Rudy Vallee in "Sweet Music" at Craterian Today

Rudy Vallee "pulls a fast one" and blossoms forth as a comedian of no mean ability in "Sweet Music," starting a three-day run at the Craterian theater today. Among the surprising characterizations introduced by Rudy are an uproarious "bah-love" impersonation, a detective of the Sherlock Holmes variety, and that of a lyrical Latin. "Sweet Music," whose all-star cast includes some of the most famous names of the screen, is a screen musical of mammoth proportions. A fascinating romance with dramatic moments, plenty of hilarious comedy, clever dancing, gorgeous spectacles and beautiful girls and several new song hits, the film has been hanging up box office records in the cities where it has already played. One of the outstanding acts on the bill is that of Frank and Milt Britton's novelty band, who wind up their orchestra number in a maniacal destruction of all the instruments.

From New Zealand—Tracy T. Goff of Christchurch, New Zealand, who is agent for Caterpillar Tractor Co. in New Zealand, arrived Saturday morning by train to spend a few hours here on business with H. H. Chambers of San Leandro, Cal., sales manager. Chambers left yesterday with Mr. Goff for San Leandro. Mr. Goff, having made a 90-day tour of the United States, will sail for New Zealand Tuesday, from San Francisco.

From Salem—Mrs. John Clay arrived yesterday morning on the Oregonian from her home in Salem to spend the week end visiting here with her husband, who has been in Medford for some time on business.

Tiny Girl Rescues Doll
SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UP)—Her home in flames, five-year-old Beatrice Barcolo couldn't bear to think of leaving her doll to perish. She ran back into the house and seized her doll, whose dress already was in flames. Beatrice was uninjured.
