

30 SCOUTS GIVEN MERIT AWARDS IN COURT OF HONOR

Thirty Scouts appeared Monday at the monthly Boy Scout Court of Honor to receive a total of forty-four awards. Each month the number of Scouts appearing for awards has increased.

Larry Schade, acting as judge, in the absence of Don Newbury, complimented the Scouts on the large number appearing and on the thoroughness of their work. An explanation was also given by Mr. Schade on the method used in selecting the representatives from the troops to attend the National Jamboree in Washington, D. C.

Troop No. 18 of Eagle Point was complimented on having the largest number of Scouts appearing from any one troop present at the court. Of the thirteen Scouts registered in the troop, eleven received advancement. Following is the list of the Scouts appearing for awards at the Court of Honor:
