

TEACHERS CHORUS TO GIVE CONCERT TUESDAY, MAR. 26

The Teachers' chorus, which will present a spring concert Tuesday evening, March 26, was organized two and one-half years ago by a group of Jackson county school teachers interested in music.

First meeting was held October 1, 1932, under leadership of Miss Harriet Baldwin, supervisor of music in the Medford schools.

Thirty-two signed as charter members. Mrs. George Andrews was secured as pianist.

The chorus club grew during the first year. Its members thoroughly enjoyed their work under the able direction of Miss Baldwin.

In the fall of 1933 the chorus was reorganized under the direction of Miss Baldwin, and membership increased to forty or more.

This year the chorus was again reorganized and has been working under the leadership of Mrs. Esther Leake, supervisor of music in the Medford public school.

The Jackson County Teachers' chorus invites all those who enjoy musical entertainments to attend the spring concert.

LEGION BIRTHDAY PARTY LURES 200

The American Legion and Auxiliary and their friends held a big party at the K. P. hall Friday night, attended by over 200 members from this city, Ashland and Grants Pass.

The occasion was the 16th anniversary of the Legion and a huge cake, decorated with 16 candles, was auctioned, with Paul McDonald of Ashland as auctioneer.

Neil Allen of Grants Pass was the main speaker of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Bonney, commander of the Legion and president of the Auxiliary there, were present, as was Oscar Silver, commander of the Ashland post.

The Madrigal club sang two numbers and were heartily applauded. After the program, dancing was enjoyed, the music being furnished by Ralph Motte's four-piece orchestra.
