MISS STEIN SAYS TREES FEMININE

YOSEMITE, Cal., April 6.—(AP)—Gertrude Stein, writer of impressionistic English, admitted today she was "impressed" with the big trees of the world famous Mariposa grove of Sequoias. "They impressed me as being feminine," she said today after a visit to the grove with Bert Harwell, park naturalist. "Like beautiful ladies, they swish their skirts."

Miss Stein and her secretary were taken to the floor of the valley for a view of the waterfalls, now reaching spring flood volume.

Reports Given To Missionary Society

A very interesting and instructive meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Christian church was held Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Wilmot, president, conducted the business period, which followed the brief prayer service. Mrs. R. L. Ray presented the study theme, "Keepers of the Light," and the following program was given: Devotional study, "Working With God and With One Another," by Miss Grace Hermon, member of the B. I. Triangle group of Central Point; vocal duet, "Beautiful Japan," Mrs. J. Grigby and Miss Genevieve Brown; "Growing Faith-Tested and Proved," the third installment in the life of Susanna Sara, by Mrs. Gladys Jewett; "Teacher, Bible Woman and Devoted Christian," a story of Miss Mural, one of the workers in Japan, by Mrs. W. R. Baird; "New Leadership in Our Japanese Church," by Mrs. Everett Eads; "Becoming a Christian Under Difficulties," Mrs. F. J. Wilmot.

Mrs. Holloway Is New President of Roosevelt Group

The regular meeting of the Roosevelt Home and School circle was held Friday afternoon at the school. The program was opened with a group of songs by the SA class. Larry Schads gave a very interesting talk on the "Importance of Boy Scouting" and told of the proposed itinerary of the Scouts who are to attend the national jamboree in Washington this summer. Three Scouts from Troop 3 presented a little skit in a very clever manner. A paper on "Home and Its Influence on the Child" was read by Mrs. O. O. Humphrey. Officers elected for the following year were: President, Mrs. W. A. Holloway; vice-president, Mrs. C. D. Bowers; secretary, Mrs. George Gates; treasurer, Mrs. H. D. Powell. A group of mothers of the SA class were hostesses for the social hour.

Backwards Party Is Comical Event

Golden Links Bible class of the Medford Baptist church met at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Whitlock on the old Central Point road Monday evening, April 1, for an April Fool's party which took the form of a "backwards" party. The guests were required to wear their clothing backwards or pay a fine. When the members arrived their cars were parked in the back yard and they were expected to go in by the back door, but they were met at the door by some of the committee charge and were told to go around to the front door. Upon reaching the front entrance they noticed a "wet paint" sign and were directed to the side door. Inside, it was discovered by some member of the committee that one of the guests, Don Platt, had failed to put his clothes on backwards. He was kidnapped and "taken for a ride" as his wife failed to pay his wife. After much laughing and exclaiming over the backwards costumes, the guests were served refreshments. Many interesting and laugh provoking games were played. Mr. Whitlock is interested in cows and is making a study of the habits of his "critters," so he decided to try an experiment on his guests for the benefit of his cows. The guests were required to chew milk bottles made out of paraffine to see if they could chew as long as a cow can chew per cud. To make a long story short, the guests were still nursing their jaws the next day. After a backwards spelling bee the guests departed, all voting a grand time.

Book Reviewed for Members Study Club

The regular meeting of the Wednesday study club was held in the Girls' Community club rooms at 229 North Bartlett street on April 3, with the president, Mrs. B. G. Harding, presiding. Owing to the illness of Mrs. Deuel, the topic, "Real Western Ranch Women," was omitted. Mrs. E. B. Pickett, chairman for the afternoon, gave a pleasant and comprehensive review of Laura Adam Arner's book, "Southwest." The author is a native of California and received her education in that state, specializing in art and photography, which she used to advantage in the illustrations for her book. "Southwest," Mrs. Pickett said, is beautifully written, and portrays many of the customs, superstitions and religious beliefs of the Navajo Indians and describes the country in which they live.

Current topics, with Mrs. C. A. Meeker in charge, were of unusual scope and much importance in world affairs of today. Added items of interest by each member of the club rounded out a most enjoyable program.

On Friday the Girls' Community club is giving a dinner honoring its basketball team. Mrs. Myra Russell, who has coached the girls, will be the guest of honor. Her successful work in this activity and the victorious career of the team she has organized has been an outstanding feature of the fall program. And, as is true of all Girls' Community club leaders, her work is volunteer and unpaid, and the board desires to publicly express its gratitude for her splendid work.

Food Sale Planned by Ladies of Church Ladies of the Sacred Heart church will hold a food sale at the Reliable grocery store, Thursday, April 11, at 2:30. Mrs. E. A. Oldenberg will have charge.

Cooked food will be sold Saturday and plants and candy will also be on sale.

Intermediate Endeavor Will Meet This Evening The Intermediate Endeavor of the First Christian church will hold its monthly business meeting at 6:30 Sunday afternoon. Elsie Penwell will lead the short devotional period. All young people of high school age are cordially invited to attend.
