WITH drought in the summer, blizzards in the winter and dust storms in the Spring and Fall, thousands of people of the Middle West, have decided to pull up stakes and go West this summer.
Some of them plan a round trip journey; they intend to look over the Pacific Coast, before deciding to settle in it.

Personal Health Service

By William Brady, M.D.

signed letters pertaining to personal health and hygiene not to disease diagnosis or treatment will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Letters should be brief and written in ink. Owing to the large number of letters received only a few can be answered. No reply can be made to queries not conforming to instructions. Address Dr. William Brady, 245 El Camino, Beverly Hills, Cal.

How to Gain Weight

A LOT OF GAS ABOUT NOTHING MUCH. I am past 35 years old and for many years past an ardent and rabid Doc Brady disciple. Eleven years ago by following your advice I managed to put on some 14 pounds weight in a very short time - much needed weight.

Comment on the Day's News

By FRANK JENKINS

ACTION on Oregon's road program is slowed, the headlines tell us. Lack of information regarding federal grants to the states under the new work-relief program is said to be responsible for the delay.

Flight 'o Time

(Medford and Jackson County History from the files of the Mail Tribune of 19 and 20 Years Ago)

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY. April 16, 1925 (It was Thursday). Two-cent rate for mailing postal cards goes into effect and hundreds of local patrons of the postoffice forget it and have cards returned "for lack of postage."

A Tip to the S. P.

WE BELIEVE the Southern Pacific can render a real service to this section of Southern Oregon, and also increase passenger traffic on its Siskiyou line. People coming to the coast via the railroad will not be as much interested in speed as in seeing the country. But under the present S. P. schedule and its advertising policy, they will see nothing of Oregon outside of Portland, and the scrub pines of the Natron cut-off!

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY

NEW YORK, April 16.—The New York stage, more than any time in its history, went utterly British the past season, quite naturally inclining much muttering among lay-offs in the grills of the Lamb and Playhouse. For many distinguished actors are casting covetous glances at hall milk bottles these days.

A "retreat" for paroled convicts is proposed as a crime preventative. It is feared if the criminals don't, the public will.

AT LEAST it seems only proper, that the S. P. give its patrons a FAIR chance to CHOOSE between the two routes—provide accommodations reasonably decent on BOTH—let them know—and LET THE WORLD KNOW,—there are two routes, and that as far as seeing the country and enjoying the western scenery is concerned, the Shasta has it over the Cascade line like a tent!

A Mental Case

THE present situation, economically, is pretty accurately summed up in the statement that business is much better, than business sentiment. For months now, practically every statistical service in the country has presented facts and figures showing steady improvement. There is plenty of money, there is no absence of credit. In some lines new prosperity records have been established. In a majority, conditions are vastly better; in none are they WORSE, and yet—panion on his first walk through brightly lit Broadway. He went to his room and with frolicsome hand wrote a first impression satire. At midnight he took it to Bill Lewis at the Sunday Telegraph and sold it for $32. It stands as the greatest 24-hour conquering of a city by a strange writer I ever heard of.

NEW YORK, April 16.—The astute historian Percy Hammond finds that the Rialto's choicest niches were filled by such perfidious Alibonias as Robert Lavigne, Rex O'Malley, O. P. Heggie, Ernest Casson, A. P. Kaye, Lionel Page, Lynn Portner, Dudley Digges, Brian Aron, Ernest Lawford and Basil Rathbone. My word, my word!

The weather continues subject to change without notice, and the rain falls like all the Easter bonnets were attacked in alfalfa fields. Barnum knew that one was born every second, but he had no way to realize how they might be reached over the radio—(Pontiac (Mich.) Press)—Sad and solemn truth item.

Wild Engine Hops Track At Cheyenne

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 16.—(AP)—After a wild two-mile run with no one at the controls, following a head-on collision with a freight train, a Union Pacific switch engine and two coal cars hurtled off the track and crashed in a heap of wreckage at the edge of Cheyenne at noon today.

Dear Miss Gray: I see where someone asked if true love can be forgotten. When I was a young fellow I had 100 or more sweeties to bug, kiss and love. It was good at it—(Portland News-Tribune)—A modest self-hater speaks up.

TO OUR way of thinking, the last named have the best of it. THE PRESENT situation strikes us as being largely a case of shell-shock. It is not what we are ACTUALLY suffering, or enduring NOW, but the after-effects of what we have suffered, and above all, what we FEAR we may suffer in the future. In other words, American business at the moment, is essentially a "mental case." The great need is not this panacea or that, but a clearing of the national mind, of the debris of the late catastrophe, and a more wholesome, more courageous and more sanguine point of view.

DROUGHT VICTIMS TO BE SENT WEST

PORTLAND, Ore., April 16.—(AP)—Plans for the transfer to the green fields and hills of western Oregon and western Washington of 25,000 families in the parched and dusty mid-west drought area, were revealed here today by D. O. Hood, state budget director for Oregon, upon his return from Washington, D. C. The task, he said, will be undertaken by the federal relief administration. It will be underway within a month.
