Walter Connolly suggests a curate of the English country-side off stage.

Personal Health Service

By William Brady, M.D.
Signed letters pertaining to personal health and hygiene not to disease diagnosis or treatment will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Letters should be brief and written in ink.

A PLEA TO EDUCATED FOOLS.

Recently a woman of good education, to judge by her letter, wrote to "pick a bone" with me. She said her health was excellent and her family enjoyed fine health too, but her motive for writing was to defend from my ridicule people who believe in "a t o i n - t o x i c o s" as the charlatans now call it. Then the good woman went on to say that some twenty years ago she had entered upon the first year of the medical course and she most pity remembers that one of the freshman instructors always advised students to watch their "elimination" and keep the bowels open. . . . so she felt it is regrettable that I should deride the doctrine.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Is there an aluminum poison, and if so, how does it affect a person? (Mrs. E. O.)
Answer—I reckon it must make one just grumpy, sarcastic and mean. We've used aluminum in our kitchen for 30 years and now see what a sad state I am in. Aren't you taking the charlatans too seriously, ma'am?

Banana Fine for Baby.
Please tell me whether you said a baby 8 months old can have banana. (D. R. B.)
Answer—It is well to begin feeding ripe banana pulp to the baby at the age of 4 months. For instance about this and other points read "10 cents in coin and a stamped addressed envelope for a copy of the "Brady Baby Book." (Copyright 1935, John F. Dille Co.)

and it unfolded just as in the gallery god days. With Lewis dimming every number in an arrested prance, he extended straight out, a hair look over the shoulder and that plaintive "Is everybody happy?" Vau-deville has come and gone but Lewis, a Circleville, O. boy, stays on and on and brings down the house at every performance. There is no smart talk or effort to key his turn to modern formula. Indeed, there is no need to Lewis is one of the few actors with an almost year-around billing.

Communications

Says Rogers Right
To the Editor:
Don't you think Will Rogers' idea about congress is about right—that they had better quit and come home before they eat everything up? It does not look like they are statesmen enough to pass on any bill that is of any benefit to the country at large.

Comment on the Day's News

By FRANK JENKINS
YOU have read, perhaps, this paragraph in a Salem dispatch: "Piqued because the Oregon legislature was being prolonged, due largely to consideration of minor measures referred to as 'pets' by their authors, a movement was started in the lower house Monday to conduct a 'slaughter week'."

WILBUR GLENN VOLIVA, who professes to believe the world is flat, so that if you came to the edge of it and your foot slipped you would fall off into empty space, tells the reporters that because of his diet of Brazil nuts and buttermilk he expects to live until 1990, at which time he will be 120.

Ed Note: Persons wishing to communicate with Dr. Brady should send letters to Dr. William Brady, M. D., 245 E. Camino, Beverly Hills, Cal.

There are the faithful one may always see at the Dutch Treat. Only keep them away. They include Frank Cummings, Gene Buck, Dean Cornwell, H. T. Webster, Bob Brinkhoff, Bruce Barton, Marc Connelly, Rube Goldberg, Reginald Wernher, Gene Lockhart and Karl Kitchen. Those who skip three luncheons in a row, without valid excuse, are dropped from the roster. And rarely is anyone dropped.

EDWARD J. REILLY, who has been industriously beating the drum for an "appeal fund" for Bruno Richard Hauptmann, seems to have hit a snag. He says: "I don't now for sure who has put an end to Hauptmann fund contributions in New York, but I have an idea."

This writer also has an idea, but it's probably too good to be true. Maybe the people of New York are getting fed up on buncombe.
