Students' Arrival Occasions Activity In Social Circles

Spring arrived officially Thursday morning, but while winter was butting her about in a last hasty exhibition, social activity was nearly at a standstill. It is believed, however, that old Boreas, having blown himself out with a snowy exit, has at last given way to the new season and its many events.

The arrival of college students for spring vacation occasioned informal entertainment during the week, and with the departure of Oregon State students this week-end, and the arrival of others from University of Oregon, more events are planned.

Among prominent visitors from the university campus is Miss Roberta Moody of Eugene, affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta, who is the guest of Miss Dorothy Poley. Others from University of Oregon, spending the vacation at their homes are the Misses Peggy and Justine Miller, Miss Jeanne Quisenberry, Miss Olga Hendrickson, Miss Mary Snider, and the Misses Mary, Bertha and Frances Arnsperger. Miss Rose Gore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gore, is spending several days in Portland as guest of Miss Jane Robinson, formerly of Medford, before returning home.

Among students of Oregon State college who are returning north over the week-end are the Misses Barbara Jean Field, Suzette Stennett, Elizabeth Esch, Evelyn Leonard, Louise Elrod, Ruby Stone, Miss Margaret Boyd is spending several days at Portland as guest of Miss Peggy Osborne, before returning to Oregon State. Miss Margaret Warner is visiting during the spring vacation with friends at Pendleton.

From University of Washington, Miss Janet Wray Smith and Miss Virginia Pick will spend the vacation at their homes here. Miss Pick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pick, is expected to arrive this morning.

Prominent Singer To Take Lead In St. Mark's Opera

St. Mark's Altar Guild, which is sponsoring the production of the opera "Fra Diavolo" to be given in April by a local cast, has been fortunate in securing Esther Bristol to sing one of the principal soprano roles. Mrs. Bristol made her debut to a Medford audience at the last Gleemen concert and was most enthusiastically received.

Before coming to Medford she was prominent in musical circles in St. Joseph and St. Louis, where she has appeared with the symphony orchestras of these cities and where she also occupied an important place in various Junior League musical activities.

Possessor of a lovely voice, Mrs. Bristol combines with it a charming naturalness that is certain to make her appearance in the part of Zerlina a performance in keeping with the highest traditions of the opera. Before coming to Medford her vocal studies were under direction of Henry Gorrell of Kansas City, coach and instructor of many famous singers, and since taking up her residence here Mrs. Bristol has continued her work under the guidance of James Stevens, Medford's own singer of national reputation. A bona fide local resident is Mrs. Bristol, for her husband is F. Ingalls Bristol, owner of the Oregon Lime Products company.

So, You Want To Flatten That Tummy?

If you're honest with yourself —there's one sure way. But soft elastics won't do it. A few months of wearing one of Gossard's corrective front-lacing corsets will work wonders—then you can go back to your Lastex girdles. But you must wear your front-lacing corset continually to succeed. This one is of peach brocade with twin gorges of elastic at front for freedom.
