The FIRST from the BYBEE STEERS on SALE Tomorrow

Tomorrow we begin selling beef from those fine Bybee steers. Put in the big cooler last week, this beef is now just right and should afford a real treat to lovers of fine steaks and roasts.

When you drive out the Jacksonville Highway look at the remaining steers in the Bybee feed lot. That is the kind of beef you always get at your Groceteria.

Make This Test and Satisfy Yourself that Steer-Beef Really COSTS LESS!

Cook a piece of Steer Beef until done and weigh the cooked product. Make the same test with beef that isn't done until it is cooked tender—weigh what you have left and figure the cost per pound of what you can eat. A comparison will show that good meat means real economy.

1000 Island Dressing

To one pint of our Home Purity Mayonnaise add 1/2 can of minced olives, then add catsup to suit the taste. You will have a most delicious 1000 Island Dressing.
