

HUMBUG QUINTET DISTRICT CHAMPS IN CCC TOURNEY

Score 25-13 Victory Over Formerly Undefeated Oregon Caves Five In Final Contest—Award Trophies

A fighting Humbug Mountain quintet demonstrated its right to be called the best team in the Medford district Sunday by piling up a 25 to 13 score against the hitherto undefeated Oregon Caves five in the final game of the Medford championship series.

Combining the best features of the zone defense with the best of the man to man, Humbug stopped the Oregon Caves attack in the middle of the floor and the winners of 21 games bowed in defeat.

In the consolation game, Bradford easily won from Headquarters Detachment's courageous battlers who were hampered by injuries. The score was Bradford 14, Headquarters 18.

Major Clare H. Armstrong, commanding Medford district, in presenting the beautiful silver cups to Bradford, Oregon Caves, Indian Creek and Headquarters Detachment, winners of the zone contests and the district trophy and cup to Humbug Mt., stated the opinion of all those who witnessed the finals when he said that the splendid sportsmanship and will to win displayed by all teams was highly commendable and a credit to Medford district.

It was a five man team that stopped Oregon Caves. Johnson, Hanky Caves center, who because of his height, featured in the early games, was unable to get the tipoff against Steingraber of Humbug. Michalowski, diminutive and speedy forward who was the outstanding player in Saturday's game, met his match in Citro, Humbug's little guard. Pettit time and again cut off Oregon Caves under the basket and aided largely in the victory. Captain Hinnebar unable to get started in the Saturday game found himself against Oregon Caves and turned in his best performance of the year.

Campbell of Bradford almost defeated Headquarters single handed, getting 17 points. Crites ably seconded him with 16 points. Neugart led for Headquarters with Hogan putting the fighting spirit into the team.

CREDIT FOR 'FINDING' PITCHER CURTIS DAVIS ACCORDED COURT HALL

Credit for introducing Curtis Davis, star pitcher of the Philadelphia team of the National League, to big time baseball is given in a recent issue of the "Sporting News" by Court Hall, ardent baseball fan of this city. In a three column article, the baseball periodical relates how Hall, "tipped off" Nick Williams of the San Francisco Seals, that "Davis was a good prospect." As a result Davis was signed with the Bay City team.

Hall became acquainted with Davis in 1927, when Hall managed the Medford team, and Davis pitched for Ashland. The local diamond enthusiast was so impressed with Davis' curves and speed, and the manner in which he squeezed the Medford team that he felt he had located a "find", and started writing letters to Nick Williams about him.

The "Sporting News" erred in one detail. It lists Court Hall "as a 70-year-old man." The figure is off about eight years.

Davis won 19 games last year with a tall-end team, and is regarded as one of "the smartest pitchers in baseball." The mound star corresponds with Hall, and is well known in this city, Ashland and Gold Hill.

ASHLAND CHAMPIONS LEAVE TUESDAY FOR STATE TOURNAMENT

ASHLAND, March 18.—(Sp1)—Coach Don Faber, student manager Jim Voss and eight Ashland high school basketball players, will leave here Tuesday morning by automobile for Salem, where they will represent district number nine at the state tournament.

Boasting a record of 23 wins out of 24 games, the Oriztelax are probably the strongest team from Ashland in over ten years and are rated one of the teams to beat in the state tournament.

Ashland's first game will be with Benson Tech, winner of the Portland Intercollegiate league and considered one of the strongest teams to enter the meet. The game will be played at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday, opening day of the tourney.

Ashland's only defeat this year was at the hands of Astoria high in the 1934 state title holders, and came after the Oriztelax had played four games in four nights on their barnstorming trip up the Oregon coast.

Players making the trip are: Billy Hoxie and Captain Parker Hess, forwards; Bob Hardy, center, and Hiemer Kennasto and Bill Jungwith, guards. Reserves are Steve Fowler, Ken Schillings and Carl Harris.

BOWLING LESSONS WILL BE GIVEN BY TRIBUNE

With interest in bowling growing by leaps and bounds in Medford, a series of 10 concise lessons on the subject, to be given to Mail Tribune readers, is particularly timely.

The lessons, under the title "Fundamentals of Bowling" were written by Charles O. (Chku) Collier, nationally known bowling authority, and are an innovation in bowling lessons. All those who are interested in the sport will read them with gusto, and many not now interested will undoubtedly become so. The series will start a week from today, Monday, March 25.

WRESTLING SHOWS REOPEN THURSDAY IN ARMORY ARENA

After a two weeks' lull in wrestling activities during which fans have been allowed to regain their composure and work up their appetites for more meaty turf and groin shows at the armory, Promoter Mack Lillard has lined up a double main event card for next Thursday night featuring two newcomers and two old favorites.

In the opening bout Al Pereira, 215-pounder from Portugal, a highly-touted wrestler who has drawn and satisfied many a full house, according to the promoter, will tangle with Jim Healy, popular grappler from San Francisco.

The Portuguese is one of the newcomers. Fans like to see new faces, and are promised a colorful exhibition from Pereira, who ranks among the greatest drawing cards on the coast. His aggressiveness and strength will make a good match for the pugnacious Healy, who impressed local fight-goers in several recent appearances.

The second match will bring together Casey Columbus, 215-pound scientific matman from Italy as the newcomer and Hans Schultz, big German bone-bender, as the old favorite. This match will probably see plenty of action, as both contestants are up on their game.

Having seen their fill of unorthodox grappling for a time, fans will welcome a scientific bout, says the promoter. So he lined up these two with the view of getting the best in heavy-weight wrestling. When things go wrong, however, the big German sometimes resorts to unethical tactics, and when his ham-like arms start swinging it generally means curtains for an opponent.

With these brand new muscle men and two who have already gained approval at the Armory, Promoter Lillard feels he has stacked up a card that will be well worth the usual admission rates.

GUARD OFFICERS AND CITY HEADS TO JOIN IN CCC CAMP SURVEY

A group of officers from the Medford National Guard and representatives of the city will accompany M. J. Bowen, inspector from Washington, D. C., on an inspection trip of Camp Wimer Wednesday afternoon at the invitation of Major Clare H. Armstrong, district commander.

Mr. Bowen is inspecting camps in the Medford district as the representative of Robert Fechner, director of the civilian conservation corps. Camp Wimer, commander by Captain Guy W. Saunders, is the camp in which the district mess stewards school and the school for cooks and bakers are being conducted.

Captain Carl Y. Fingwald, 1st Lieut. William H. McIsaac, 1st Lieut. James W. Grigsby, 2nd Lieut. Ord W. Reed and 2nd Lieut. B. W. Moffatt have been invited to represent the National Guard on the camp visit. George Porter, mayor of Medford, and H. A. Thierolf, vice president of the chamber of commerce, will represent the city.

GOLFERS FINISH FIRST ROUND OF CUP TOURNAMENT

First rounds in the president's cup golf tourney underway at Rogue Valley course were completed yesterday, with 32 entrants teeing off. Of these the sixteen who won their first matches will begin play in the second bracket, which will be completed before next Sunday.

Results of the first rounds are as follows: A. F. Mansfield defeated E. C. Jerome, 3 and 2; Lee Watson defeated George Coddling, 4 and 3; Sprague Reigel defeated G. M. Roberts, 3 and 2; M. M. Morris defeated J. H. Fletcher, 4 and 3; Dave Wilcox defeated D. G. Tyree, 7 and 5; E. L. Childers defeated Ralph Stevenson, one up; H. H. Pringle defeated Arthur Endris, one up on the 19th; Chuck Ellis defeated Mark Miller, one up; Wilcox vs. Childers, Pringle vs. Ellis, Harding vs. West, Hammond vs. Snyder, Wilcox vs. Clark, Kellom vs. Cupp.

Results of the first matches showed that handicaps have been arranged well, and with but one exception the first bracket saw close competition. D. G. Tyree was off his game yesterday, dropping his match to Dave Wilcox, 7 and 5.

The final rush of players to complete the first rounds before Sunday evening gave the golf club a busy day. The showy weather failed to dampen the spirits of the players.

TUESDAY DEADLINE ON CITY LICENSES

Tomorrow is the deadline for obtaining city business licenses, according to City Recorder M. L. Alford. Many licenses have been paid during the last few days, he said, but there are still quite a few who have not made payment.

What action will be taken by the city council for those who fail to make payment by tomorrow is still uncertain, but the probability is that a fine will be assessed to those who are delinquent, Alford stated. There has been some discussion in the city council to that effect, he said, with the fine being the most logical result for overdue licenses.

A resolution to the effect that all city licenses must be paid on or before
