

GOVERNOR VEToes MEASURE WAIVING PENALTIES ON TAX

The fact "no good reason has been put forward for abolishing this office."

SALEM, March 19.—(AP)—Final time for signing or vetoing bills passed by the Oregon legislature will end tonight at midnight, and as Governor Charles H. Martin came to his office today he was faced with just 95 bills yet awaiting action. Those not acted upon will be filed with the secretary of state tomorrow and become enactments without executive approval. Among the 92 bills signed last night many of which were appropriation measures, were the titling bill and the partial salary return to state employees. The former provides for payment into the general fund 10 percent of revenue of self-sustaining boards and commissions. The salary boost amounted to 10 per cent return of the 1933 cut.

ELKS PAY ONE PRICE FOR ENTIRE FAMILY AT FRIDAY BANQUET

In correcting an impression that has been given members of the Elks lodge, Exalted Secretary Ernest Scott announced today that lodge members will not have to pay 75 cents "per head" when they and their families attend the covered dish dinner at the temple at 6:30 o'clock next Friday night. Scott said that Elks only will pay the 75 cents, and if they have four or five in the family "it's their own good luck." It is urged that those who have not yet returned the postcards concerning the dinner, do so at once to give the Lady Elks an idea of the number to expect and the dishes that will be brought. The committee that will be in charge of the dinner is Mrs. Bert Orr, Mrs. J. C. Thompson, Mrs. Russell Semon, Miss Oma Gekker, Mrs. George Robertson, Miss Jayne, Mrs. Tim Daily, Mrs. E. P. Coleman, Mrs. Ray Miksche and Mrs. James Murray. The menu for the dinner will be: Virginia baked ham or baked salmon, scalloped potatoes, combination vegetable salad, ice cream and cake, coffee or milk, relish, pickles, jelly and butter rolls.

PEARL RIVER FLOOD MAROONS MISSISSIPPI FAMILIES

An Associated Press airview of Jackson, Miss., shows many homes in the capital surrounded by water as the Pearl river left its banks. The dome of the state capitol may be seen in the background. Many families were marooned by the flood.

DYNAMITE DEATH PROBED BY JURY

An inquest into the death of Joseph Louis, transient, about 40 years old, who met death, either by accident or suicidal design, on the afternoon of March 8, through the explosion of a dynamite cache on Lake Creek near road construction work, will be held this afternoon by Coroner Frank A. Peri.

Investigation by the state police leaves but little doubt that the victim was Louis.

Photographs of the scene of the blast, and the testimony of half a dozen residents of the Lake Creek district, will be introduced.

Called as witnesses in the proceedings will be Chief of Police Clatous McCredie, State Police Officer McKinnon, Harry Childers of Eagle Point, Edward F. Weber, contractor from Medford who owned the dynamite, Frank Nygren of Lake Creek, Eric C. Nygren of Lake Creek, Charles D. Mills and Wm. Chapman of Lake Creek, and Mrs. Harry Wright of the Brownsboro general store.

The coroner's jury will be made up of Medford men, and will include L. O. Howard, Thomas Fuson, S. S. Shell, E. R. Moore, Wm. Drumm and Van Slight.

Marvin George To Bring Dance Band Oriental Gardens

Dance lovers of the Rogue River valley are looking forward with keen anticipation to the initial Medford appearance of Marvin George and his well known ballroom and radio orchestra, which will be featured at the Oriental Gardens Thursday evening of this week. This aggregation is one of the outstanding Pacific coast dance bands now touring the west coast from its Los Angeles headquarters after delighting dancers at Sebastian's Cotton Club, Roosevelt Tavern and Hermosa Beach, as well as the radio audiences of KPAC and KFYD.

The "Three Aristocrats," who have delighted California crowds for the last several months, will be especially featured when Marvin George's orchestra makes its personal appearance at the Oriental Gardens, according to Emerson Merrick, manager of the popular Medford ballroom. "I do not hesitate to enthusiastically endorse this splendid orchestra," Mr. Merrick said today. "I can promise music that will start southern Oregon dancers talking for weeks to come, when Marvin George's 12 musicians entertain at the Oriental Gardens Thursday night."

Oregon Weather—Rains west and local snows east portion tonight and Wednesday, slightly warmer south and east portions tonight; west to southwest gale off the coast.

POULTRY RAISERS MEETINGS CALLED

County Agent R. G. Fowler announces a series of poultry meetings to be held in the county Thursday and Friday, March 21 and 22.

There is increased interest in the poultry industry at the present time and it is the object of the meetings to give the poultry population of the county the benefit of the experience of several seasons past. Chicken and turkey brooding will be taken up at these meetings and other seasonal subjects will be discussed. Prof. H. E. Crosby, poultry specialist at Oregon State college will be the principal speaker.

The schedule of meetings is as follows:

- Ashland City Hall, Thursday, March 21, 9:30 a. m.
  - Eagle Point Grange hall, Thursday, March 21, 1:30 p. m.
  - Courthouse auditorium Friday, March 22, 1:30 p. m.
- All poultry raisers are invited to attend at least one of these meetings.

GIRLS TO HAVE CHARGE OF HIGH SCHOOL PAPER

Under the editorship of Mignon Phipps, the Medford Hi-Times will be issued at the end of Girls' League week, which will be observed April 1 to 5. Members of the advertising staff will begin at once an effort to solicit enough ads to cover expense of the publication. Miss Phipps hopes to make the issue of the paper interesting and original.

Curtis Attack Stops—A Curtis attack ship piloted by Capt. Belmont from Berkeley, La., was refueled today at the municipal airport enroute to Seattle.

'SHOW BUSINESS' TOPIC AT ROTARY

A brief, interesting talk on the intricacies of the theatrical business was given at today's luncheon meeting of the Medford Rotary club, by George Hunt, managing owner of the Craterian and Rialto theaters of this city. Mr. Hunt explained, in his informal talk, that the buying of films is a secret of success in the management of theaters. Television and its possible effect upon the great motion picture industry, was also briefly outlined in Mr. Hunt's talk. Walter Lervette, owner of the Strada theater of this city, and other southern Oregon and northern California, houses, was chairman of today's meeting.

A short introduction of recent legislative action in Washington, D. C., was given by Ira Schuler. The next week's meeting of the Medford Rotary club will be designated as "Farmer's Day," with Charles Wing as chairman of the program committee.

MARVIN GEORGE and his band, Oriental Gardens, Thursday.

JAPAN TOPIC FOR SPEAKERS' CLUB

Japan and its customs was the subject of four interesting talks at the regular meeting of Medford Speakers' club last night at Hotel Holland, presided over by Dr. Wm. F. Roney, president. Sixteen members of the club were present.

The speakers were Rex Robinson, Dr. F. J. Moffett, Larry Pennington, and Mr. Boswell of Central Point. Each compared the living conditions in Japan to those in the United States. They said the Japanese government has "beat into the heads" of the populace the belief that there is war in the air, and that Japan must acquire more soil. The speakers also dwell on the customs and the artistic nature of the Japanese. The next meeting will be held Monday, March 25.
