

PRECOOL PLANT AT K. F. TO TAKE OVERFLOW FRUIT

The Klamath Ice and Cold Storage company, Andy Collier, owner and manager, started work this week on a $20,000 improvement to their fruit precooling plant, which will raise their box-capacity from 45,000 to 125,000 boxes, according to M. M. Morris, manager of the Medford Ice and Cold Storage company, who returned yesterday from Klamath Falls.

The new unit, two buildings of two stories each, will be equipped with the most modern of precooling machinery, the same kind that is used in the Medford plant, and the last word in conveying equipment.

The plant will be used exclusively for the overflow of Medford fruit. The storage-in-transit system will be used, involving a three cent per box charge, the same charge as for storage in Portland and San Francisco, but with the advantage that local fruitmen can inspect their fruit at any time after only a two hour drive to Klamath Falls.

ALBINO BIRDS ARE SEEN IN VALLEY

GRANTS PASS, March 15.—(Sp.)—Perhaps the birds and squirrels of the Rogue river valley are cleaning up this spring. At any rate a number of them white in color have been seen at widely separated points.

First the Forbes W. Fosbery family saw a white robin at their farm west of Grants Pass. Then, Wednesday, Tom Gaffney of the Prudette district reported that a white robin has been at his farm for about a month.

Gaffney added to the list by declaring a white hawk of the "diver" family was at his place for two days. He watched it dart from a tree, grasp a feeding robin, then eat the robin on its tree perch. The hawk was a little larger than a pigeon.

A pure white squirrel was seen on Birdseye creek recently by C. M. Malcolm, game warden of the state police. The little animal is of the grey squirrel family, Malcolm said, and residents along the creek said it had been in the vicinity for six years. Quite tame, the squirrel came to within 20 feet of the officer.

ASHLAND C. OF C. SEAT FOR TALENT GRANGER

ASHLAND, March 14.—(Sp.)—To represent that district in the Ashland chamber of commerce, Harry Weagant has been appointed by the Talent grange, and will attend all board meetings as a non-voting member.

The local chamber approved a plan two weeks ago whereby the Talent grange, Talent chamber of commerce, and the Bellview district would be represented in the Ashland deliberations. The other representatives have not yet been selected.

Lutherans To Hear Schumann-Heink On Recording Sunday

"The Rosary," by Nevin, sung by the world-famous contralto, Ernestine Schumann-Heink, with orchestra accompaniment for a recording, will be one of the prelude numbers at Zion Lutheran church rendered by an electric amplifier and loud speaker in the church at 10:30 a. m.

The pipe organ solo, "Through His Wounded Side" (Bossett), and a march by Mendelssohn on the grand organ and played by Mark Andrews, will be the other prelude and postlude numbers.

At the 7:30 p. m. service the prelude numbers will consist of a pipe organ "Serenade" solo by Milton Charles organist, and a tenor and bass duet, "The Lord Is My Shepherd" (H. Smart), sung by Reed Miller and Frank Croxson with organ accompaniment.
