Rally at Central Point Held for Royal Neighbors

Royal Neighbors of Ashland, Jacksonville, Talent and Medford joined in a rally with Central Point camp at Central Point on Saturday, March 22, with Central Point camp as host. The meeting was held in the new commodious Grange hall. A large delegation from the several camps was in attendance. This was the first rally held there and it proved to be a very profitable and enjoyable affair.

A class of six candidates—three for Ashland, two for Medford and one for Central Point—was received into the order with Ashland very efficiently putting on the initiatory work. Medford officers exemplified the retiring march and, judging by the applause, their work was also well done. District Deputy Leona Broil was present and, as usual, gave some valuable instructions and suggestions regarding the work and history of the order which had its inception March 21, 1895, and plans for the district convention, which will be held at Bend June 1.

Central Point camp presented lovely corsages to all grades and secretary and also Deputy Leona Broil. Following the business routine, the doors were thrown open to the waiting guests and a pleasing program of readings, solos, duets and other music was enjoyed. A tableau was presented by Deputy Broil representing the R. N. A. as Queen of Fraternal Insurance of the World, Mae Randall, garbed as Father Time, carrying an emblematic and time-worn scythe, and Orae Margaret Garrett, who cut the beautiful birthday cake, make and presented by Neighbors Marie Gautenbel and Nora Glascock of Medford camp.

At the close of the program all proceeded to the dining room, where the cake in commemoration of the 40th anniversary of the Royal Neighbors of America was served with other refreshments to 125 members and guests at tables artistically decorated with spring flowers. All present were highly pleased with the general hospitality of the Central Point camp and are looking forward to closer association and more such pleasant meetings.

Activities of Legion Auxiliary

The social meeting held last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Maize Dattley was very well attended and a delightful evening was spent playing bridge. Six tables were in play. Prizes were awarded and refreshments were served at a late hour. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Eaytha Martin, Mrs. Gladys York, Mrs. Barbara Jennings and Mrs. Callis Foy.

The following is taken from an article appearing in the Forty and Eightier: "April 6th is the anniversary of America's entrance into the World war and also National Army day. The Forty and Eight will give a national broadcast on this day, the hour will be seven p. m. eastern standard time or 4 p. m. Pacific standard time.

The speakers will be John D. Crowley, chief de chemin de fer, Senator Frederick W. Steiwer of Oregon, who will speak on "Americanism"; Representative Scott Lucas of Illinois, former national judge advocate of the Legion, and Frank N. Belgrano, Jr., the Legion's national commander. All members and visiting members are urged to be present.

What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

Girl Scouts of troop 7 have been very active the past two months. February 8 was the occasion for a mother, father and daughter banquet. The headquarters were attractively decorated to represent the interior of a cabin. The scouts gave a very creditable account of themselves from beginning to end. The expenses came from the troop treasury. Each girl contributed a nickel each week to the treasury. Court of awards also in February was the occasion for advancement among the girls. Fourteen badges were awarded.

March 15 an international birthday was held at one of the girls' homes. This was to celebrate the 25th birthday of Girl Scouts in the United States. The party was later turned into a surprise birthday party for Lieut. Ruth Clark. Cake, chocolate and marshmallows were served at the close of the evening.

The following week patrol one took the trail to Griffin creek. Steak and wieners were cooked over the camp fire, and as it did not rain that day the scouts had an enjoyable time. During the troop meetings the girls have been working on maps for first class and the Morse code. One night the girls studied the stars from the Washington school playground. Sunday, weather permitting, the girls expect to go to Table Rock. The scouts welcome this opportunity as they may study the wild flowers and birds. The scouts are asked to meet at the Washington school at 2 p. m. The girls' parents will take the scouts, and supper will be eaten on Table Rock.

There are 29 girls in the troop. April promises to be a busy month for bridge and other outdoor activities.

JUNIOR HIGH OPERETTA SCHEDULED FOR FRIDAY HAS SPANISH SETTING

The annual Junior high school operetta, "Don Alonzo's Treasure," under direction of Mrs. Evelyn Nye, will be given April 5 at eight o'clock in the school auditorium.

The story concerns a rich American family and two sailors, and a stowaway, who is in love with the American's daughter, Elaine Wallop. The American, Alax Wallop, has found the original map of Don Alonzo's treasure cache and gone to Barcelona to seek the gold. They are royally welcomed by Don Diego and his household. Wallop asks Diego, on whose property the gold is supposed to be buried, to help in finding it. The two sailors, "Slim" and "Shorty," fall in love with Diego's daughters, Lolita and Dolores. The sailors smuggle Billy McNeel, the stowaway, ashore in a trunk. Dolores, Lolita and Elaine are afraid Billy will be recognized so they describe him as Tobacco Tomales. Manuel, a servant has bet heavily on Mateo Mazama, in the bull fights. He knows there is only one man better than Mateo and that is Tabasco, so he plans to kill Tabasco.

The ensuing comedy situations and interesting story serve to make the operetta one of the best yet given by the Junior high school. A special featured chorus, including eight boys is a feature of the production. A girls' chorus of eight numbers, under direction of Miss Kelly, will be seen in festival dances of Spain. The operetta this year is replete with enjoyable music and songs, brilliant costumes and elaborate stage settings.

The Dalbutoh of Kamakura, one of the most famous images of Buddha in Japan, dates from 1252. It is 50 feet high, wrought of bronze, silver and gold.

Lovely Songster

Pauline Byrnes, feature vocalist with Merle Carlson's orchestra, which will fill an engagement at the Orienta Gardens in Medford Wednesday under the sponsorship of Bob Strong. It was while Merle the Carlson band was fulfilling an extended engagement at the Olympic hotel in Seattle that this little lady dropped in one afternoon and asked if she might sing a chorus of a song during rehearsal. One song was enough. She was engaged on the spot and commenced the next night. Pauline Byrnes, although still in her "teens," is rated as one of the "finds" of the season.

GIRLS' LEAGUE PLANS WEEK OF ACTIVITIES TO BEGIN ON MONDAY

An assembly put on by the Girls' League, a tea for the mothers, a style show, a luncheon given by the Girls' League council to the council of the Associated Boys and a dance to which the girls ask the boys for dates, are the main features of Girls' League week April 1 to 8, at Medford high school. Besides these main features, one will be able to see and enjoy reversal of the position of boys and girls at the high school. For example: Girls' carrying boys' books for them, and opening doors and standing aside for the boys to precede them. Already the committees in charge of making this a bigger and better Girls' League week have progressed on the week's program. The schedule of activities follows: Monday, Girls' League meeting; Wednesday, Girls' League assembly; Thursday, tea for the mothers and a style show, and Friday, issuance of the Hi-Times, put out by the Girls' League, and the Girls' League dance. Many high schools throughout the United States have organizations of girls, so the observance of this week is national in character.

CCC CAMP OPEN ROXY ANN LOOMS M'NARY INFORMS

Proposed Expansion Conservation Work Will Benefit Prescott Memorial Project—Siskiyou Reserve to Get More Land.

PORTLAND, March 30.—(AP)—A dispatch to the Journal today from Washington, D. C., said the National Park service has reported to Senator McNary that it hopes to assign a CCC camp to the Prescott Memorial park in Jackson county.

Prescott Memorial park, on Roxy Ann, east of Medford, has been received by the National Park Service and if the proposed expansion of emergency conservation work takes place, it is likely a camp will be established there.

The move was initiated by the Jackson County chamber of commerce in an effort to secure further development work for the Memorial park, which is expected to become one of the favorite show places of this vicinity.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—(AP)—Senator McNary's bill to add 89,000 acres to the Siskiyou National forest in Oregon was passed by the senate Friday. The lands embrace some of the best virgin timber in the state and are unsuited to agriculture. About 87,000 acres are privately owned. The Coos Bay Lumber company holding title to most of it. The rest is federal or Oregon and California railroad grant land.

Two other bills sponsored by Senator McNary were approved. They call for a preliminary examination of the Umpqua river and tributaries with a view of flood control, and a similar examination of the Coquille river. Senator Steiwer of Oregon was successful in gaining approval of his bills for flood control surveys of the Nehalem, Miami, Kitchis, Wilson, Trask and Tillamook rivers, and Senator McNary added the Willamette river to the list.

GIRLS HEAR NURSE IN HIGH ASSEMBLY

Miss Jane Gairn, who is representing the League of Nursing for the State of Oregon, talked to the girls of Medford high school at a special assembly Friday morning. Miss Gairn holds the official position of secretary of the state board of nursing, and is speaking to high school girls throughout the state.

Three Favorites at Roxy

With three screen favorites—Joan Crawford, Clark Gable and Robert Montgomery—leading the cast, "For-saking All Others" is at the Roxy theater for today and Monday, a sparkling comedy drama of three happy-go-lucky people. Included in the supporting cast are Charles Burtworth and Billie Burke.

"The field of nursing is overcrowded but there is still room for well-trained nurses," stated Miss Gairn, as she stressed the point of choosing the right school for training. She gave the names of nine accredited schools in Oregon, five of which are located in Portland. High school and college credits, scholarships, tuition and length of periods in training were other points explained by the speaker. In closing, Miss Gairn informed the girls that pamphlets, bulletins and posters on nursing would be left with Miss Maurine Carroll at the senior high school.
