Delegations are expected from Grants Pass, Ashland, Rogue River and Beesee Creek unions. At this meeting reports will be given by the presidents of the local unions. Discussion on the Union Signal will be led by Mrs. Lulu Howard of Ashland and on the Children's Farm Home by a delegate from Grants Pass. A covered dish lunch will be served at noon, all ladies being asked to bring a covered dish and sandwiches. The afternoon meeting opens at 2 o'clock with a talk by Rev. Ross Douglas of Grants Pass on "Evangelism and Temperance." Several members of Medford union will present a playlet, "Temperance Tides in American History." Mrs. Ada Jolley will give an address on "Alcohol: What It Is, and What It Does." There will be musical numbers at both sessions of the institute and a cordial invitation is extended to all who can attend these meetings. The addresses in the afternoon will be especially interesting and instructive.

Medford W. C. T. U. will hold a rummage sale Friday and Saturday, May 3 and 4, the place to be announced later.

First Formal Dance Next Saturday Night At New Town Club

Plans have been made and invitations will be mailed to members of the Town club for the first formal dance to be held in the new quarters. The committee in charge promises that it will be a gala affair and advises members to reserve the date, Saturday night, April 27, for the occasion.

Activities at the Town club have given way largely during the past week for preparations for Easter, but when its observance and special events are concluded it is expected that many attractive spring parties will make the club a popular center for activities of the social throng.

The outstanding event of the past week was the dinner given Thursday evening by K. W. Kendrick as a farewell party for A. J. McGee of Yreka, special agent for Standard Oil Co. who has been transferred to Twin Falls, Idaho. Twelve representatives of the company were present.

Preparations are being completed for the first bridge tournament for active members of the club, which is to be held Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Cash prizes will be given and light refreshments will be served. The committee which is receiving reservations for the event is Mrs. W. F. Quisenberry, Mrs. Edwin Durno and Mrs. Frank Farrell. It is expected that about 20 tables will be in play.

Tuesday is ladies' day at the club, and there will be other activities during the week before the formal dance on Saturday night, which will mark the end of the month.
