

GOVERNOR MARTIN VISITS CITY WITH ROAD COMMISSION

did good work. The 'young Turks' in the legislature held down the old Democrats. The state must get away from minority group quibbling and work for the good of all. There are too many blocs taking pot shots at every meritorious action, whenever proposed.

The governor listed Rep. Moore Hamilton of this county as one of the "Young Turks," who had performed nobly in the legislature. "I vetoed a number of bills that were passed," said the governor, "and gave a sound reason in every instance for my action." The governor was assured that his vetoing of the veto act met with the same wide approval here as elsewhere.

The chief executive, looking the picture of health, was in fine humor and optimistic as to the future. Glad to Get Back. "I always like to get back to Jackson county. It's an up and coming section that other districts of the state could copy. I am looking forward with pleasure to appearing in this city April 25, at the annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce."

The governor inquired particularly about Jacksonville, and recalled a visit he made in the pioneer town during the campaign. During the short stay in this city, Governor Martin held an informal reception and was greeted by a number of local citizens, including F. L. "Doc" Valle, of Jacksonville (listed by political forecasters as a selection for the state highway commission, when a vacancy occurs), Attorney A. E. Reames, Ralph Stephenson, Democratic county chairman, E. M. Wilson, Attorney E. E. Kelly, Frank D. Souza, Rep. Moore Hamilton and others.

HEADACHES HELD DUE TO SPEED OF LIVING

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP)—Headaches are on the increase, not because of repeal, but because exigencies of modern civilization are making them more prevalent, according to Dr. J. M. Robb, professor at Wayne University.

"Keeping up with the Joneses, pressure of modern living, dirt in the air and lack of rest are causing headaches to increase," he believes. "Headaches and asthma have a close relationship and both are affected by heredity, social and occupational factors."

18-Year-Old Enemy

SACRAMENTO, Cal.—(UP)—When Mrs. F. H. Wetheringham's son went to war in 1917 he gave her a curfew. It lives still, but it's 18 years of living apparently has paralyzed its vocal powers. An occasional peep is the only evidence that it once was a fine German roller.

Variety in Lenten Dishes

One of the ideas back of the custom of the "Lenten Fast" is a graceful transferring from winter to spring food combinations. It may well be a challenge to get out of the rut of heavy eating and welcome the fresh offering of the new season.

However, it may be an excuse to serve the same things over too often also. Lack of imagination in springtime is an indication of a sad condition of mind and body but we can all understand the lethargy caused by "Spring Fever" too—so a little list of possibilities may be a timely mental tonic.

Vegetables

Corn Oysters 2 c canned corn (cream style) 2 eggs 1/2 t baking powder 2 T melted butter 1/2 t salt Dash of pepper Beat yolks and whites of eggs separately and combine with other ingredients. Drop from a spoon into deep fat or fry to a light brown. Drain and serve hot with syrup. A vegetable salad, hot rolls and fruit would make a fine combination to serve with these "oysters" as the main dish.

Scalloped Corn with Celery 2 c canned corn 2 c diced celery 1 egg 1 t salt 1/2 t pepper 6 crackers 1 T butter Crush crackers a little bit and combine with corn and celery. Beat egg slightly and add with seasonings. Place in buttered casserole and dot with the butter. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes or with an oven dinner up to one hour.

Cabbage au Gratin 1 small head of cabbage 2 c medium white sauce 1 c grated cheese Cook the cabbage in hot water until tender. Drain and place in buttered baking dish. Pour over it the white sauce and grated cheese and bake 30 minutes at 350 degrees.

Sweet Potatoes with Apples Place alternate layers of sliced sweet potatoes and sliced apples. Sprinkle with brown sugar and dot with butter. Bake with oven dinner or 45 minutes at 350 degrees.

Cheese Rarebit 1/2 lb. cheese 2 eggs 1 c cream

Hominy and Cheese, Baked 1 large can of hominy 2 c thin cream sauce 1 c grated cheese 1 c buttered cracker crumbs Drain the hominy and pour into buttered baking dish. Season to taste and cover with cracker crumbs, cheese and grated cheese. Bake 30 minutes at 350 degrees.

Scrambled Potatoes with Eggs 4 cooked potatoes, diced 2 T butter 4-5 eggs Brown the diced potatoes in butter and add the eggs. When just beginning to set the whites, stir so as to scramble them and season to taste. Watch carefully and remove from pan before the eggs are overdone.

Kraut and Dumplings 1 quart of kraut Dumplings: 1 c flour 1 t baking powder 1/2 t salt 1 egg 1/2 c milk 1 t chopped parsley 6/8 flour, salt and baking powder sifted together. Beat egg and add to milk and stir into dry ingredients, adding chopped parsley. Drop by teaspoon into hot kraut, cover and let boil 10 minutes. Serve at once.

Bing Molds Rice Ring 3 c cooked noodles 1/2 c melted butter Pour drained rice into a buttered ring mold and pour the melted butter over it. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) for 30 minutes. Unmold and fill with various combinations of vegetables, fruit, fish or meat.

3 c cooked noodles 3 eggs 1/2 c milk 1 T melted butter Salt and pepper to taste Beat eggs slightly and add remaining ingredients. Pour into buttered ring mold and bake 45 minutes at 350 degrees.

2 T butter 2 T flour Salt, pepper, mustard to taste Cut cheese into small pieces and add to slightly beaten eggs then add remaining ingredients and mix thoroughly. Use a good sized saucepan or a frying pan and set on "low" heat and cook entirely on that heat, stirring to keep blended.

Fish Broiled Oysters Use large oysters. Wipe dry. Dip in cooking oil or melted butter. Place on greased rack and broil until the edges curl slightly. Turn once if desired. Serve on buttered crackers which have been toasted to a light brown in the lower part of the oven while the oysters are broiling.

Clam Fritters 2 c minced clams 1/2 c flour 1/2 c cracker crumbs 1 egg Salt and pepper to taste Mix well and drop by teaspoons into fat and cook until a golden brown.

Salmon Box Line a loaf pan with cooked rice and fill the center with seasoned cooked salmon. Cover with rice and bake 1/2 hour at 350 degrees.

Deviled Crab 1 crab 2 c medium cream sauce 2 eggs 2 T parsley Buttered crumbs and seasonings Beat eggs lightly and add with the flaked crab meat and chopped parsley to the white sauce. Place in greased shells (or dish) and sprinkle with buttered crumbs and seasonings to taste. Bake at 400 degrees for 10 minutes—or longer if in dish.

Communications Answers "Farmer Bill" To the Editor: Answering Farmer Bill. Say, Bill, you will have to tell what kind of "hop" you smoked in order to have that dream of yours; I couldn't answer you properly without the same kind of smoke.

I'll tell you how to get some more money to pay that star-gazer of yours—just kill the rest of your hogs and Santa Claus will send you a check for them. When you have your next dream about our respective platforms don't forget that Huey and I are not going to have anyone paying taxes (only the 2 per cent Townsend transaction tax). We are going to let the tax-eaters starve for a while like we have starved for the last 4 years; you know who the tax-eaters are, those poor fellows that had to take a 10 per cent cut in salaries and those who couldn't take a cut because their salaries were fixed by law. We also guarantee not to make a worse mess of things than what we have now. GEO. IVERSON, "Vice Pres." P. S.—Nobody has told me what I am vice president of but it feels good to be V. P. of something. SENATE APPROVAL FREELY PREDICTED FOR VET PAYMENT legislation today further justifies the fight we have made."

Frank N. Belgrano, Jr., American Legion commander, told reporters: "The American Legion thought the Vinson bill would assure immediate, full cash payment of the soldiers' bonus. The house apparently thought otherwise."

Legion Free to Act "We have made no decision on what we will do in the senate except to work for immediate, full cash payment of the bonus."

It was pointed out that Belgrano's position left him free to work, in the senate, for the Vinson, Patman, or any other full, cash payment bill which he thought would pass.

Chairman Harrison of the senate finance committee predicted the Patman bill could not pass the senate over a veto.

While he was hopeful a compromise could be worked out, he could not say at this time if that were possible.

He planned "reasonable hearings" on the subject and to give the senate a chance at the earliest opportunity to vote on the question.

He believed the senate would not tack the Patman bill to the relief measure, as Senator Thomas (D. Okla.), announced earlier in the day he would try to do.

TAP FOR MAPLE SAP PRODUCED WHISKEY

PERRY, O. (UP)—Pancy, if you will, Elmer Sweetdew's perplexity when a thin trickle of whiskey ran from a spout inserted in a maple tree to draw sap on his farm near Centerville.

Scarcely trusting his senses, he walked around the tree. On the other side, he found his drill had bored through a cork in a jug cached in a deep cavity of the trunk.

Then he remembered a hired man he had discharged several years ago who habitually took along a jug of liquor to lighten his labor.

Belgium Will Stay On Gold Standard

LONDON, March 22.—(P)—The Exchange Telegraph Agency was informed by the National Bank of Belgium, in a telephone conversation today, that a report in the city of London that Belgium would either go off the gold standard or devalue the belga, was false.

"The report is untrue," the bank was quoted as saying. "Belgium is on the gold standard and remains on the gold standard."

Saturday Shopping Show-down on "Coffee-Floating"

EVERY Saturday afternoon John went along with Mary Marvin to lend a hand with the weekly shopping. Or rather, while Mary ordered from her list, John amused himself with the grocer's cat.

But there came a Saturday when the cat rubbed its head against John's leg and got no attention. John was listening to Mary... "a pound of butter, a dozen eggs, and I want a new kind of coffee."

"Hold on, there," John said. "Mary, you pick a new coffee every week, and you're the world's worst picker. Let's stop this floating and stick to Hills Bros. Coffee. I don't mind changing some things. But I'm a one-coffee man at heart. Hills Bros. might cost a penny or so more, but I'll bet a pound makes more and better cups." Mary knew that look in John's eye. "I'll have a pound of Hills Bros. this week," she said. "Every week, she means," John winked at the grocer
