Ministerial Meet—The Medford Ministers association will meet Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 at the Lutheran parsonage, 518 W. Fourth street.
In Medford—Mrs. Fred Roper and Mrs. S. L. Ross spent Saturday in Medford visiting relatives and friends.
Back from North—Miss Claudia Constable of Clatsop's Beauty Shoppe returned this morning by train from Portland, having been visiting over the week end.
From Klamath Falls—George Bertram of Klamath Falls, representative of Cascade Lines, Southern Pacific Co., was among Medford visitors today.
Switched Plates—Claude A. Lindley, 24, was arrested yesterday by state police, charged with driving an auto with switched license plates.
Bury a Cattle—Fred Balytas of Hill, Cal., returned this morning on the Oregonian from Spokane, and announced that he has purchased 10 head of Hereford cattle for Mount Crest ranch near Hill, which is owned by Reginald H. Parsons.
His Tree—N. H. Landerman, according to a report on file at the city police station, yesterday went over the curb at the corner of Fourth and Ivy streets, in an effort to avoid hitting a car that had cut the corner, and ran into a tree.
Fire Eaters Meet Tonight—There will be a meeting of the Medford volunteer fire department members tonight at 7:30, according to an announcement issued by Fire Chief Roy Elliott. The meeting will be confined to ladder drill, he said.
Speakers to Meet—The topic for talks in the S.E.R.A. public speaking class tonight is "A Noble Deed." The class will receive instruction and practice in the leading of discussions and conferences. The meeting is at 7:15, Senior high school. Visitors are welcome.
Motor from Weed—Mr. and Mrs. Wald Randolph and daughters Paty Jane and Sonny Jo, formerly of this city, motored from Weed, Calif., Sunday to spend the day with Mrs. Randolph's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Wolgamot. Mrs. Randolph and daughters expect to enjoy two weeks visiting with her parents.
Changes in Spanish Lessons—Owing to the great demand for a beginners Spanish class, parties interested are requested to register to-night at the high school, when the first lesson will be given at 7:00. There will be no charge in the regular class, which will be continued on Tuesdays and Thursdays, except that on every Thursday, the first hour will be devoted to beginners principally. The class is conducted by J. C. Hunter.

CHILD WELFARE WORK EXPLAINED AT KIWANIS MEET

Members of Medford Kiwanis club were given an insight into child welfare work in Jackson county at their regular luncheon meeting at Hotel Medford this noon, when Miss Otis Brown, case supervisor of S.E.R.A. in Jackson county was principal speaker. Her talk, covering many technical phases of S.E.R.A. work, outlined the present day relief situation and pointed out that many children in this community are suffering from economic conditions. Miss Brown urged civic clubs to get behind welfare work in the county in an effort to aid the children who, through no fault of their own, have been deprived of the better things in life. She said that there are many high school boys and girls who are unable to attend classes because of lack of clothes. Public playgrounds in the community are a boon to many children, but the public library is not being used to the extent that its facilities warrant, Miss Brown said. Miss Brown was introduced by Victor Tengwald, executive secretary of the Jackson county relief committee. After her talk a round table discussion was held. A sextet composed of Olen Arnsperger, Ted GeBauer, Max Pierce, C. C. Lemmon, D. K. Burgher and Victor Tengwald sang two impromptu numbers. Sixteen of the club members will take part in the Kiwanis-Rotary bridge tournament tonight at Hotel Jackson.

Tracy Coming

It appeared inevitable that the recent, phenomenally successful World's Fair in Chicago would some day serve as the colorful background for a motion picture or dramatic play. With customary adroitness, Hollywood adopted the setting for the Lee Tracy-Sally Eilers-Jimmy Durante romantic-comedy, "Carnival," which will be the featured attraction at the Rialto theater commencing tomorrow.
Fortunately Robert Riskin was assigned to write the story and screen play, Riskin, you know, is responsible for "Lady For a Day," "It Happened One Night" and "Broadway Bill," among others. The result of his most recent labors has been acclaimed by the critical fraternity as a "heart-warming, diverting romantic-comedy."
This story, briefly, concerns the adventures of Tracy, Miss Eilers, Durante and the baby, a carnival troupe exhibiting a puppet show.
The story concerns a young college boy who has organized his own band and who croons his way to a tremendous success in de luxe night clubs and on the radio. He falls in love with a beautiful dancing girl and is instrumental in promoting her to success, although she is led to believe by her manager that the band leader is jealous of her and is trying to belittle her act.
Vallee has appeared in pictures before, but never has he been given the opportunity to portray a real role, as well as sing, that is furnished him in "Sweet Music." In this picture he proves himself a consummate actor as well as crooner, and if given future film roles as strong as this one, he bids fair to become a top notch picture star as well as the world's most famous radio singer.
A new Ann Dvorak is discovered in the picture. She gives a fine performance in the romantic role opposite Vallee, but she also demonstrates over again her talent as a dancer in which she leads a chorus of forty dancing beauties.
Helen Morgan, noted torch singer, adds to the musical entertainment with two catchy songs.
Rudy Vallee's Connecticut Yankee appears in person with their red-hot rhythm, as also does the Frank and Milt Britton Orchestra in their comical stunts of smashing musical instruments while they make merry music.

ALLEY PARKING PROVING COSTLY

Parking in down town alleys is proving expensive to many Medford residents, a drive having been launched over the week-end by the city police to clear the alleys. The parking has become so prevalent as to constitute a real menace, particularly in case of a fire, according to Fire Chief Roy Elliott and Chief of Police Clatus McCreade.
The alley between Central and Barlett streets next to the Craterian theatre has been the scene of most of the illegal parking, the officers stated, with many people leaving their cars there all the time they are in the show. The condition will no longer be tolerated, a close check by the police on both that count and overtime parking having been promised.
City Traffic Officer Tom Robinson, who has been carrying on the work on the check-up has gone to Portland for medical attention, and his place on the traffic squad has been taken by Ray Stonker, regular night officer, who has promised vigorous supervision.

WAR IMPOSSIBLE SAYS POPE PIUS IN FIRM WARNING

(Continued from page one) proclaimed three days of public prayer at Lourdes, France, so that God "might illumine the minds of those who have in their hands the government and the fate of peoples in the present and anxiety of a time which leads to fear for a still sadder future."
Fear aroused. At this moment, he continued, the "clamor of war is universally diffused and the cause of agitation to all and arouses in every one the greatest fear."
It is for this reason, he said, he wished to speak today through his Apostolic office.
The pontiff said the "enormous crime, which he regarded with such abhorrence, would result if 'peoples once more take up arms one against the other and if once more the blood of brothers is spilled and if destruction and ruin are spread on the earth and in the sea and the sky.'"

Boy Scout Notes

Troop No. 5, Medford, by Arnie Lewis, scribe: Troop No. 5 met February 27 in the gymnasium of the Washington school. The colors were presented and pledge of allegiance given. Roll was taken, followed by games, Crows and Cranes, Steal the Bacon and an antelope race. Test period came and three Scouts passed test. Albert Barrow passed second class signaling and Winston Boothby, second class pacing; Fred Noble passed his tests in second class compass. The rest of the Scouts studied very industriously. Colors were passed. Scout oath given. "Taps" sounded and meeting dismissed at 9 o'clock.
Troop No. 18, Eagle Point, regular Scout meeting, was held Thursday night. Scoutmaster Miller was in charge. Scouts spent most of the meeting studying tests in preparation for the Court of Honor to be held April 1. A number of Scouts completed tests for advancement to second and first class. Games were played and meeting adjourned at 9 o'clock.
