CLEVELAND NOSES OUT TIGERS, 2 TO 1, IN HURLER'S DUEL

American Leaders Battle 14 Innings—Cascarella Wild, Yankees Win — Browns Down White Sox.

DETROIT, Mich., April 20.—(AP)—The Cleveland Indians, rated as the most dangerous pennant contender in the American league, went 14 innings today to turn back the Detroit Tigers, 2 to 1, in a brilliant pitchers' battle.

Successful singles by Hughes, Vojtko and Averil in the fourteenth produced the winning run.

Oral Hildebrand, pitching with fine control, went the route for the tribe, scattering nine hits. He also provided the Indians with their first run in the sixth.

Against Hildebrand, Mickey Cochrane used his submarine ball pitcher, Edden Auker, lifted him for Pinch Hitter Fox in the eighth, and sent Joe Sullivan, the rookie southpaw from Hollywood, out to finish the last six innings.

BABE RUTH LAME, BUT BOSTON WINS; CUBS BEAT REDS

BOSTON, April 20.—(AP)—A pitching duel between Ben Cantwell and Van Mungo broke wide apart in the eighth inning when the Braves defeated Mungo for five runs and defeated Brooklyn, 7 to 1. Cantwell held the Dodgers to seven hits.

Babe Ruth provided a source of excitement in the sixth inning when he pulled up lame at second after Wally Berger's hit which sent Boston into the lead. He was forced out of the game but later discovered the trouble was nothing more serious than a cramp in his right leg.

The Babe had singled behind a walk to Lea Mallon, who scored on Berger's single.

GILMORES TO FACE EX-PIRATE STAR

The Ottomero Lions will play the Ashland town team in Jacksonville this afternoon in the first game of the season for Medford fans. The festivities will start at 2:30, with Miljus pitching for Ashland, and Ringler or Hensley chukking for the Lions.

Miljus, former Pittsburgh pitcher, has been working out with his team, but has not been doing much actual hurling, although he has indicated that he will start today. His team is made up mostly of younger men, with a leavening of old-timers to make the outfit dangerous. Hardy, left-handed relief twirler, will probably see action.

For the Lions will be such stars Dick Lewis, Bud Conlin, George Smith, Kenton, Sakraida, Naumes and Swanson. All are heavy hitters. The Jacksonville diamond is said to be in excellent condition for the fray, and sufficient bleacher space for a large crowd is available.

In that this is the first chance for valley people to see hard baseball this year, a large crowd is expected.

High Net Team Wins Grants Pass Matches

Medford high school tennis team came out at the long end of the score on Saturday by defeating the strong Grants Pass team, 4 to 3. This was the first match of the season for Medford and the score indicates that the local team may be a strong contender for the southern Oregon title this year. Out of five singles and two doubles, the local team won three singles and one double. Set scores of the match were as follows:

Coss vs. Haman, 5-7, 6-3, 6-1; Cope vs. Frazier, 6-0, 6-3; Brown vs. Burden, in favor of Brown, score not obtained; Fader vs. Clark, 2-6, 2-6; Hensley vs. Gilmore, 2-6, 7-9; Cope and Coss vs. Haman and Stark, 6-1, 6-3; Brown and Fader vs. Murden and Gilmore, 4-6, 6-8.

CALIFORNIA ENDS STANFORD REIGN ON TRACK, 77-53

First Win for Bears in Eleven Years, After Drab Start—Many Upset Winners in Meet.

By Russell J. Newland
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

EDWARDS STADIUM, Berkeley, Calif., April 20.—(AP)—To the thunderous cheers of fifteen thousand fans, University of California's Bears revived the track and field glories of a dozen years ago today with a smashing 77½ to 53½ victory over Stanford's Indians, 1934 collegiate champions of the nation.

In a point gathering drive that saw them come from behind after the fifth event, the greatest Blue and Gold collection of athletes assembled since 1923 and earlier rolled up tally upon tally to score an upset that sent supporters into a hysterical dance over the field.

First returns appeared to point to Stanford's twelfth successive victory over its oldest collegiate rival in a decade of seasons and speed that first took place in 1923.

The mile run went to Warren Dixon of Stanford in a "nose and nose" finish that saw California's Bob Heavey beat out by six inches while another Stanford boy, Chuck Nimmo, brought up the third position.

With this advantage as the opener, Stanford continued to hold the lead until the half mile, when Dick Brace pounded in, followed unexpectedly by a team mate, Landon, who had not figured to show the way to Stanford's Marion March.

For the balance of the meet, California continued to add to its total, scoring unlooked for points in the javelin high jump and low hurdles.

The javelin proved the turning point of the meet with Norman Fitzgerald leading the favored Stanford entry, Johnny Mottram, in a sensational comeback fling that put his flag to the forefront.

With Mottram leading with a toss of 209 feet, 8½ inches, Fitzgerald whipped the spear out on his last throw to stab a place in the turf that measured 211 feet even.

Shortly after Hugh Thompson and Gene Reid, tied at six feet, one inch to give California eight points in the high jump with Schewen of Stanford taking third. Humbert Smith of Stanford, pre-meet favorite, was ineffective because of an injured foot.

The low hurdles furnished another upset when Sammy Klopstock, Stanford's national collegiate high barrier and I. C. A. A. A. low stick champion of last season, trailed in third place, Calhoun Fisher and Tom Moore running first and second respectively. Klopstock stumbled and lost his balance between the seventh and eighth hurdles and barely escaped being abut out by John Wood of the Bears. The time was 23.8.

The broad jump, which stumped pre-meet dopewaters, was divided between Dean of Stanford and Vallejo of California, each made his longest jump on record to tie for first at 24 feet, 1½ inches.

The meet's only double winner was George Anderson, star sprinter of the Bears, who won the hundred in 9.8 and 220 in 21.6 without opening up.

KANSAS RACE ACE HAS FIRST LOSS

LAWRENCE, Kas., April 20.—(AP)—Glen Dawson of Tulsa handed Glenn Cunningham, world record mile, his first defeat of the 1935 track season here today in a special invitation mile race featured on the Kansas relays program.

Before a home-state crowd of 3000, Cunningham was overhauled on the home stretch by the former University of Oklahoma middle distance ace and Olympic steeplechaser and placed second, two or three yards behind the winner.

The time was 4 minutes 17.4 seconds, comparatively slow for all three contenders, including Harold Manning of Wichita, who was third.

Clyde Coffman, former University of Kansas star and member of the U. S. Olympic team three years ago, won the Kansas relays decathlon with a 10-point margin over Loyett Burk, lanky all-around contender from the University of Oklahoma, who placed second.

MEDFORD TANGLES WITH PASS TODAY

With what Manager "Hoosier" Hordford considers the best Medford team in seven years, the Medford Merchants invade Grants Pass today for a practice session that is expected to be as fast as mid-season ball.

Grants Pass, last year's league winners, are primed to put their fortune a notch forward with a decisive win over the locals, and the Merchants intend the same fate for the Cavemen.

The starting lineup for the Medford line will be: Calvert behind the bat, Courtney on first, Reinking on second, Woodyard at short, Donovan on third, and Sowers, Hoffman, Walton and Welch in the outfield. The club boasts a powerful pitching staff, including Hens, Merritt, Wilson, Erickson and a dark horse from the northern part of the state who may provide the main early season surprise.

Any one of the five triers is capable of a close game, and each has whiffed many of the league's stars in former games.

On April 28, the Merchants will journey to Coquille to try issues with that nine before their first league game, when they play Ashland here May 12.

STATERS HANDED HARD WALLOPING BY HUSKY SQUAD

CORVALLIS, Ore., April 20.—(AP)—University of Washington's great track and field team captured first in all but one event here today to defeat Oregon State college 92½ to 38½. Oregon State won the discus throw, and tied in the high jump.

Coach Hec Edmundson's Huskies turned in some brilliant early season marks in the running events and made clean sweeps in the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard low hurdles.

Humbler, Washington's flashing speedster, broke the tap in the 100-yard dash in 9.7 seconds and came back in the 220 to lead the pack in 21.8 seconds.

Anderson brought Oregon State college its only first place by hurling the discus 133 feet, 5½ inches, a little more than a foot farther than Grichukin of Washington could do.

Wahlgren of Washington flew around the oval four times to win the mile race in four minutes, 20 seconds.

At the mediocre height of five feet, 10 inches, Stoop and Eckman of Oregon State and Anshutz and McSwisher of Washington were in a four-way tie for first in the high jump.

A cold wind and rain swept the track.

The closest race was provided by Sellers of Washington and Shepard of Oregon State in the two-mile run. Shepard led his opponent most of the race but was passed on the home stretch by Sellers who won by several strides.

Bruce Hamber's marks in the dashes bettered Bell field records but were disallowed by official because of a strong wind at his back which aided him.

MAT FANS TO SEE HEALY-HUBKA GO

Three big-timers and one new face are scheduled to appear on the wrestling card that has been lined up for Thursday night at the armory. Promoter Mack Lillard announced yesterday before leaving on a business trip to Portland.

Joe Hubka, popular Cornhusker, will match grips in one of the bouts with pugacious Jim Healy of San Francisco, and in the other half of the program Glen Wade, who defeated Hubka here last week, will tussle Angelo Cistoldi, 215-pound newcomer from Italy.

Cistoldi is touted to be a rough matman, having centered his activities in the east, taking Medford as the first spot to land after coming over the mountains. He should make a good match for Wade, who went over well with fans last Thursday in his match with Hubka, who tumbled out of the ring and injured his back.

Having recovered from his bumps and bruises, however, the "Iron Man" is rated to go against Healy, who was last seen here when he defeated the mean Masked Marvel.

LOS ANGELES, April 20.—(AP)—Armed with few clues, police searched today for the murderer of a pretty 20-year-old Japanese girl, Yuki Nishida, who was stabbed to death and her body left in a pile of blanketing newspapers.

ROSE CITY READY TO WELCOME ITS 'NEW DEAL' TEAM

PORTLAND, Ore., April 20.—(AP)—Portland's rejuvenated Beavers bring the Coast league baseball season to Oregon when they make their first home stand here Tuesday against the league-leading Oakland A's.

An old-fashioned Portland welcome with a parade and official gestures precede the "play ball" orders for 2:45 p. m.

Portland's "new deal" baseball team has youth and speed, fair batting punch and several—though as yet not enough—good pitchers. Defensively it is greatly improved over last year's team which Tom Turner all but liquidated.

Portland fans have confidence that the new owner and president, E. J. Schaefer, will do everything possible to "keep his good players together rather than to put every promising youngster on the auction block.

As for the official gestures of the game, Secretary of State Earl Snell will make official gestures with a bat at the "first pitch" by Mayor Joe Carson of Portland. And if the pitch is anywhere near the plate and Mr. Snell's batting eye is true, Chief of Police Harry Niles will be merely an innocent bystander behind the plate instead of the catcher.

Snell and others are aiding the promotion campaign by stirring up interest in other cities of the state.

FISHING BETTER VALLEY STREAMS

Salmon fishing in the Rogue river, with a fine run of Chinook on, is reported as the best in several years, and defeat University of Oregon's baseball team 8 to 4 here today, evening the series. The Beavers combined 11 hits with seven Westcott errors for their victory.

EX-GRID ACE NOW BUCKING SNOWS

Bernard B. "Bernie" Hughes, who for the past several years has been connected with Crater Lake national park, will become a seasonal ranger Monday, it was announced yesterday by Superintendent David H. Canfield. Hughes is now at the park, where he is in charge of work connected with plowing open the entrance roads.

His active duty as ranger will start when the park is opened for the summer.

Hughes, a former Medford high and U. of O. grid star, played pro football last fall.

EVEN WILLAMETTE DEFEATS OREGON

EUGENE, Ore., April 20.—(AP)—The Willamette University Beavers hammered across four runs in the ninth inning to break a deadlock and defeat University of Oregon's baseball team 8 to 4 here today, evening the series. The Beavers combined 11 hits with seven Westcott errors for their victory.
