ST. MARK'S TO REPEAT EASTER SONG SERVICE

Many disappointed people who were unable to hear the Easter song service at St. Mark's church and were turned away because there was no place left to seat them, have asked that the musical program be repeated next Sunday, and the rector and choir have decided to grant the request.
 There will be Holy communion service at 11 o'clock and the complete Easter musical program will again be rendered.
 As usual, the public is cordially invited to attend.

HOME EXTENSION DELEGATIONS TO ATTEND MEETING

Jackson County Homemakers' Day On Tuesday Will Draw Largest Throng Yet—Experts Will Talk

A larger delegation of homemakers from all sections of Jackson county are expected to attend the fourth annual Jackson County Homemakers' Day next Tuesday, April 26, than ever before, according to Mabel C. Mack, county home demonstration agent.
 This is due not only to increased interest in home economics projects, and increased enrollment in home extension units but also to an enriched program for the day. In previous years the entire day has been devoted to program planning. The program for next Tuesday, which starts promptly at 9:45 a. m., includes educational talks during the forenoon session by guest speakers and staff members of the home economics extension staff.

Miss Birdseye in Speak
 Miss Miriam Birdseye, extension specialist in nutrition, Washington, D. C., will discuss "Highlights of the Nutrition Program in Various States." Miss Birdseye taught classes in extension methods in nutrition at Oregon State college summer session in 1932 and visited Jackson county unofficially at that time. This will be her first official visit to the county.
 Dr. C. E. Ladd, dean of the schools of agriculture and home economics, Cornell university, will also be a guest for the day. Dr. Ladd will speak during the morning session.
 Miss Claribel Nye, state leader of home economics extension, will discuss "Measures of Progress in the Home Economics Extension Program of the State."

Mrs. Mabel C. Mack, county home demonstration agent, will discuss "Measures of Progress in the Jackson County Extension Program."

Clothing Expert Coming
 Mrs. Azalea Sager, extension specialist in clothing, will discuss "A Clothing Program to Meet Certain Changing Conditions."

Miss Gertrude Skow, home demonstration agent at large, will direct the singing and recreational features.
 Miss Lucy Case, extension specialist in nutrition from Oregon State college, will also be present and will introduce Miss Miriam Birdseye.

PRIEST SCORCHED IN SENATE SPEECH BY SOUTHERN DEM

Coughlin Is Called 'Man of Damnable Ambition' in Scathing Denunciation by U. S. Senator Bailey

WASHINGTON, April 26.—(AP)—Absorbed in the preliminary forming of political lines for 1936, the capital sought today to assay the effects of Senator Bailey's denunciation of Father Charles E. Coughlin as a man of "damnable ambition" who seeks to "stir up the fountains of hate in a distressed land amongst a suffering people."
 With third party talk in the air, observers also watched to see whether an answer might not be forthcoming soon to the question whether Father Coughlin and Senator Long (D. La.), may unite forces in 1936.

Activities Denounced
 Before a silently listening senate, Senator Bailey, North Carolina democrat, voiced his denunciation of Father Coughlin's activities.
 Prefacing his remarks with an explanation of why he referred to the clergyman as "Coughlin," rather than "Father Coughlin," Bailey said: "I left off his title, and I did it deliberately. In his church—and I shall always speak respectfully of all churches—he can be called 'Father,' but he cannot be called 'Father' in American politics."
 "In his church he may have his priestly robes and his power of absolution; but when he undertakes to promise a harp and a halo to the American people by political action, I challenge his priestly power."
Sinister Side Seen
 "There is nothing more sinister in our life right now than this—that Coughlin, from the radio of the shrine of the Little Flower—the shrine of suffering who interpreted her life by way of identifying herself with the agonies on the cross, who died expressing the prayer that she might return to earth than go to heaven, and come back, as she said in immortal words, in a shower of roses—from a shrine in her Holy Name that voice stirs the depths of hate throughout the land of liberty, matches class against class, foments the fires of revolution, and crucifies the American people upon his damnable ambition. Coughlin—not 'Father Coughlin'."

SACRED MUSIC SUNDAY ZION LUTHERAN CHURCH

A program of classic sacred music will be given Sunday evening, May 6, as a part of Medford's observance of Music Week. In Zion Evangelical Lutheran church, Fourth St. near Oakdale avenue, by the use of recordings over the church's amplifying system. This is the two-hundred and fiftieth anniversary of Bach's birth, and his music will be especially featured, with a brief appreciation of his work, and a few remarks by a representative of Medford's Music Week committee on the origin of music week.
 Some of the world's finest pipe-organs with master musicians playing selections by the greatest composers, and most noted singers, including Ernestine Schumann-Heink will be heard. With the church's ideal acoustics and freedom from static interferences, lovers of the best in music will appreciate this program which they are invited to enjoy.

Sailor Franz' Fist Costs Mat Match

PENDLETON, April 26.—(AP)—Larry Bennett, 190, Portland, defeated Sailor Franz, 190, San Diego, last night when Franz was disqualified for slugging after both had taken a fall.
 Marine Jacobs, 178, Bremerton, and Jack Kennedy, 170, Pendleton, wrestled one hour to a draw, each taking a fall.
 Byron DeWilde, 135, Pendleton, took one fall to win from Buck Taylor, 136, Walla Walla.

 Executor of the Estate of Nellie Marie Perle, deceased.

I'm sometimes asked about cigarettes . . . and I believe they offer the mildest and purest form in which tobacco is used . . .

Mild Ripe Tobacco . . . Aged 2 years or more . . .

- the farmer who grows the tobacco . . .
- the warehouseman who sells it at auction to the highest bidder . . .
- every man who knows about leaf tobacco—will tell you that it takes mild, ripe tobacco to make a good cigarette; and this is the kind we buy for CHESTERFIELD Cigarettes.

All of the tobacco used in CHESTERFIELD Cigarettes is aged for two years or more.
