"Living on Velvet" opening tomorrow at the Rialto theatre, has several things to recommend it to show-goers, with its star cast headed by Warren William, Kay Francis, and George Brent topping the list.

Brent portrays a fashing dandy, whose mental attitude toward life has been warped by a terrific airplane accident in which his parents and his sister are all killed and he escaped. He considers himself a "dead" man and rushes from one mad escapade to another, always trying to forget.

"The Good Fairy" Is Smart Comedy

"The Good Fairy" now at the Craterian theatre, will undoubtedly bring many a chuckle and high merriment to all those who are fortunate enough to forget about its misleading title and really wish to see one of the most sparkling comedy romances of the season.

NEW YORK, March 18.—(AP)—The stock market was upset by outside influences and declines of fractions to a point or more were general in the most active sections today.

A brief rally shortly after noon lifted leaders from the day's lows but there was no disposition to follow up in most cases and prices held in a narrow range to the close. Sales approximated 600,000 shares.

Today's closing prices for 32 selected stocks follow:

Will Give Sacred Concert

The Park-Hawkins Quartet will be heard in a sacred musical concert in the local Church of the Nazarene, Central avenue at Jackson, Tuesday at 7:30. The public is invited. The program is sponsored for the benefit of lovers of sacred music. The gifted singers will be remembered by Medford folk who heard them in a previous appearance a year ago. Professor Hawkins is a song writer of some ability, having written and harmonized a considerable number of compositions.

Josable a film as the season has brought forth, Miss Sullivan's artistry, her wistful charm and the wide range of her talent—this time encompassing riotous comedy—become here more apparent than ever in her earlier accomplishments.
