THE GRANGE: Lake Creek Grange. Last meeting of Lake Creek Grange was one of the best attended for several months. Distinguished visitors were Mr. and Mrs. George Andrews of Bellview Grange, and Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Maust of Phoenix Grange. Mr. Andrews is master and Mrs. Maust lecturer of Pomona Grange.

Ways and means committee announced that Mr. Whipple of Medford will give an entertainment at the Grange hall March 30. More detailed announcement will be made later. Master Reed Charley appointed Emma Messal to oversee the upkeep of the hall and furnishings. The old clothes sale proved very amusing. A large assortment of parcels netted a neat sum through the auction sale.

Other especially enjoyable numbers on the program were solo by Gerald Hansen, accompanied by Mrs. Anna Rohrer; instrumental music by Russ Moore, accordion, and a reading by O. C. Maust. Pomona Master Andrews addressed the Grange, mentioning particularly the National Grange meeting to be held in Sacramento next fall. Mrs. Maust, Pomona lecturer, also spoke, expressing her enjoyment of Lake Creek meetings and outlining the county plans for lecture work. Mr. Maust and Mrs. Andrews also made a few appreciative remarks.

The birthdays of Julia Sidley, Elynn Charley and Mary Charley were celebrated. Delicious luncheon included four lovely cakes baked by Mrs. E. Charley and Mabel Stanley, who served, assisted by their husbands. Lecturer Julia Sidley asks that members be prepared to make some contribution to the program on March 30 for the next meeting. Home economics committee also asks for a response to roll call on "Ways to Avoid Automobile Wrecks"
