Advent Christian Church
JACKSON AND WELCH
The Advent Christian Church of Medford, located at the corner of West Jackson and Welch Streets, has a membership of sixty-three. Organized in 1922, with a charter membership of seventeen, it still retains a seven of its charter members. The growth of the church has been steady, with much credit being due to the earnest efforts of Rev. Irvin Dupray, the first pastor, Rev. J. Spencer Tilton, who served the church faithfully as pastor for five years, as well as to Rev. M. E. La Dite who ably supplied as pastor during a period when no regular pastor was retained.

of present world conditions. The church meets for preaching service every Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock. Sunday evening at 8:00, and Wednesday evening for prayer meetings. The Bible School, which meets Sunday morning at 9:45, under the leadership of Mrs. Grace M. Thurman as superintendent, has an enrollment of sixty-six. Classes correspond to age groups in the school, with an earnest, efficient staff of teachers. A Cradle Roll Department under the management of Mrs. Geo. Clinton, wishes to enroll every baby whose parents have no other church affiliation. That each child may have thrown about it from earliest infancy the protecting influence of the church. A Home Department has recently been formed with Miss Gertrude J. Sullivan as superintendent, and it is hoped that we may be able to bring the Bible School regular to many shut-ins who on account of age or illness, would otherwise be deprived of church and Sunday School privileges. Miss Merle Dickinson is organist for the Bible School. A Loyal Workers' Society comprised of young people from "teen age thru the early twenties meets for an hour's service at 7:00 o'clock every Sunday evening. This is a fine, earnest group of young people who are at present engaged in a special course of Bible studies given by the pastor, with a view to training in Christian Leadership. Miss Sylvia Learned is president of this society. A fine young choir is being trained from this group. A Junior Loyal Workers' Society with Dorothy Dickinson as
