

OREGON HAVEN FOR DROUGHT VICTIMS MAY BE ARRANGED

Relief Administrator Hopkins Interested in Proposal to Bring People From Middlewest and Finance

PORTLAND, Ore., April 5.—(UP)—The possibility of obtaining federal emergency relief funds with which several thousand drought sufferers of the middle west would be transported to Oregon soil interested state and city officials today.

Word from Washington, which did not have official verification, was that Relief Administrator Harry Hopkins is "highly interested" in the proposal to bring drought sufferers to western Oregon and Washington, especially the Willamette valley, and finance them with federal funds.

Mayor Joseph K. Carson of Portland was informed that "Oregon can get large grants and loans if the right set-up is made for such projects."

Data Wanted State budget director, D. O. Hood, is in Washington conferring with FERA officials. He wired Governor C. H. Martin last night to assemble data for colonization both on subsistence homesteads and along Oregon streams such as the Willamette and Columbia and tributaries, for flood control projects and soil erosion plans.

Fera wants complete and immediate information and if Oregon is willing to cooperate, money may be forthcoming, Hood indicated. This information will include listings of available public lands, and property which has reverted to the counties through tax delinquency—indicating that much of this "desert" rural real estate would be placed back on the tax rolls if the plan is approved.

May Use Transients The erosion and flood control proposals would entail straightening of several Willamette valley streams, including the bend between Salem and Eugene, it was said.

The FERA wants information on whether or not Oregon objects to establishment of transient camps along such streams, where homeless men would be given work in flood control and erosion projects.

Although the entire proposal is in a nebulous state, officials were expected to learn just how much substance underlies the plan and cooperate if Oregon might benefit.

WARRIORS AFTER 'AIRPLANE EGGS'

CABUYARO, Colombia, April 5.—(UP)—Several Indian warriors, caught by a sentry while hunting for something beneath the wings of a trimotored Ford transport plane, confessed today they were looking for the "big bird's eggs."

The savage tribes of this desolate region saw their first plane only recently, when the Colombian government established an airline from Bogota to Puerto Carreño, on the Orinoco river. Awed, they traced the "big bird" to its "nest."

There at the airfield, while the chief with his bodyguard awaited in the darkness, the most valiant braves wormed their way to the plane with arrows ready. Confused seized them and the Indians confessed their chief wanted to hatch out some "birds" of his own to use in fighting the white man.

RAILROAD BRIDGE SIDESTEPS DAM

BONNEVILLE, April 5.—(AP) With another difficult operation accomplished, engineers moved forward today to tackle new problems in the campaign against nature at the site of the huge Bonneville dam on the Columbia river.

Yesterday they moved a 150-foot, 200-ton steel railroad bridge 30 feet to a new location, and they accomplished this feat between train schedules.

It was one of the major moves in the relocation of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle railroad on the Washington side of the river.

INFANT WHITELEY OF JACKSONVILLE DIES Leon Virgil Whiteley, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Whiteley, Jacksonville, passed away at a local hospital Thursday evening from the effects of pneumonia at the age of four and a half months.

WESTERN BOWLER LOOMS AS CHAMP

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 5.—(UP)—Ora F. Mayer of the San Francisco Southern Pacific team scattered pins in a whirlwind assault that opened a far western invasion of the American bowling congress and left behind last night a total of 2022 which virtually clinched for him the all-events championship for 1935.

Mayer added a 482 in singles today to a 648 team score and 892 double of last night for his pace setting a events total which was the fifth 200 in congress history and the third highest ever compiled.

His 692 singles gave him a tie for 10th place with Joe Norwick of Detroit and Don Jackson of Racine, Wis. in current play.

Mayer's 692 helped to boost him and his partner, Johnny Basou, into eighth place in doubles with a combined score of 1273.

Laurie Anderson of San Francisco also moved into among the best pin topplers with a singles 668.

Beagle BEAGLE, April 5.—(Sp.)—Mrs. Eva Randall, who has been visiting at the J. L. Frink home the past week, returned to her home back of Roky Ann Saturday.

Mrs. Gates called at the Bennett and Sweet homes one day last week. Wm. Bennett of Jacksonville was visiting home folks the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mulhollen and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Martin and family, John and Frank Nelson and Mrs. Ora Bennett and son, Billy, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sims and family.

Mrs. and Joan Edler spent the week end in Gold Hill visiting their mother, Mrs. Celia Edler.

Frances Bennett, who has been ill with pneumonia, is able to be up again. Her many friends will be glad when she can be among them again.

Mr. and Mrs. Sater and daughter, Derva Joans, were Sunday callers at the Gillette home.

BOY SCOUTS 'DAD' HOLDS FRIENDSHIP PEACE INSURANCE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—(AP)—The only way world peace will be attained, Lord Robert Baden-Powell believes, is through the furtherance of friendship among people of the several nations.

And the founder of the Boy Scout movement, who arrived here today from Australia, believes friendliness among the nations is improving despite recent developments in Europe.

The Boy Scout movement is doing its share toward this objective, he pointed out, as scout troops, all with common interests, are now organizing throughout the world. He stressed that the Boy Scouts are in no way a military organization.

With Lord Baden-Powell were Lady Baden-Powell and his two daughters, Betty and Heather. They had gone to Australia for the Pan-Pacific Boy Scout jamboree, held last year near Melbourne. In the party also was Colonel G. Walton, founder of the Rover, an English organization similar to the Scouts.

The chief scout of the world will deliver a radio address over a national hook-up (NBC) today at 2 p. m. (P. S. T.) The address will be relayed to English and European stations by means of a short wave transmitter in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Tonight he will attend the scouting merit badge exposition at the guest of 6000 San Francisco Boy Scouts, and will present eagle and quartermaster badges, highest awards of the organization, to 75 Scouts.

Lord Baden-Powell and his party will leave tomorrow night for the north. They will go through Portland, Ore., and Seattle, and travel east through Canada en route to their home in England.

Tests recently completed by the Pacific northwest forest experiment station prove that Douglas fir seed ordinarily retains its ability to germinate for only one season after it falls to the ground.

EXTRA GRADES BUTTER LIFTED HALF CENT ON MARKET IN PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Ore., April 5.—(AP)—Extra grade butter prices were lifted to 28c, an advance of 1/2c. Butterfat quotations were advanced 1 cent.

The market on butter locally appeared fully steady at the new level with activity centered mostly on top grades. Good retail and outside demand continued while markets elsewhere were firm to higher.

Good demand prevailed for heavy hens and supplies were tight on the street. Market fully firm. Light hens in ample supply and only about steady.

The dry onion market ruled fully steady at mostly $6 on No. 1 stuff and $3 on No. 2. Green onions were in limited supply at the moment and steady at 25c dozen bunches.

Prices were somewhat mixed on green beans to the variance in the quality offered and sources of supply. Fair quotations appeared around 15c pound or somewhere near $3 box.

"FELT MISERABLE MOST OF THE TIME" Then Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Checked Her Constipation* Read Mrs. Marsden's letter: "I have been a subject of constipation for the last 11 years. I felt miserable and irritable most of the time. My husband is a manager of a chain store. He said 'Why don't you try Kellogg's ALL-BRAN?'"

"ALL-BRAN helped me right away. I have taken it now for the past 5 months, and I am as regular as a clock. My health is fine, and I am full of pep."—Mrs. Charles Marsden, 681 Merrick St., Detroit, Mich.

*Constipation due to insufficient "bulk" in meals. ALL-BRAN provides gentle "bulk" to aid regular habits. It also supplies vitamin B and iron.

The "bulk" of ALL-BRAN is more effective than the "bulk" in fruits and vegetables, as it does not break down within the body. Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. If not corrected this way, see your doctor.
