Is Prayed For

In Hopedale, Ohio, birthplace of the movie academician, Clark Gable, the congregation of the Methodist church where he attended Sunday school, has been praying for Clark's immortal soul "off and on" since last summer, says the Rev. Samuel Williams. Clark recently was described by the minister as "serving the devil of lust" and charged with having "done more harm to the youth of America than all our Methodist churches can undo." The minister said, however, that not all members of the congregation agreed with him.
