

Local and Personal

Three Takes Trip—D. G. Threer returned Friday from a brief business trip to northern California.

From Rogue River—Mrs. Daisy Laws of Rogue River was a Medford shopper Saturday.

To Eugene—Misses Eva and Babe McSheehy left yesterday morning by train to spend Easter with their parents in Eugene.

Arrives by Train—Mike Hanley, Jr. of Lake Creek, Ore., arrived yesterday morning by train after a business trip north.

Returns to Portland—Miss Anne Whitney of Portland left yesterday morning on the Shasta for her home having been visiting in Medford for a week.

Sleeter Stars at Golf—Dick Sleeter, student at University of Oregon, and graduate of Medford high school, is showing his ability as a golfer at the Eugene course, according to an article in a recent edition of the Oregon Journal. Sleeter, who has starred in many tournaments on the Rogue Valley course, carded the third best score in a set of qualifying qualifiers in a recent match at the university. He toured the course in 150 for 38 holes, nine strokes better than the best variety qualifying mark, according to the Journal.

Injured on Way to Mother—John Knowlton, 15, of Minnesota, was injured Friday while riding on a freight train enroute to this city to visit his mother, who is reputed to be a resident of Medford, according to a Eugene dispatch. The boy banged his foot on a yard signal light as the train sped by, and the injury became so painful by the time he arrived at Cottage Grove that he left the train and applied for help. He was taken to Eugene, the foot X-rayed, but no bones found broken. He was put in a federal transient camp. No Medford directory lists Knowlton's mother as resident of this city.

Refer to Portland—R. R. Heter, manager of the Pinnacle Packing Co. left Friday by plane for Portland on business connected with the local fruit industry.

On Drunk Charges—Frank Morgan was yesterday fined $10 in city court when he pleaded guilty to a charge of being intoxicated in a public place.

Visiting Family—John Myers, district manager for Northern Life Insurance Co., with offices in the Liberty building, left for his home at Salem, for a visit over the Easter holidays with his family. He is accompanied by Mrs. Meyer, and two daughters, who are attending school here. They expect to return Monday.

Attorney Roberts Returns—Attorney George Roberts, counsel for E. C. (Al) Solinsky, deposed superintendent of Crater Lake National park returned yesterday morning by train from Portland. He will return north over the week end for Solinsky's trial in federal court for alleged mismanagement of federal funds, which opens at Portland Monday.

Visits Husband Here—Mrs. G. C. Curtner left yesterday morning by train for Portland, having been visiting in Medford with her husband, who was superintendent of the Riverside paving project. She was also a guest here of her sister, Mrs. A. J. Gauthier. Mr. Curtner will next supervise the paving of Main street at Grants Pass.

Shows Copco Films—Horace Bromley, publicity director of the California Oregon Power Company, has returned from a business trip to Yreka. While there Mr. Bromley put on motion picture programs for a 20-30 club and a Lions club dinner showing the Diamond Jubilee films and other "Copco Current Events."

Prentice in Politics—When politics "broke with a bang" at University of Oregon Thursday, it was not without representation from Medford, according to a story in the Oregon Journal. Robert Prentice, graduate of Medford high school and son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Prentice, is on one ticket, for the position of junior finance officer. He is on the ticket headed by William J. Schloth of Portland, nominee for president.

"The Iron Duke" Opens at Craterian Today

George Arliss, in the role of Wellington, Napoleon's nemesis, is at the Craterian theatre, starting today, in "The Iron Duke," following the career through wars and peace-time intrigue of the famous British soldier and statesman.

Opening during the famed "Hundred Days" of history, the film shows the crushing defeat of Napoleon after his escape from Elba, and then, with peace, Wellington's political enemies attempting to besmirch his name with scandal in linking in with that of an attractive married woman, only to have the master statesman outwit them and throw their plot back into their faces.

Leaves for Yachats—Mrs. Dora Cameron left yesterday morning on the Shasta for Yachats, Ore., where she will spend a month visiting with Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Bostwick. Mr. Bostwick is her brother.

C. A. R. to Meet—There will be a meeting of General Joseph Lane society, C. A. R., Wednesday evening, April 24, at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of Miss Barbara Holt, 11 Corning Court. It was announced.

CCC Sheet off Press—The second edition of the "Gasquet Gazette," publication of the Gasquet CCC camp, is off the press, and several copies received here. The tiny newspaper has filled a need in the camp, and has been very favorably received by the men.
