AIR BASE BUILDING PLAN APPROVED BY HOUSE COMMITTEE

Would Authorize Six Powerful Ports for Defense of Nation's Frontiers—Three Located in Western Area

WASHINGTON, March 22.—(AP)—A bill to authorize the war department to build six powerful air bases to defend the nation's frontiers was approved today by the house military committee after it had heard the measure described as "essential" by high army officers.

The full military committee will take up the bill Tuesday. Chairman McSwain said he thought its unanimous approval was likely.

In determining the strategic locations for the bases, the war department would give consideration to these regions:

- (1) The Atlantic Northwest—To provide for training in cold weather and in fog.
- (2) The Atlantic Southeast and Caribbean Areas—To permit training in long-range operations, especially those incident to reinforcing the Panama canal.
- (3) The Southeastern States—To provide a depot essential to the maintenance of the general headquarters air force.
- (4) The Pacific Northwest—To establish and maintain air communication with Alaska.
- (5) Alaska—For training under conditions of extreme cold.
- (6) The Rocky Mountain Area—To provide a depot essential to the maintenance of the general headquarters air force, and to afford, in addition, opportunity for training in operations from fields in high altitudes; and
- (7) Such intermediate stations as will provide for transcontinental movements incident to the concentration of the general headquarters air force for maneuvers.

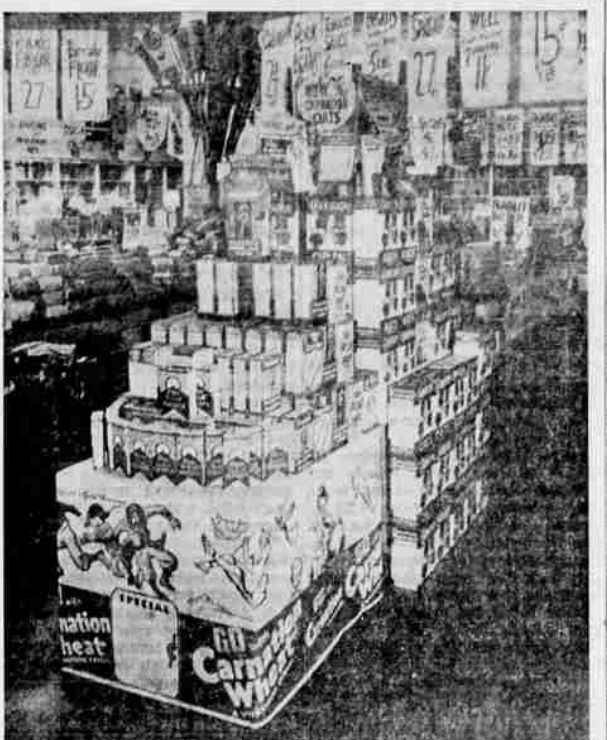

The "full approval of the war department" was given the measure in a letter from Acting Secretary Woodring read into the sub-committee's record by Chairman Rogers (D., N. H.).

The bill was drafted by the department as a substitute for a measure by Representative Wilcox (D., Fla.).

Carnation-Albers Display at Safeway

Cleanliness and freshness are readily shown in the newly designed, attractive labels on Carnation-Albers cereal packages. Above is pictured the type of large floor display of these products being featured by Safeway stores in Medford this week. Such displays as these provide rapid turnover for the merchant and enable the housewife to easily select cereals fresh from western fields. The display shown above was arranged by R. A. Crosby, Carnation-Albers representative in this section of Oregon.

THROATLESS LAD ASSURED OF LIFE

NEWBURG, N. Y., March 22.—(AP)—Tiny Robert Earl Linsig, the only baby in recent medical history to survive without a trachea, was assured of ultimate survival today.

The child, five weeks old tomorrow, has been kept alive by forced feedings of milk and syrup through a tube inserted in the stomach. Pointing out few, if any, babies without the food passage from the mouth to the stomach, have lived more than 10 days, physicians claimed Robert probably will survive and grow like any normal child.

Dr. W. Barton Harris said: "Of course for about seven years he will have to be fed through an artificial mouth, cut in his stomach each day after birth. At the end of that time a 'rubber throat' will have to be inserted, so that Robert can eat food in the normal way."

FAMOUS AIRPLANE NOW CARRIES FISH

EDMONTON, Alta. (UP)—From trans-Atlantic fliers' rescue ship to a smelly fish freighter. That's the history of a giant all-metal Ford tri-motor airplane that made aviation history when it rescued Baron Guenther von Huentfeldt, Capt. James Fitzmaurice and Capt. Herman Koehl after they were forced down on lonely Greenly Island, off the Labrador coast, on the first east-to-west trans-Atlantic flight.

Today the sturdy machine that starred in the 1928 rescue flight of Bert Balchen and Floyd Bennett is performing the mundane task of assuring the eastern United States of fresh supplies of fish from frozen lakes in the far Canadian north.

This famous ship is known simply in the north as the G-CRAC—a fish freighter. But intrepid northland pilots can testify that her days of adventure are by no means ended. At any moment she may be called upon to make a merry flight in "impossible" flying weather to rescue some stranded riverboat crew, sick trappers in the barren lands, or natives at isolated points in the north.

FIRE CAPTAIN ACCUSED IN AUTOMOBILE DEATH

PORTLAND, March 22.—(P)—A complaint charging involuntary manslaughter was issued by the district attorney's office here Thursday against Eric L. Johnson, captain in the Portland fire department, after Lauri Salo, 47, had died from auto accident injuries.

Salo was struck down by a car last Saturday, but was not identified until Wednesday.

Police said Johnson was driving the car that struck Salo, and the complaint filed against Johnson, signed by Accident Investigator Beasbell, charged him with driving while intoxicated.

BOY CRUSHED BENEATH TRUCK WHILE PLAYING

DALLAS, March 22.—(P)—Raymond Praegtzler, 8, was crushed beneath a truck here late yesterday while at play in the street. Dick Earl, driver of the truck, felt the jar and looked back to see the boy lying in the road. He was rushed to the hospital, but died on the way.

With some companions, the lad was playing near a parked automobile. As the truck passed by, the child dived from behind the parked vehicle. Earl told officers he did not see the boy until after the accident.

FRANCE INSISTS ON PUBLIC AIRING TREATY VIOLATION

eyes of all Europe were turned to the forthcoming conference at Berlin between Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary, and Reichsfuehrer Hitler.

On the success or failure of the Berlin negotiations was expected to depend the entire policy of western European powers with regard to preservation of peace upon the continent.

LONDON—Possibility was seen that failure of the Berlin talks would result in a system of European alliances to encircle rearmored Germany with an "iron wall."

PARIS—While diplomats went forward with their plans to seek a peaceful solution of the European crisis precipitated by Germany's rearmament declarations, France made it plain that she was taking adequate precautions against the possibility of an outbreak of war.

BERLIN—The official press retorted to France's protest against Germany's unilateral abrogation of the military clauses of the Versailles treaty by accusing the French of neglecting multitudinous opportunities for improving their relations with Berlin.

ROME—As Flavio Sivich, under-secretary for foreign affairs, departed for Paris for the tri-parite conference, the government announced that Italy's military conscription laws had been tightened to add 500,000 men to the army.

TOKYO—The German ambassador called at the foreign office to give formal notice of Germany's denunciation of the military clauses of the Versailles treaty.

WASHINGTON—Senator Key Pittman, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, said the United States government is "not interested" in the question "whether the Hitler government has violated the Versailles treaty."

WASHINGTON, March 22.—(AP)—The treasury said today income tax receipts for the first 20 days of March ran 33 per cent in excess of the same period last year.

This revenue, described as the first accurate gauge of 1934 incomes, amounted to $270,935,650 through March 20 as compared with $203,256,084 last year.

The showing so far led treasury officials to express belief that their estimate of $300,000,000 in income taxes for the month would be realized easily.

Income tax receipts for the fiscal year, from July 1 to the close of business March 30, have exceeded last year's returns by 31 per cent. The total for the current period was $737,885,493 as against $561,463,073 last year.

NAIL POLISH MUST BE CHANGED OFTEN

DETROIT (UP)—A simple manicure and one coat of nail polish is no longer sufficient for several days, according to a pronouncement at the seventh annual American Beauty Exposition here.

Correctly to follow the new mode, a lady must change her nail polish as often as she does her make-up. With 12 shades of pink and red, as well as other colors, the ladies this year will have every opportunity to be finger-nail-minded.

To provide for nails that are brittle and frequently break off, or that wear down from certain types of work, the beauticians have even introduced false nails. These new nails can be filed down and fitted, then glued on. They can be slipped on and off much like gloves.

Deer Herd Increases. OKANOGAN, Wash.—(UP)—Deer have increased rapidly in the Colville national forest in recent years. A game commission census showed 1935 count totaled approximately 9000 in the forest, compared to 1500 in 1922. Rigid enforcement of game laws was credited with the increase.
