

ETHIOPIA GIRDS FOR ITALIAN INVASION

Informed through an official communique from Premier Mussolini that Italy stands ready to mobilize even to 8,000,000 men, Ethiopia prepares to face Italian troops in the event of a war in East Africa. Above are shown Ethiopian troops in full dress parade during a recent review by Emperor Haile Selassie. Left are typical warriors in their native garb and right is a tribal lord. Below is one of the chain of Italian forts on the Italian Somaliland-Ethiopian border. (Associated Press Photos)

'TIRED OF HUEY'S PALAVER'

Headed by a two-fisted congressman from the cow country, Rep. P. L. Gassaway (above), a group of representatives has organized to whittle down the power of Senator Huey P. Long. "We are the meanest scoundrels in congress and we are damn tired of Huey's line of palaver," said H. C. Oklahoma democrat. "We are going to knock him over." (Associated Press Photo)

WINS INTERCOLLEGIATE MEET

Shirley Frazer (above), University of Washington co-ed, has become the national independent intercollegiate rifle champion, by scoring 598 out of a possible 600. The Seattle sharpshooter tied with Mary Wettach of Carnegie Tech last year to lose the meet on a flip of a coin. (Associated Press Photo)

Royal Romance

Despite denials from the Danish royal family, rumors persisted that Princess Ingrid of Sweden (above) would be married soon to Crown Prince Frederik of Denmark (lower). (Associated Press Photos)

POSTOFFICE PREPARES FOR STAMP SALE RUSH

Mrs. A. D. Carothers of the philatelic agency of the postoffice shown in Washington, D. C., as she sorted out orders of stamps for the expected rush when 20 varieties of imperforate stamps went on sale. The sale to collectors was made in answer to protests that Postmaster General Farley distributed imperforate sheets to his friends. (Associated Press Photo)

NATIONWIDE DRIVE AGAINST CRIMINALS MADE

This assortment of narcotics was part of the contraband seized in raids in New York by department of justice agents as part of a nationwide drive that resulted in nearly 2000 arrests throughout the country in one day. (Associated Press Photo)

SECRETARY OF WAR DERN'S SON TAKES BRIDE

William B. Dorn, son of the war secretary, is among the latest well-known personages to go to the altar. Shown following the ceremony in Washington are (left to right) Secretary Dorn, the bride who was Miss Helen M. McCollum, the groom, and Mrs. George Dorn, the secretary's wife. (Associated Press Photos)

FILIPINO SIGNS NEW CONSTITUTION IN BLOOD

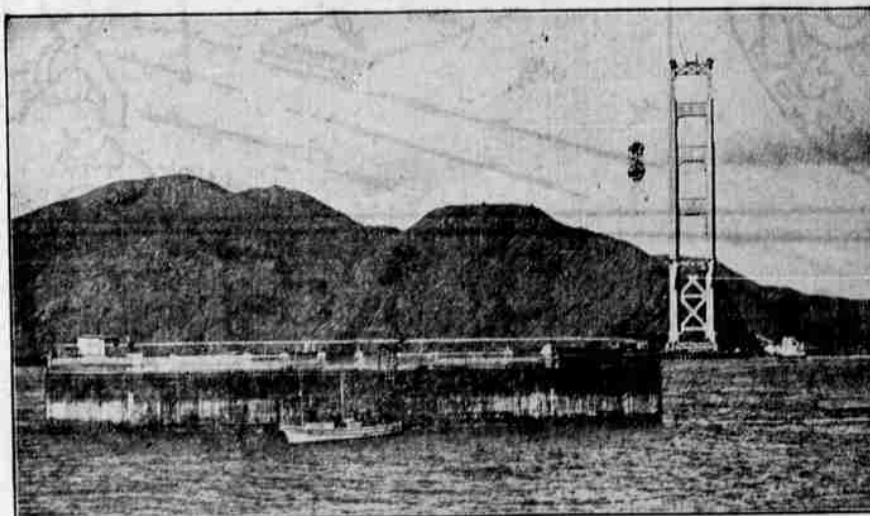

Delegate Gregorio Perfecto, a member of the Philippine constitutional convention, made the constitution for the forthcoming 10-year commonwealth a blood compact when that instrument was signed. He is shown seated before the rostrum of the house of representatives while Dr. Pablo Anzures (left) opens a vein. The remaining 200 delegates were content to use ink. Partially crippled by paralysis, Perfecto was escorted to the rostrum by his daughter, Miss Elena Perfecto (background). Secretary Pimentel (right) of the convention is looking on. (Associated Press Photo)

FEDERAL AGENTS FIND COUNTERFEIT MONEY CACHE

United States officers inspect a Detroit, Mich., printing plant which they allege was headquarters of a $150,000 counterfeiting ring. They found more than $37,000 in bogus money in this "secret room." (Associated Press Photo)

DYNAMITE-LOADED CAISSON TOWED TO SEA

The $350,000 caisson which was abandoned by the Golden Gate bridge district when it was found unsatisfactory being towed through the gate to sea where it was to be blown up. The 10,000-ton steel and concrete block broke away from its tugs at sea and was free for a time with four men on it. A tower of the Golden Gate bridge is shown. (Associated Press Photo)

BEFORE ATTENDING HEARING

Senator McAdoo (left), Democrat of California, and Senator Keyes, Republican from New Hampshire, shown holding a most informal conference in the hallway as they attended a meeting of the senate finance committee. (Associated Press Photo)

COURT MARTIAL FOR STRIKERS

Ramiro Jimenez and Miguel Suarez, sugar mill workers, were tried in Havana, Cuba, by court martial charged with leadership in the recent strike. The military prosecutor asked for sentences of from two to five years imprisonment. (Associated Press Photo)

CALIFORNIA CO-EDS TRY PIPES

These two University of California co-eds tired of cigarettes so they decided to smoke pipes for a change. Now they puff their briars with nonchalance. They are Gloria Moore (left) of Redondo Beach, Cal., and Jean Hart of Petaluma, Cal. (Associated Press Photo)