Miss Roxane Ruhl Home After Voyage To Hawaiian Islands

Completing a six weeks' trip to Honolulu and a three weeks' vacation in southern California and Old Mexico, Miss Roxane Ruhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ruhl, returned on the Blasta Saturday morning after many delightful days spent at sea, on the islands and in Lower California. The spring sunshine found there and the beautiful desert flowers at Palm Springs even surpassed the attractiveness of the islands on many days, Miss Ruhl found, because of the storms and floods that were encountered.

Miss Ruhl accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter on the voyage, but remained in California after the latter returned to Medford. At Pasadena she visited Miss Julia McWilliams, who attended school with Miss Ruhl and is acquainted with many in Medford, having been a guest at the Ruhl home.

Miss Ruhl then accompanied her father, who had gone to San Francisco to meet the boat, and her grandfather, A. S. Ruhl, to Agua Caliente for a week end of golf and a visit to the Casino. Then she and her father visited Palm Springs, where it was found that the desert flowers were in bloom.

At Oahu, Miss Ruhl and the Carpenters were guests at the Halekulani hotel at Waikiki Beach. Four weeks were spent there and it was during this time that the serious floods struck the islands, adding no little excitement to the visit. They motored around the island before returning to San Francisco.

Robert W. Ruhl is in that city and is expected to return the first of the week.

Holbrooks Observe Anniversary Sixty-First Wedding Day

In true keeping with spring, the season of romance, comes announcement this week that Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Holbrook, 17 Almond street, have celebrated the sixty-first anniversary of their marriage.

On March 23, 1874, the well known local couple, took vows in Sparta, N. C. Today, at the ages of 85 and 79, Mr. and Mrs. Holbrook welcome the new season, each enjoying good health and congratulations from their nine living sons and daughters. They have been residents of Oregon for 55 years and have friends throughout the valley, who also extend them good wishes.

Preceding their arrival in Oregon, they lived for a few years in Nebraska, where they still have one daughter, Mrs. George Anderson of Hastings. The other children came west. They are: G. L. Holbrook, Klamath Falls; D. C. Holbrook, Tule Lake, Cal.; W. J. Holbrook, Malin, Ore.; C. V. Holbrook, Creswell; W. B. Holbrook, Lebanon; Luther R. Holbrook, Provo; Mrs. W. P. Andrews, Medford; and Madge Holbrook, Salem. Another daughter, Mrs. B. E. Wright, died in Portland seven years ago. When the Holbrooks celebrated their golden wedding day in that city all members of their family were present.

They also have 32 grandchildren. Miss Grace Andrews, formerly of Medford, now of Fort Collins, Colo., being the oldest; and two great-grandchildren.

Recital Scheduled At Baldwin Shop

The Yeoman-Knight studio will present another group of pupils in voice, piano and violin recital at the Baldwin Piano Shop next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The series, of which this recital is the second, to be given during the spring season, is for entertainment of the public and furtherance of the musical education of the pupils presented. Miss Dorothy Gore, talented young violinist of this city, will conclude the program with the first movement of the famous Mendelssohn E-minor concerto.

Mrs. Yeoman and Mr. Knight announce a carefully arranged program and extend a cordial invitation to all who are interested.

Dance for Masonic Lodge on Thursday

Wenonah Club Enjoy April Frolic on Friday
An evening of much enjoyment, an April frolic, was spent at the Redmen hall Friday by members of the Wenonah club and their invited friends. A candy table, fortune telling booth, "fish pond," the "beauty parlor," "photo gallery," "chicken dinner" booth, a place for "classes," the "wild animals," the "witchery" and other amusements were the scene of much merriment. A trio composed of two saxophones and clarinets entertained with two musical numbers. The players were Dorothy Lawrence, Eugene Hayes and Janet Iush.

The one act play, "On Guard," was presented in a most creditable manner by the following: Colonel Peppercorn, Maude Abbott; his daughter, Miss Lucy; Esther Deane; Charles Casher, Sarah Toole; Ted McFinnigan, Harriet Watson; Tom Manley, Bernice Wilson, and the Irish maid, Molly, Dorothy Watkins. The evening's entertainment was under the able direction of the president, Harriet Watson, assisted by her committees. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Committees Named For Garden Club's Work During Year

Medford Garden club held an interesting meeting Thursday evening at the Hotel Medford. Mrs. P. O. Denson has cordially invited the club to meet there, an invitation the club appreciates very much. Future meetings will all be held there with the exception of the State Federation meetings, which will be held in the court house auditorium.

The president, Mrs. Ralph Woodford, has appointed the following committees:

Arrangements: Mrs. J. B. Woodford, Mrs. E. M. Wilson, Mrs. R. G. Fowler.

Program: Mrs. C. H. Paake.

Hospitality: Mrs. T. W. Miles, Mrs. C. C. Furnas, Mrs. Beale Lumsden and Mrs. H. A. Stanley.

Registration: Mrs. C. C. Darby and Mrs. H. N. Butler.

Credentials: Mrs. E. E. Wilson and Mrs. L. E. Williams.

Publicity: Jane Sedwick.

Decorations: Miss Helen Bullis, Mrs. H. D. McCaskey, Mrs. A. E. Reams, Mrs. O. F. Phythian, Mrs. Leland Metzger and Mrs. George Porter.

Transportation: Mrs. C. J. Semon, Gardens to be visited: Mrs. A. S. V. Carpenter, Mrs. Mae Carleton and Mrs. W. E. Crews.

The plant sale, Mrs. Louis Bundy, chairman, will be held Friday and Saturday, April 12 and 13. There is always a strong demand for shrubs and the committee asks especially for donations of shrubs as well as perennials and other plants.

A nominating committee which will report at the regular May meeting was appointed by the president as follows: Mrs. O. Arnsperger, Mrs. J. A. Perry and Mrs. Winifred Bailey.

Dr. P. J. Moffatt's talk on the work he is doing in taking X-ray pictures of fruits and flowers was very interesting and the pictures he showed of flowers received high enthusiasm. He is tracing development of the pear by means of X-ray pictures from the smallest bud formation through to the ripened fruit. The time for picking in the future may possibly be determined by X-ray pictures rather than by methods now in use, Dr. Moffatt said.

During the State Federation meeting the Chamber of Commerce will establish an information bureau at the court house.

Mrs. C. T. Sweeney Will Entertain Merritt Circle
