Miss Farrin Weds Ivan Harrington At Saturday Ceremony

Miss Frances Farrin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Farrin of Marshfield, was married to Ivan W. Harrington of Medford in a ceremony performed at the parsonage of the First Christian church at 7:30 o'clock Saturday night. Rev. W. R. Baird officiated. The wedding was attended by a few close friends of the bride and bridegroom.

The bride wore a blue evening gown and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. She was attended by Mrs. Alton M. Anderson, and Mr. Anderson was best man.

Present at the wedding were Miss Nelle Green, Dick Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Brown and Mrs. Marie Mosler, sister of Mr. Harrington.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Harrington left for Portland, and will return Thursday. They will make their home in Medford, where Mr. Harrington has a position with the Texas Oil Co. at 1123 West Ninth.

High School Glee Clubs Give Dance

The girls' gymnasium of Medford high school was the scene of an unusually gay dancing party March 24 when the Associated Glee clubs celebrated their operatic success. "The Chimes of Normandy," with a dance. The decoration committee under the direction of Elaine Brophy, chairman, using the operetta scenery, transformed the gym into a beautiful scene of old Normandy. Music was furnished by Whipple's orchestra, and special entertainment was presented in form of acrobatic tap dances by two pupils of the Schrader dancing studio. Refreshments were served following the dance.

Credit for the success of the dance is due the various committees in charge, chairman of which were: Dance committee, Betty Paske; refreshment committee, Mildred Buckles; decoration committee, Elaine Brophy, and clean-up committee, Herbert Gifford.

The patrons and patronesses were: Mrs. Esther Church Leake, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Wain, Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burgess, Miss Lois Beth Schoffern, Miss Maurine Carroll and Rex Robinson. The orchestra members were guests of the glee club.
