ASK CO-OPERATION OF MOTORISTS IN HIGHWAY REPAIRS

Co-operation of the motoring public, during the period of resurfacing the Pacific highway between Sixth street and the north city limits, is requested by the state highway commission, through Resident Engineer V. L. Goodnight. Work started this morning on the project, and is expected to take three weeks.

"We plan to maintain one-way traffic during the work," Engineer Goodnight said today, "but unless there is co-operation by the motoring public, the highway will be closed on certain portions. It is requested that city and country autoists use other streets as much as possible to lessen the traffic and danger of congestion and accidents. The state highway board does not want to divert the traffic, unless absolutely necessary, but it will be done, if co-operation is not forthcoming."

Goodnight also requested that "sightseeing motorista" refrain from traveling by the work, while underway.

"The contractors and the state highway board desire a first-class job, and this can be accomplished only by the help of motorists," he said.

Goodnight said that traffic from the north could reach the business district, by using the McAndrews road to North Central avenue, and Crater Lake Highway traffic could travel to East Main and enter the downtown section by that route.

It is planned to route the present light through travel direct over the Pacific Highway, unless conditions warranted use of detours.

$475,000 GIVEN OREGON'S RELIEF

WASHINGTON, March 19.—(AP)—The federal relief administration today granted an additional $67,575,313 for March relief, bringing total allotments for the month to $129,732,527.

Most of the grants were for the second half of March, including general relief, transient relief, college student aid, the emergency education program and drought relief.

No grants were made to Idaho, pending increased contribution from the state government.

Grants included: Oregon, $478,000; California, $47,750,000; Washington, $966,890.

Here Wednesday

Acclaimed as the perfect musical comedy, "Roberta" comes to Craterian theatre tomorrow as a three-star attraction with Irene Dunne, Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers.

With Miss Dunne singing Jerome Kern song hits, including the famous "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," and Astaire and Miss Rogers whirling thru "Roberta's" dazzling dance routines said to outshine those of "The Gay Divorcee," the picture also presents a brilliant array of feminine fashions displayed by a bevy of America's most beautiful girls.

In addition to dancing as they have never danced before . . . even in "Flying Down to Rio" and "The Gay Divorcee" . . . Fred Astaire and Miss Rogers sing. Astaire also burns up the keys in a torrid piano number, revealing a new accomplishment.

With much of the story action centering in a Paris style salon, the fashion displays enter logically into the gay, romantic story.

As a stage attraction, "Roberta" was a smash hit on New York's Broadway, playing more than 250 performances at the New Amsterdam theatre. It subsequently hung up new attendance records in road showing.

SCOUTS VAUDEVILLE FOR JAMBOREE FUND

The Boy Scouts of Medford troop 8, and of Gold Hill troop 17, will hold a joint vaudeville show at the Washington school gym on March 26, at 8 p.m.

Featured will be minstrel skits, songs, dancing and jokes. Tickets went on sale Saturday. The proceeds will go toward sending a boy to the International Jamboree, to be held in Washington, D. C.

The public is invited to attend, and help this worthy cause.

Kay Francis in Rialto Picture

Thrills and unique situations are the keynotes in "Living On Velvet," opening a three day run at the Rialto theatre. Its star cast is headed by Warren William, Kay Francis and George Brent.

There are unusual air maneuvers with some of the maddest stunting imaginable by the pilot, whose air escapades finally get him grounded, after which his mania for speed brings him to grief in a wild auto ride.

There is an unique romance in the story in which two friends love the same girl, but each does his best to give her to the other to make the woman happy.

Brent is the aviator, William is his best friend and Kay Francis is the beautiful society girl whom the two love.

GOLF CLUB MEET SLATED MONDAY

Due to the fact that the audit of Rogue Valley Golf club's books is incomplete, the annual meeting, which was to have been held Monday, was postponed for another week. The meeting will be held definitely Monday evening, March 25, at 7:30 o'clock in the Hotel Medford, President Harry McMahon announced today.

At this meeting a complete report will be rendered outlining accomplishments during the past year as well as deciding upon a definite policy governing the club's 1935 activities.

As many matters having an important bearing on the future of the club will be discussed, all stockholders are as well as playing members are urgently requested to attend.

In addition to going into the financial affairs of the club, three new directors will be elected for the ensuing year.
