

SIMS CONFIDENT ALL NOT LOST IN BRIDGE TOURNEY

Wins 9 Out of 13 Rubbers Monday to Cut Lead of Culbertsons to 5940—New Rules Are Effective

By TOM HAGENBUCH Associated Press Staff Writer. NEW YORK, April 2—(AP)—Hal Sims is confident today that all is not lost in his 150-rubber bridge tussle with Ely Culbertson, the new bridge rules notwithstanding.

Despite predictions the new scoring would make it difficult to overcome a Culbertson lead of nearly 10,000 points, Sims said his wife, Dorothy, proceeded to win 9 of the 13 rubbers played yesterday, reducing the Culbertson advantage to 5940 at the end of 52 rubbers.

As has been the case almost every night since the match started, Culbertson and his wife, Josephine, rallied late in the evening, winning the last two rubbers and bolstering a lead that had dwindled to 3160 at the end of the 50th rubber.

The fact that the new rules were in effect for the first time in the match yesterday did not seem to make any change in the bidding, and those who looked for sensational bids were disappointed.

Two small slams were bid during the day, both by the Culbertsons and both successful.

The Simses accounted for their success during the afternoon and early evening by making the most of a good run of cards and avoiding, for the most part, any dangerous contracts.

Of the 52 rubbers already played, the Culbertsons have won 29 and the Simses 23, with a total point score of 46,000 to 40,000.

The honor count shows the Culbertsons leading in aces, 646 to 634, trailing in kings, 623 to 657, and ahead in queens, 669 to 591.

PICARD TROUNCES PAR TO GRAB FIRST MONEY IN ATLANTA TOURNEY

ATLANTA, Ga., April 2—(AP)—Blazing six apices from par in a sensational final round, Henry Picard, tall young pro from Hershey, Pa., won first place and $400 in the second annual Metropolitan golf tournament with 84-hole total of 209.

Finishing with a brilliant 65 yesterday, climaxed by a 40-foot putt on the final green, Picard finally overhauled Harry Cooper, Chicago veteran who had led from the start.

"Lighthouse Harry" himself shaved two strokes from par with a 69, but had to be content with 211 and second place money of $300.

Byron Nelson, of Texarkana, Texas, also carded a 69, which gave him a total of 215, third place and $250.

Behind Nelson were Horton Smith, Oak Park, Ill., and Johnny Revolta, Milwaukee, tied for fourth with 216's which were worth $175 apiece to them.

FREDDIE STEELE STOPS BELLHOP IN LAST FRAME

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2—(AP)—Freddie Steele, Tacoma, was on the top of the coast middleweight pile again today, after stopping Fred Apertall in the last round of their 10-round fight here last night.

Steele and the young San Francisco bellhop put on a terrific battle, but the Tacoma veteran's experience told in the end.

Fundamentals of Bowling

By C. O. (Chuck) Collier Nationally Known Bowling Authority

Lesson 5—Footwork. Footwork is not only a very important part of the delivery, but is essential in the development of a so-called "good ball" and control.

Without good footwork a bowler cannot expect to develop rhythm and timing, which are of great importance in perfecting control.

After you have determined the proper distance back of foul line for the number of steps required for your style of delivery, start with the right foot, walk fast—three, four or five steps and deliver the ball with left foot in front, stopping three or four inches back of foul line. Keep back of foul line in practice and you will bow better in league and tournament games.

Always keep in mind the timing of your swing of the ball and the number of steps you take, as the delivery, including swinging of ball and your stride, must be in perfect rhythm at all times for best results.

The majority of bowlers develop better footwork through the use of rubber heels. Some use all rubber soles, while others prefer shoes without rubber.

Use bowling shoes at all times, the use of rubber being optional. (Tomorrow—Placing Ball on Alley)

GILMORE LIONS NINE TO PLAY IN LEAGUE THIS SEASON IS WORD

The Gilmore Lions, one of the best young teams in the Medford area, will enter the Southern Oregon Baseball League this season, it was decided today.

The Lions have been playing together for the past three years and last year defeated Medford's league team, 8 to 0. They feel they can hold their own with the best teams in this part of the state.

Bud Conlin, former Medford team player, will be the playing manager for the Lions. "I am not going to say we will be in first place at the end of the season, but you can bet we will be up there near the top," Conlin declared.

Leo Laurin, local Gilmore Oil Co. manager, will be president of the baseball club and Bob Lewis, who headed the club last year, with much success, will act as secretary this season.

Some of the available playing talent for the Lions this season includes Dick Lewis, Hualat, Kenton; Sakrada, R. Tungate, J. Tungate; Bigham, Lowell Brown, Stoddard, Bud Conlin, Ivan Harrington and J. Pool.

JACKSON ROUGHS CLEAN-CUT FOE

PORTLAND, Ore., April 2—(AP)—Bulldog Jackson's reign of cruelty continued unabated today as the victorious, grinning grappler counted a victory over Stacy Hall, clean-cut contestant from Columbus, Ohio.

Roughing his opponent constantly, Jackson gained the first and third falls with his torturous hammerlock holds in their bout here last night.

Hall won the middle fall with one of those uncomfortable Boston crab holds. The contestants are middleweights.

Rod Fenton, Canadian middleweight, kicked his way to a best two out of three falls victory over Mickey McGuire of West Salem in the semi-windup. McGuire's one fall came from an Indian deathlock.

Walter Tunkit, Achier of Eugene and Del Kunkel of Salt Lake City divided falls in a scientific 30-minute draw.

Paul Cantrell, his wife, their two daughters and his sister-in-law were injured by flying glass when a big motor flew through their automobile windshield at Etnash, Tenn. The motor escaped unscathed.

ROTARY BRIDGE TEAM WINS; KIWANIS ISSUE CHALLENGE FOR GOLF

A team of 12 members of the Rotary club defeated a team of 12 Kiwanians in a stag bridge tournament at Hotel Jackson last night by a total of 7155 points.

The tournament was arranged with two Kiwanians at each of the six tables and members of the Rotary club rotating from table to table as the evening progressed.

In order to get an opportunity to offset their defeat, the Kiwanians issued a challenge to the Rotary for a golf tournament at the Rogue Valley course, R. B. Hammond, Sr., Kiwanian, and C. J. Semon, Rotarian, who will be captains of the golf teams.

The bridge teams were: Rotary—C. G. Smith, Ben Harder, George Henselman, Ira Schuler, John Boyle, P. G. Denson, Fred Heath, Dr. Charles Lemery, Kari Janouch, Dr. C. I. Drummond, George B. Dean and Mark Goldy.

Kiwanians—Dr. C. H. Paake, Darwin Burgher, Frank Peril, R. W. Frame, Carl Tengwald, Max Pierce, Ted Gebauer, Jack Thompson, Frank Dilard, J. C. Reynolds, Olen Arnsperger and Everett Faber.

SKILL, ROUGHNESS ON NEXT MAT CARD

A card promising one session of whirlwind wrestling and another of the roughest type of muscle-mangling is lined up for Thursday night's weekly grip and grimace shows at the armory.

One bout will feature Joe Hubbs, popular "Iron Man" from University of Nebraska, and big Casey Columbus of Italy, who made a great impression with fans in his first match here several weeks ago.

Masked Marvel, the hooded ring rascal, will appear (probably without his black robe, which was stolen by a souvenir seeker after the last match) in a re-match with Don Wagner, lanky Oregon Stater, on the other half of the program.

The promoter is figuring on tossing a coin to decide which bout will be staged first.

ELKS FIGHT CARD POSTPONED WEEK

The boxing card planned for April 11 at the Elks club has been postponed until the following meeting night, Thursday, April 18, and instead there will be a "Baby Elks Jamboree" on April 11, immediately following the short regular session of the lodge.

The Jamboree will be staged by the recently initiated members and include an entertainment program and sandwiches and beer.

Difficulties which arose in transporting the fighters here from the various CCC camps of the district necessitated postponing of the fight card.

MATCH PLAY TOURNEY FOR WOMEN GOLFERS

A match play tournament is scheduled at Rogue Valley golf course tomorrow, as the weekly ladies' day event. Luncheon will be served at noon with the following committee in charge: Mrs. Tim Dally, Mrs. Fred Johnson and Mrs. J. H. Fletcher.

The women's finger tournament for March ended Sunday night, and officials will announce the winner when the results are checked.

ORLANDO, Fla., April 2—(AP)—Harry Eisenst, New York schoolboy pitcher, not only has won himself a berth on the Brooklyn Dodger staff, but Casey Stengel is thinking of using him in a starting role. So far this spring, the youngster has pitched seven innings in relief and no one has scored on him yet.

Who buys your shirts and socks?

MORE than 80% of all men's shirts, stockings, underwear, neckties and handkerchiefs are purchased by women. Why? Men prefer to have their wives and mothers do the shopping because they realize that women are better shoppers—that they have a sixth sense for qualities and values.

How do women keep themselves informed? They have formed the habit of reading the advertisements in the newspapers. And they read them regularly, whether they want to buy anything or not. Then they know exactly where to go to purchase what they need, and they know to a penny just what they will have to pay.

From the advertisements any one can learn where to buy better clothes, better foods, better household goods, better everything. Read them carefully. They have news and suggestions for you!
