

Society and Clubs

Open House Today To Begin Activities Of New Town Club

With the beginning of spring social activities, the opening of the new town club at 1000 West Main street is expected to provide a popular center for the many tea, luncheon, bridge parties and dances that are anticipated during the months to follow.

The first club function will be the open house today from 4 to 6 o'clock. Those in charge welcome everyone to visit the clubhouse, which was formerly the University club.

Parent-Teachers Council to Meet With Mrs. Swem

The Medford Council of Parent-Teachers will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Jack Swem, 38 Ross court. Mrs. Swem, vice president, will preside during the business session. A very interesting program is anticipated.

Mrs. Jack Heyland, state vice president from this district, has just returned from Portland where she attended a state board meeting of the congress. She will discuss plans for the state P-T. A. convention, the dates for which have been definitely set for Oct. 21 to 24. The Medford council is arranging a caravan to Crater lake for delegates and guests at the convention.

Mrs. Gribble New Chairman of Circle

Merritt Circle of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. C. Graves, 507 South Holly. A delicious 1 o'clock luncheon was served by a committee of six. Regular business session followed the luncheon, during which officers were elected for the ensuing year.

Mrs. J. E. Oribb, chairman; Mrs. James Taylor, vice chairman; Mrs. Elizabeth McKay, secretary; Mrs. R. S. Daniels, treasurer.

The following were appointed: Devotional chairman, Mrs. Walter Frazier Brown; program chairman, Mrs. E. Faber; publicity chairman, Mrs. R. H. Johnson.

The circle is invited to the home of Mrs. C. T. Sweeney for the April meeting.

Wenonah Club Plans Card Party Thursday. The regular social card party of Wenonah club will be held at the home of Hulda Thurman, 722 West 14th street Thursday afternoon, March 21, at 2 o'clock.

Mistletoe Club Meeting Enjoyed. Mistletoe club met Wednesday afternoon at the cheerful rooms of the Girls' Community club with Neighbor Jessie Lang as hostess, assisted by her committee, Neighbors Coa Lewis, Beate Dewey and Maudie Lovell.

The committee served dainty refreshments carrying the colors suggestive of St. Patrick's Day.

REPORTS OF ENGAGEMENT FLY

Reports that Everett Sanders (left), secretary to the late Calvin Coolidge, and Mrs. Grace Coolidge (right), the former President's wife, were engaged to marry were circulated among friends of the couple, although John Coolidge, son of the late President, denied that the rumors were true. (Associated Press Photos)

Dinner and Dance Enjoyed by Forty At 'The Colonial'

Officers of the Medford CCC district headquarters staff and their staff enjoyed an Italian dinner dance Friday evening at The Colonial. The Italian dinner was served in cabaret style during the evening with dancing between the courses.

Russia Is Subject of Post Delphians At Study Meeting

Post Delphians club held an interesting study meeting at the Girls' Community club rooms, March 14, with Mrs. Laura M. West, president, presiding. Mrs. Rawles Moore, the guest speaker, gave a greatly appreciated talk on Russian composers and music.

She traced the music from the earliest period and gave an interesting account of the leading representatives of the different periods. Her talk was followed by two piano numbers by her daughter, Miss Marian Moore, "Spinning Song" by Youfferoff and "Russian Dance" from the Nutcracker Suite by Tchaikovsky.

Mrs. LeBund Meuter gave a review of the book by Alexander Wickstedt. She said the author spent 10 years in educational work in Russia. The speaker brought out various points of interest in the book such as the many nationalities of the country, differences in the languages and standards of living, lack of working material, the scant knowledge of machinery, and the lack of clothing, food and other necessities.

Mrs. Richard Denman, Carnation Club Hostess. Carnation club met March 14 at the home of Mrs. Richard Denman with a good attendance. Refreshments were served by the hostess, the table decorations being daffodils and shamrocks.

Mrs. John Hubler of 859 East Ninth street will entertain the Carnation club on April 11. Miss Culy Elected. The Circle Missionary society of the Christian church held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday at the church, in form of a potluck dinner.

Officers of Royal Neighbors to Meet. Royal Neighbors officers are requested to meet at K. P. hall, Monday afternoon at 3:30 to practice for work at the Central Point rally Friday evening.

Olive Rebekah Will Observe Anniversary

Olive Rebekah Lodge No. 28 will hold its regular business and social meeting Monday evening, March 18, at 7:30 p.m. at I. O. O. F. hall. The lodge will observe its 40th anniversary at this time.

A very interesting program has been arranged by Mrs. Minnie Bryant and her committee. All visiting Rebekahs, Odd Fellows and their wives, and husbands of Rebekahs are invited, and all members are urged to attend.

Refreshments will be served by the committee. Mary and Martha Circle Meets Tuesday. The Mary and Martha circle of the First M. E. church Aid society will meet at 2 p. m. Tuesday, March 19, at the home of Mrs. Eva McNary, 223 North Central street.

Past Matrons Club Card Party Wednesday. Past Matrons club of Reames chapter is giving a card party for the club Wednesday, March 20, in the De Molay hall of the Masonic temple. Play will begin at 2 o'clock, with both contract and auction bridge. Prizes will be given and refreshments will be served.

Church Auxiliary Has Missionary Meet. The Ladies Auxiliary of the First Baptist church held a combined business and missionary meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. R. S. Wilder, 712 Alder street. The president, Mrs. M. L. Hague, presided.

Neal Curry, Dorothy Culy, and Mrs. A. H. Gregory who attended the World Fellowship meet at Portland gave reports on the work that took place there. The Medford group was pleased to learn that Miss Culy had been elected state secretary for the society for the ensuing year. The group was also awarded a book as prize at the convention for having the best poster and this was presented to the society at the meeting.

Permanent Waves $1.00
Finger Wave 25c
Comb Wave 25c
Shampoo 25c
Haircut 25c
Manicure 25c
Eye Brow Arch 25c
Scalp Treatment 50c
Hot Oil 50c
ENROLL NOW—Class starting April 1. No down payment. Pay as you learn.

Students Arriving From College For Spring Vacations

The most optimistic declare that spring has arrived and with it are many students from Oregon State college, University of Oregon and other coast schools to spend the short spring vacation at their homes. Activities of school will again become the talk of the town and it is anticipated that there will be much entertaining among the younger set during the next two weeks.

Students from Oregon State college are already arriving, many having completed their examinations in time to make the trip home over the week end. Others will arrive Tuesday, when examinations close.

Later in the week students from University of Oregon will arrive, their examinations complete Friday. The respective vacations will last approximately a week.

Among those who will arrive from University of Oregon are Max Carter, Dick Steeter, Jeanne Quisenberry, Marshall Gray, Ona Hendrickson, Bill Prentice, Bob Prentice, Harold Barton, Bill Cunningham, Tom Fuson, Tom Emmens, Dick Reum, John Gribble, William Estill Phipps, Paul Wilson, Thelma Hayes, Mary, Bertha and Frances Arnsperger, Durward Gass, Sam Kroschel, David Lowry, Wayne Lowry.

From Oregon State college among those who are returning are Wildon Colbaugh, Earl Littrell, Marjorie Phyllis, Barbara Jean Field, Suzette Stennett, Gertrude and Margaret Boyle, Melvin Anderson, Sybil Jean Young, Arnold Young, Robert Minner, Elizabeth Eason, Genevieve DeVogel, Robert Kroschel, Evelyn Leonard, Jean Woodford, Ruth Reed, Glenn Simkins, Leneve Simkins, Mary Van Dyke, LaVon Dunford, Mary Louise Elrod, Evelyn Grimmert, Edwin Clements, Ruby Stone, Frederick Younger, Floyd Loomis.

All visiting Rebekahs, Odd Fellows of Washington who are expected to return are Tommy White, Harold Gebauer, Winifred Jones and Janet Wray Smith.

Fidelity Circle Meets On Tuesday. Fidelity Circle of the First Methodist church will meet with Mrs. Albert Anderson on Ross Lane, Tuesday, at 2 o'clock.

F. L. Club Has Enjoyable Party. F. L. club held an enjoyable card party Monday evening at the home of Mrs. George Laidley, 813 West Second, with Mrs. Jean Jennings in charge. Twenty members were present.

Wednesday Study Club Will Meet on March 20. Wednesday Study club will meet March 20, it was announced for presentation of an interesting program. A book review, "The New Democracy," by Harold L. Ickes, will be given by Mrs. B. G. Harding. Mrs. C. A. Meeker will give another book review and current events will be given by Mrs. L. E. Williams.

Queen Esther circle of the First Methodist church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. M. A. Bliss, 313 South Grape street Tuesday, March 19, at 2 p. m. All members are asked to attend.

St. Patrick Party Crater Guild Plan

Crater Lake Guild will have a St. Patrick's party Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred P. King, 204 North Ivy street. To add to the fun of the occasion all members are asked to come in costume, preferably Irish, and a prize will be given for the cleverest one.

Oregon State Club Plans St. Patrick's Party Monday Eve

All members of the Oregon State club and alumni, and students of Oregon State college who are home for spring vacation, are invited to the Oregon State club party to be held Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peri, 311 North Oakdale.

The occasion for the party is St. Patrick's day. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Reichstein, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Phetteplace and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gebauer will be the committee in charge.

Past Nobles Hold Anniversary Meet. When Past Noble Grand club met at the home of Mrs. Grace Hamlin Thursday evening, March 14, the club observed its eleventh anniversary in an appropriate manner.

Mrs. Hamlin, assisted by Mrs. Carrie McDannels and Mrs. Ethel Hargrinholm, served delicious refreshments with St. Patrick's day motif. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Elsie Miller, April 11.

Lady Elks Plan Meeting Tuesday. Lady Elks will meet at the Elks temple at 2 o'clock Tuesday for bridge, pool and bowling. All Lady Elks are urged to attend.

Mrs. Bliss Will Entertain Circle. Queen Esther circle of the First Methodist church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. M. A. Bliss, 313 South Grape street Tuesday, March 19, at 2 p. m. All members are asked to attend.

Madrigal Club Will Dance. Madrigal club presented several numbers at the anniversary party given Friday night at the K. P. hall by the American Legion which were very well received.

The chorus is comprised of a number of trained singers who have been rehearsing since October and are planning to give a concert at a future date. The chorus meets every Tuesday evening at 7:45 o'clock at the Girls' Community club.

Marriage Miss Mary Adamson to Marvin Albert Held Salem

Miss Mary Adamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Adamson of Salem, was married to Marvin Albert, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Albert of this city, in a noon ceremony performed in the fireplace room of the Presbyterian church at Salem last Sunday. Members of the immediate families attended the wedding.

The bride was given away by her father. She was lovely in an old rose ensemble with brown accessories and wore a corsage of rosebuds and fuchsias.

Both the bride and the bridegroom graduated from Medford high school in the class of 1929. Mrs. Albert attended the University of Oregon and Mr. Albert the University of Washington, where he was affiliated with Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity.

Mr. Albert is operator of the Richfield service station at Fourth and Riverside streets. They are home at 118 Tripp street.

Mrs. West Head Of Church Circle. A most enjoyable St. Patrick's day luncheon was served by Sunny sisters circle of the Presbyterian church Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George West, with Mrs. Laura M. West, Mrs. Wm. Young, Mrs. George Alden, Mrs. A. G. Soderberg and Mrs. Ralph Sweeney assistant hostesses.

The tables were attractive with Shamrock decorations and a large centerpiece of daffodils. Each guest was presented a shamrock favor inscribed with an Irish verse and an individual cake.

Following the luncheon devotionals were conducted by Mrs. Elizabeth Burr. The following officers were elected: Chairman, Mrs. George H. West, vice-chairman, Mrs. Louis Brown, secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Geo. Alden.

Mrs. J. A. Perry will be hostess to the circle at the April meeting.

Altar Society Meets Tuesday. St. Ann's Altar society will hold its regular meeting Tuesday in the parish hall, at 2:30. A good attendance is requested.

Directors Postpone Meeting Indefinitely. The regular meeting of the board of directors of the Girls' Community club that was to have been held Monday has been indefinitely postponed. It was announced yesterday.

Guests Entertained At Williams Home

Mrs. C. H. Williams entertained at her home, 724 West 11th street Friday night, in honor of her niece, Miss Viola Penland of Central Point. Three tables of pinocchle were in play during the evening, first prize going to Libby Hamilton, consolation to Norma Holland and low to Dorothy Powell. Refreshments were served at midnight with the tables beautifully decorated to carry out the St. Patrick's day motif.

Mrs. Williams was assisted by her daughter, Miss Lida Williams. Those enjoying the evening were the honor guest, Miss Penland, Norma Holland, Zada Cash, Dorothy Powell, Libby Hamilton and Hazel Stagger of Central Point; Nina Pyper of Talent; Maxine and Avolette Clemons, Gertrude and Esther Amilton and Lida Williams of Medford.

Music of Russia Heard at Meeting. Travel study club met in regular session Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. J. Hanby, 435 West Holly street.

A program of music by Russian composers was an appropriate closing of the study of Russia. Mrs. Rawles Moore, who had charge of this interesting and delightful program was assisted by Mrs. Elsie Carlton Strang, Misses Marton Moore and Dorothy Gore.

Mrs. Moore, with the ease and simplicity of the artist, introduced the program with an authentic account of Russian music from its early development to the present time. The program was: National Hymn, "Song of Russia," an orchestration.

"On the Steppe," a folk song, arranged by Gettecheppoff, Elsie Carlton Strang, "Capriccio," by Winiawski, played by Elman, "A Russian Air," by Rachmaninoff, played by Elman, "Spinning Song," by Youfferoff, "Bacchante," Marlan Moore, "Andante Cantabile," by Tchaikovsky, Dorothy Gore, "Farewell to Boris," Moussorgsky, "The Death of Boris," Moussorgsky, sung by Challaipin.

Master Lloyd Bishop Entertains on Birthday. Master Lloyd Bishop son of Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Bishop of 16 Glen Oak court, celebrated his second birthday Friday by having a number of his little friends as guests. Refreshments were served late in the afternoon.

Building Bridge Club Entertained. Mrs. J. C. Murray and Mrs. W. Clark entertained the Building Bridge club and guests Thursday at luncheon dessert. Seven tables of bridge were in play. Mrs. A. P. Stennett held high score. The place cards were hand decorated in green and white in keeping with St. Patrick's day.

Thimble Club Has New Members. Christianenthum Thimble Club No. 223, Neighbors of Woodcraft, met at the home of Neighbor Stella Anderson Thursday for covered dish luncheon. Following luncheon the regular business meeting was held.

Five new members joined the club, Helen McCabe, Martha Gail, Minnie Green, Thelma Cunningham, Belle Gibson, Eva Bidden and Etta Parker. There were 20 members present and two visitors.

Wedding of Romona Jackson to Gregory Wood Is Announced

The marriage of Miss Romona Jackson, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. E. P. Jackson of Corvallis, to Gregory Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Douglas of Eugene, in a beautiful ceremony solemnized February 23 at the home of the bride's parents in Corvallis, was announced here yesterday to the interest of many who have known Mr. Wood.

He is a grandson of Mrs. J. F. Gregory of Medford and the cousin of Gordon Kershaw, and his mother, Mrs. Douglas, is a pioneer of Rogue River valley. Mr. Wood attended grade school in Medford before moving to Corvallis and later to Eugene.

Rev. Frank B. Matthews, pastor of the First Baptist church of Corvallis, performed the ceremony in the presence of 76 immediate relatives and friends, including a number of visiting guests.

The bridal party was preceded by Mrs. Don Wagner, Mrs. Joe Powell, Miss Frankie Downing and Miss Jennie Jackson, who carried white streamers to form an aisle for the bride and her attendants. Miss Estler Jackson, sister of the bride, attended her as maid of honor. Edgar Howard of Portland was best man.

The bride, who entered with her father, was lovely in white satin. She wore a thra of fresias in her hair and carried a shower of fresias, rosebuds and bouvardias. A reception followed the ceremony and refreshments were served in the dining room, where pink tapers and a bowl of pink carnations adorned the table. Mrs. Joe Powell served the tea and Mrs. Don Wagner cut the bride's cake.

Mrs. and Mrs. Wood motored to Portland on a brief wedding trip and are now at Eugene, where Mr. Wood is a senior in commerce at the University of Oregon. Mrs. Wood attended Oregon State college, as did Mr. Wood during his earlier college years.

Westonka Council Plans Entertainment. Next Friday evening Westonka Council, Poochanas lodge, will hold Past Poochanas night, with past officers filling the stations.

This will be the social card party evening for the members, and the birthdays occurring this month will be observed.

V. F. W. Auxiliary To Sponsor Card Party. The V. F. W. Auxiliary will sponsor another of their card parties, next Thursday afternoon, March 21, at the home of Mrs. Etha Wall, 1038 Reddy avenue. Prizes will be given and refreshments served. Playing will begin at 2 p. m. The public is cordially invited.

The V. F. W. Auxiliary gave the latest of their public card parties Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Tom K. Flynn, 219 North Oakdale. Bridge and five-handed were played and prizes were given. Mrs. Etha Wall won first in bridge with Mrs. Harry R. Inalling, five-hundred with Mrs. E. M. Lovell low. At the close of play very delightful refreshments were served by the hostess.

In the Gay Nineties

THIS was a smart, fashionable outfit. . . . All of the best dressed ladies wore them. . . . Today, the women combine smartness with COMMON SENSE in their dress—comfort is considered as well as style. Styles in house work have also changed. . . . Common sense again asserts itself and the wise housewife avails herself of our convenient, quick, economical laundry services—It saves both money and a day of hard work!

WET WASH 4c lb.

In Lots of at Least 13 Pounds

American Laundry

138 South Central Telephone 873

Something New For You In Every Department at ADRIENNE'S

CATALINA SWEATERS

You never have too many sweaters, and especially these smart angoras in several styles. White, canary, fuchsia, rose, silver, jockey red, Concord blue and green.

$1.95 - $3.95 - $4.95

Gowns & Pajamas Regular values to $5.95. Lovely satin garments with lace trimming $3.95

Easter Permanents Make an appointment at Adrienne's Salon of Beauty for a Frederic's Permanent. Of course, you will want one before Easter.

Phone 577

THERE'S BURIED TREASURE HIDDEN IN YOUR HOME

CASH for OLD GOLD

Look in old jewelry boxes and cabinets and collect the pieces of old gold. You will probably be surprised at the number of pins, earrings, rings, watch chains, etc., you will find. Bring them to Brophy's and receive highest cash prices in return. Do Not Sell YOUR Old Gold to STRANGERS

Brophy's JEWELERS

MEDFORD, ORE.

Government License No. S-12-255

Formant's Shampoos Finger Waving

MEDFORD SCHOOL OF BEAUTY CULTURE

PHONE 84 418 1/2 East Main — Medford

Permanent Waves	$1.00
Finger Wave	25c
Comb Wave	25c
Shampoo	25c
Haircut	25c
Manicure	25c
Eye Brow Arch	25c
Scalp Treatment	50c
Hot Oil	50c

ENROLL NOW—Class starting April 1. No down payment. Pay as you learn.

LARRY SCHADE

ANNIVERSARY SALE COMMUNITY CHINA

You save $10 to $30 on complete services, and 25% on open stock pieces. For a limited time only!

YOUR FAVORITE JEWELER SINCE 1918