Former Medford Girl In Eugene High Operetta

Miss Helen Judy, former student of Medford high school took the leading part in an operetta recently produced by Eugene high school, according to word received here today. A description of Miss Judy's performance appeared as follows in the Eugene News:

"The Eugene High presented the operetta, 'The Bohemian Girl,' to a large audience. Helen Judy, formerly of Medford high, took the leading role, of Arline, and deserves more than respectful comment. Her poise in the acting parts could not be surpassed. She has a clear soprano and sings with an easy maturity. One of her solos, 'I Dream I Dwell in Marble Halls,' was the operetta's outstanding feature. It is conceded that Miss Judy is the most outstanding soloist Eugene High has ever had."

VINING'S ADDRESS BEFORE ACTIVISTS ADVISES COURAGE

One of the most interesting and constructive talks ever heard by the Active club centered the regular meeting last night, when Prof. I. E. Vining of Ashland spoke on "The Psychology of Adjustment."

Adjustment pertains to all business men of today, the speaker pointed out, describing their hopes for achievement, and their fears in "the new tomorrow." "The business man of today has no faith in the new tomorrow, and through his fear he withholds new investments, ventures and desires," Prof. Vining said.

The speaker divided adjustment into five zones. First, he said, there is the zone of convention, which is the basic zone in which people have the average dress, manners and activities and a lack of time for new ideas. The second zone is that of discontent, a state wherein the greatest number of people find themselves, he continued.

The third zone was described in two parts—helplessness, in which is the class of people on the dole and on relief rolls, and the class of the criminal, wherein are many with brilliant, but deformed minds. The fourth zone is that of achievement, Prof. Vining said, in which men succeed by their ability. The last zone is that of supreme achievement, in which are men born of great genius.

A. Z. Dean, chairman of the auto show committee, made a report in which he urged all dealers to participate in the show, which is to be held on Main between Front and Fir streets as part of the May day celebration sponsored by the club. The May Day dance, to be held at Oriental Gardens with Archie Legg's orchestra in conjunction with a style show, was also discussed. Jack Butler, chairman, Jack Walker and Frank Perl are on the dance committee.

Harold Larsen, scoutmaster of Active club's Boy Scout troop 16, introduced Irwin Doy, member of the troop, who spoke on the vaudeville which is to be held April 26 at the Howard school to raise funds to help send a member of the troop to the national jamboree in Washington.

Frank Bash was initiated as a new member. Guests at the meeting, besides Professor Vining, were William Jungwirth of Ashland, Harold Mitchell, manager of Pacific States Mines and Frank Husson of Copco.

Former Local Miss Now In Sacramento Hailed As Prodigy

Little Paulina Elizabeth Carter, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Carter of Sacramento, who is being heralded in the California city as a possible second Ruth Sienecynski, has appeared in dance recitals in Medford and took part in the pageant held at the fairgrounds during the Diamond Jubilee.

She was a student of the Eve Benson dance studio for some time, and took the part of Puck in a recital given by that studio for two nights last April. She played the same part in the Benson pupils' revue in the Jubilee pageant.

Mrs. Benson received a clipping from the Sacramento Bee, describing the little pianist as having had only four formal music lessons and a few months' home training, yet has developed a piano technique remarkable in a child of her years.

Her parents made their home in Ashland about nine months, during which time she took dancing lessons here.

Phoenix Grangers See Copco Movies

A capacity crowd greeted the showing of Copco movies at the Phoenix Grange hall last night, nearly 200 being present. The pictures which were presented by H. L. Bromley included Babe Ruth fishing on the Klamath river, the northwest turkey show, winter sports at snowman's hill, clean up at the Sterling mine, the Farmers picnic at the Medford airport and other "Copco Current Events" of local interest. Tonight a program of Copco pictures will be presented at a meeting of the Girls' Community club here.
