Missionary Group Entertained Home Mrs. R. Sweeney

The Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. R. E. Sweeney Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Frank Albert, president, presiding during the business session.

Reports were given of the Southwestern Presbyterian recently held in Roseburg by Mesdames Albert, Iverson, Clement and Putney. This was one of the largest attended Presbyterians ever held in southern Oregon, with over 80 ladies in attendance at many of the meetings. The young people of Roseburg took an active part in some of the program and Miss Ethel V. Higgins of the Ming Quong Home in Oakland, Cal., was the main speaker.

Mrs. Frank Albert was elected first vice-president, Mrs. A. R. Clement, treasurer and Mrs. Maynard Putney, corresponding secretary, for the Presbyterial of southern Oregon.

Miss Elizabeth Burr, program chairman, presented a short program. Mrs. Carl Brommer sang the devotional hymn, which included singing of the hymn "The Leadeth Me," scripture text, "He Leadeth Me," prayer for the missionaries on both the foreign and home field and closing hymn, "O Worship the King." Miss Laura Bailey read a most interesting paper on the aliens in America, and Mrs. J. O. Gould interestingly told of the influence of the Bible on the lives of two widely different alien homes.

Rev. W. F. Shields spoke of the influence of the church upon the peoples of many lands and of those in our own home land, preceding the installation of new officers of the society for the coming year. Officers: President, Mrs. George O'Leary; first vice-president, Mrs. A. R. Clement; second vice-president, Mrs. Frank Albert; recording secretary, Mrs. Harry Baker; corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. F. W. Spilver; secretary of literature, Mrs. R. S. Daniels; secretary of missionary education, Mrs. A. J. Hanby; membership, Mrs. Frank Hagerty; stewardship, Mrs. Frank Albert; national missions and home and hospital sewing, Mrs. Belle Littrell; treasurer, Mrs. Carl Brommer. Rev. W. F. Shields very impressively conducted the installation services.

During the social hour the hostess was assisted in serving delicious refreshments by Mesdames P. G. Carpenter, Nettie Howard and J. H. Leggett. Mesdames Carpenter and Howard presided at the daintily appointed table. A large bowl of daffodils and candles were used for the table decorations and other spring flowers were used about the large living room.

Gleaner Class
Has supper meeting
Gleaner class of the First Baptist church had a meeting Wednesday in the sewing room. Following a supper of sandwiches, salad, cookies and coffee, Miss Bailey, a guest of the teacher, Mrs. Chapman, gave an interesting talk on "Service," urging each one to pray and work for the children of Medford.

The group adjourned at 7:30 to attend the regular prayer and praise service in the church parlor.

Mrs. Beely Honored At Birthday Surprise
A surprise birthday party honoring Mrs. W. E. Beely was given at the home of Mrs. Beely's daughter, Mrs. M. T. Boshears, 422 South Ivy, Thursday afternoon. Lovely gifts were received by the honor guest. Refreshments were served by Miss Alma Ruth Boshears and Mrs. Boshears.

Meeting of Past Matrons Club Is Attractive Event

One of the most attractive club events of this month was the Past Matrons' meeting of March 20, held at the country home of Mrs. Elsie Martin. A 1 o'clock luncheon was served on beautifully arranged tables. Centerpieces of spring flowers, surrounded by St. Patrick decorations and original place cards made a picture to be long remembered by those present.

After luncheon, the president, Mrs. Jimmie Merritt, presided over the business meeting. An invitation from the P. M. club of Beames Chapter, Medford, to meet with them Monday, April 1, for a 1 o'clock luncheon was unanimously accepted.

Mrs. Gay Husband reported the drapes made and ready to be hung in the chapter room. These drapes are beautifully made and Mrs. Husband was given a rising vote of thanks for all her work. In her response Mrs. Husband invited the members to meet with her for the April meeting.

To Miss Alice Hanley, past president, fell the honor of presenting these drapes to Nevita chapter at their next regular meeting as a gift from the past matrons.

At a late hour the ladies departed, voting this one of the happiest meetings of the club.

Books Reviewed on Missionary Program

The social meeting of Women's Missionary society of the M. E. Church, South, was held at the parsonage Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. W. C. McCulston was leader.

"The Gospel Trails" was the subject for afternoon study. "The Old Gospel Trail" a story of the work of William McKendries and co-workers carried on between 1790 and 1835, was also studied.

Mrs. Patterson gave a review of the work of Tobias Gibson in the swamps of Mississippi. Mrs. McCulston gave a talk on stewardship.

"The New Gospel Trails," given by Mrs. D. Bills, dealt with the changed aspects of Home Missions. "Barriers to Be Removed," by Mrs. Rice; "The Difficulty of the Task," by Mrs. Albright; and "The Christian Responsibility," by Mrs. Oatman, brought out the contrast between the old and the new work.

There was a large attendance. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. McCulston.

Activities of Legion Auxiliary

Regular social meeting will be held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Marie Daily at Hillcrest Orchards, DeVoe's on West Main and the East Side Pharmacy on East Main have been designated as the meeting places for those who wish transportation. The meeting will be at 7:45 o'clock.

The annual Easter Monday ball will be held April 22.

Pythian Sisters
Give Birthday Party
A birthday party was held Wednesday evening by Pythian Sisters of Tallman temple for Sisters Lillian Moffett and Emma Jeschke, both of whom brought pennies for the birthday fund.

After the temple meeting a birthday table was arranged in the main hall, beautifully decorated with large bouquets of sweetpeas, pink candles and birthday cakes. Members and Knights sang "Happy Birthday to You," accompanied by Miss Cecil Sullivan at the piano.

It was decided to have a birthday party at the last meeting of every month. The next meeting, April 3, will be a regular social night.

Three Honored At Progressive Dinner On Friday Evening

A lovely birthday party and progressive dinner was given in honor of Mrs. M. L. Daily, Mrs. J. D. Shaffer and Mrs. A. B. Culy Friday evening, at the homes of Mrs. Carlow, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Coc.

Lovely fruit cocktails were served at the home of Mrs. Carlow, then the guests were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roberts. There the host and hostess served a delicious salad course, after which they were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Coc for the next course. There they were served meat, vegetables and hot rolls. The honor guests were then invited to return to the Carlow home for dessert, which was cake and coffee.

When they entered the reception hall they were greeted by 40 of their friends, whom the Drs. Carlow had invited for dessert.

While the guests were talking it was discovered that several had birthdays in March, and these were given places at the table with the honor guests. The table was decorated with lovely spring flowers. After dessert, the guests enjoyed a social evening and music.
