

Four-Team League Formed for Southern Oregon

RENAME NININGER AS PRESIDENT AND HULEN SECRETARY

Ashland, Medford, Grants Pass and Ewauna Box Co. Will Open Schedule May 5 With Good Talent

Four teams—Ashland, Medford, Grants Pass and Ewauna Box Co. from Klamath Falls—will form the 1935 Southern Oregon Baseball League.

That was the setup decided upon at Ashland last night when six team representatives met to draw up a schedule and elect officers. A. C. Nininger and Billy Hulen, both of Ashland, were unanimously elected president and secretary respectively, with the secretary to receive a salary of $2.50 a month from each league team.

Voting Ashland in the circuit as the only new team, the three 1934 clubs turned thumbs down on the bids of Coquille and Medford's Gilmore Lions to make it a six-team setup. Reasons were that Coquille was too far a hop and that Medford couldn't support a pair of teams.

The schedule will open May 5 and end July 21, 12 games with a game every Sunday. Teams were given the option to lengthen the schedule three games after the formal closing if they desire.

Opening battles will see Ashland tangling with the Grants Pass team, 1934 champions, at Grants Pass and Medford entertaining Ewauna at Medford, the game to be played at the high school field.

Remainder of the schedule will be drawn up by Nininger and Hulen and will be announced soon.

Teams decided on a flat guarantee of $30 for the visiting club with an option to take 40 per cent of the gross gate. League admission price was set at 35 cents.

Representing the teams at the meeting were the following: Ashland, Arthur L. Coggin; Medford, Paul Hoffer and "Scoop" Puhl; Grants Pass, Fred Roper; Ewauna, Al Dollarhide; Coquille, Bill Fortier and Medford's Gilmore Lions, Bud Conlin.

According to Roper, secretary of the champion Grants Pass team, the climate city boys will be stronger than ever this year. Frank Nelson, lefthanded hurler, will again be with the team, as will Al Droulette, league leading hitter last year.

Al Dollarhide stated that Clyde Carlstrom, rated by many the best hurler in the circuit last year, will LESSON 3—General Suggestions for Beginners.

- 1—Select ball with holes and grip which fit your hand (see Photograph 7).
- 2—Hold ball naturally, without cramping hand.
- 3—Watch technique of others. Do not attempt to copy their exact style.
- 4—Do not attempt to throw the ball. ROLL it at all times.
- 5—FOLLOW THROUGH with every ball without forcing (see photograph 8).
- 6—Change your position on approach for different spare shots.

Photograph Number 8.

8—Keep back of foul line in practice and bowl better in leagues and tournaments.

9—Do not get discouraged. You will not learn to become a champion in a day.

10—If you have the right kind of a ball, correct position, and a free, easy delivery—PRACTICE. But practice will not make you perfect; there are no perfect bowlers. The many combinations, the apparently good hits that do not secure results, the uncertainty, makes bowling the fascinating game it is. However, you can, with sufficient practice, compete with and often defeat the so-called stars.

again do the checking for the Red Sox and that several players of last season will return.

At Ashland, John Miljus, former major league pitcher, will manage the team and take his turn in the box, and with a flock of Normal school and high school players, the Lithians will be able to hold their own with the rest of the circuit.

Paul Hoffer will have several of last year's Rogue players back and is at present angling for Jimmy Ault, fireball pitcher from Portland, to take over the Medford mound duties.

Ashland will play the Gilmore Lions at Jacksonville April 14 and Medford will tangle with Grants Pass at Grants Pass on the same date if plans go through. Both games will be practice affairs.

Dyde's orchestra will provide the music and ticket sales indicate that there will be a large crowd. Tickets may be used for the first ball game if not used for the dance.

DANCE TONIGHT FOR BALL CLUB BENEFIT

A dance for the benefit of baseball activities in the valley will be held tonight at Dreamland hall, sponsored by the recently organized Medford baseball club of which L. C. ("Scoop") Puhl is manager.

PIVOT AND JUMP PLAYS MODIFIED BY CAGE RULERS

Free Throw Lane to Be Kept Clear—Center Jump Is Eliminated After Free Throw On Personal Foul

NEW YORK, April 9.—(AP)—The national basketball rules committee has taken aim at two of the game's established features, the post pivot play and the center jump, and severely wounded both.

The solons struck a heavy blow at the pivot or bucket play by ruling that no player will be permitted to remain in his free-throw lane, with or without the ball, for more than three seconds except when trying for a loose ball.

Then they decided to eliminate the center jump after a successful free throw following a personal foul. Instead, the ball will be taken outside by the team scored upon at the end of the court where the point was made.

Hits Pivot Play
The new "three-second" rule is expected to deal a near-death blow to the pivot play, argued vehemently pro and con for years by coaches and officials. It will prevent a team from posting a tall player in the free-throw lane to take the ball from down court, then turn to shoot or pass to a teammate dashing down the side of the court. In the event of an infraction of the new rule the ball will go, out of bounds, to the opposing team.

Elimination of the center jump after a successful three throw presented a compromise. Far western representatives sought elimination of the center jump entirely as it was in the southern division of the Pacific coast conference this year. The committee decided, instead, to eliminate the jump only after a successful free throw for the time being. The new rule will not apply after technical or double fouls.

Tighten Contact Rule
The committee adopted three other rules changes designed to eliminate crowding on jump balls and decided that in the future officials "must disqualify a player for flagrant violation of the personal contact rule."

Formerly this rule simply gave officials authority to remove such a player without making it mandatory upon them to do so.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 9.—(AP)—Walter Tinkit Achlu, Eugene middleweight, gained the deciding fall in a four hour last night from Rod Fenton of Canada in a wrestling match which was a literal brawl.

Drop kicks gained Fenton the first fall and Achlu evened with flying tackles. Fenton was throttling Achlu's throat in the final session when suddenly Fenton lashed out with a double drop kick to down Referee Elliot. When Elliott awoke he awarded the bout to Achlu.

Once both wrestlers chased a radio announcer down the aisles and almost out of the house.

Del Kunkle of Salt Lake City won the semi-windup by gaining the deciding fall from Moon Mullins, Mexico City middleweight.

SIMS FEET CAUSE BRIDGE ARGUMENT

NEW YORK, April 9.—(AP)—Leading by 14,640 points, the Ely Culbertsons today headed for the stretch in their 100-rubber bridge marathon with Mr. and Mrs. P. Hal Sims.

With only 38 rubbers to be played, ringside kibitzers agreed that unless the Simses draw some phenomenal cards, their chances of overtaking the Culbertsons are slim.

The playing last night was enlivened by a dispute between the two men over the bulky Sims' feet. Culbertson argued, Sims was crowding him under the table.

The upshot was that Culbertson drew a chalk line under the table and impounded Sims to keep his feet on his side of the line.

LADY GOLFERS IN INTER-CITY MATCH

About 75 lady golfers are expected to attend an inter-city ladies' day tournament at Rogue Valley course tomorrow from Klamath Falls, Grants Pass and Ashland.

The event, a special feature of the weekly ladies' day activities, will be for final score and will be held in conjunction with a luncheon, of which Mrs. A. F. Mansfield is in charge. She requests that the ladies bring their own service for the luncheon.

Local women golfers are asked to call Pro Jack Hueston or Mrs. Mansfield if they wish to participate.

BARNEY ROSS TO RISK JUNIOR WELTER TITLE

SEATTLE, Wash., April 9.—(AP)—Barney Ross of Chicago, a fighting champion, today donned one of his two world's championship crowns—the junior welterweight gear—for Henry Woods, a northwest negro, to shoot at in a 12-round battle here tonight.

The Jewish boy, who has held three world's titles at one time, was a heavy favorite to retain the junior welterweight, but many supporters of the 20-year-old slugger insisted it would be no cinch. They even predicted that if Woods ever lands his terrific right on the sturdy jaw of the champion it may instantly carry him to the top in boxing.

COAST TEAMS TO ATTEMPT OPENING

By the Associated Press
With only three games played to date because of a general rainstorm, Pacific coast league baseball was scheduled to begin catching up with its season today.

The third day after the "gala" opening on which Jupiter Plusius put on the only shows at Oakland and San Francisco had Seattle facing the Missions at San Francisco, Portland at Hollywood, Los Angeles at Sacramento and the Seals at Oakland.

Lefty O'Doul's debut as a coast club manager last night saw his San Francisco Seals take an 11 to 2 drubbing in a hometown game with the Missions.

Your old pal, General Johnson, wants to write a new NRA bill, and is being suppressed with difficulty. He wants to take it before the Harrison committee and show how bad the pending Richberg bill is. Friends have tried to tell him it only would reopen old wounds, but he may do it anyway.

A Republican manufacturer sent out confidential letters recently to all Republican national committeemen. He said the party was erring in trying to vie with the Democrats for votes of the 10,000,000 unemployed workers, but should formulate policies appealing to the 30,000,000 now at work. The answers are not yet pouring in.

RFC-er Jones has been acting as a school teacher, holding regular classes for employees of his 32 branch agencies, to acquaint them with his plans for unrefreezing mortgages. This new Jones drive is to start shortly.

Senator Harrison received word from a high quarter to speed up his NRA hearings. He speeded them up so much that one day last week he ran out of witnesses.

The unannounced reason why the NRA issued new regulations against the printing of blue eagles was because a small, fly-by-night textile manufacturer were counterfeiting them.

Red tape is holding up the A. T. and T. investigation. Many of the 100 investigators at the federal communications commission cannot go to work until classification compli-
