SNOW PLOW GOES OFF COAST BLUFF

GRANTS PASS, March 22.—(Sp.)—A snow plow operating on the California side of the Elk Creek divide, Redwood highway, was lost over the bluff Wednesday and as a result one-way traffic was passing the summit early today, according to James Bromley, Oregon highway maintenance engineer here, Thursday morning.

A pilot car was being used by the California highway authorities to convey motorists over the summit, which has a foot and a half on now today, Bromley said. Later two-way traffic was resumed.

The accident to the California plow occurred Wednesday about noon, Bromley said, and the machine is expected to be a total loss. Its driver saved himself, but the place where the plow lodged in the snow has not yet been located, it was said.

Another plow is being brought up from Redding. He said the state plow in the Illinois valley was only a few miles from the California line when the accident occurred, but the snow had broken the telephone lines and the California highway crew could not reach him to ask for the machine.

"Lottery Lover" Is Craterian Prevue

A likeable comedy drama in which comedy is the predominant element, and music of a rather tuneful variety has an engagingly sustaining place, "Lottery Lovers," starring Lew Ayres and Pat Patterson, will be the prevue at the Craterian theater for tomorrow night.

When a group of young naval cadets land in Paris on shore leave from a training cruise, they lay siege to the heart of a beautiful comedienne, and by lot select the shyest of their group to represent them. Therein is engendered the picture's comedy, the romance developing between the winner of the lottery and the young chorus girl who is hired by their mentor and guide to rehearse the representative.

"Roberta," already hailed as the best musical comedy to come out of Hollywood, starring Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers and Irene Dunne, closes its run at the Craterian tomorrow night.

Coming Sunday

Picture-lovers who find Will Rogers' brand of humor irresistible—and this includes the entire screen public—are delighted with the news that his latest picture, "Life Begins at 40," coming Sunday to the Craterian theater, is crammed with fun. Advance reports label this film, suggested by the Walter B. Pitkin book hit, a bang-up laugh riot. Critics say it easily eclipses previous Rogers' favorites, "Judge Priest," "David Harum," and "The County Chairman."

Rogers portrays a double-fisted, tender-hearted country editor who proves that the years after forty are the best and goes in quest of the fun-tain of youth. He launches a series of situations that smash the funny bone to smithereens.

"Life Begins at 40," relates the romance of a young school teacher and a youth "railroaded" to prison. The shrewd editor brings to light facts that clear the boy and starts up a hornet's nest of fun in the process. Among the high spots in the picture are Will's efforts at bog-calling, and his pistol cack which he wins through wisecracking.

Now at Roxy

"A musical world cruise as seen through the eyes of hilarious youth!" That's the definition of "Student Tour," now at the Roxy theater with Charlie Butterworth and Jimmy Durante supplying the comedy. The most popular co-starring team on the screen today, Ruby Keeler and Dick Powell, make their fifth appearance together in "Flirtation Walk," the musical romance which comes to the Roxy Sunday.

TWO POPULAR STARS AT STUDIO SUNDAY

Claudette Colbert and Clark Gable, two of Hollywood's most popular stars, are teamed together in "It Happened One Night," which is coming to the Studio theater Sunday. Gable sky-rocketed to fame a couple of years ago following his appearance with Norma Shearer in "A Free Soul," and over-night became the most popular male star on the screen. Thousands upon thousands of fan letters poured into the studio, and, as a result, he was given roles with many of the most famous female stars on the screen. Together, they should form one
