

JARDNER TO HEAD ELKS AT ASHLAND

ASHLAND, April 26.—(Spl.)—Nominations for officers of Ashland Lodge No. 44, B. P. O. Elks, open for the past month, closed Wednesday night with but one nomination for each office, the first time in the history of the lodge that all nominations have been unopposed. Formality of election will occur May 1, with installation on June 5.

E. C. Gardner, orchardist of the Talent district, was selected as an excited ruler to succeed Henry Enders, present ruler. His staff of officers will include Merrick Thornton, esteemed leading knight; M. W. Hanel, esteemed loyal knight; Larkin Grubb, esteemed lecturing knight; J. Edward Thornton, secretary; Hal C. Emery, treasurer; J. Sam Jordan, trustee; N. M. Harkins, tiler, and Ben H. Gibson, alternate representative.

Plans for a dance on May 4, the candidates' May Day ball, were made at the meeting.

STORK RINGS THREE TIMES

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kiser and their two-year-old daughter, Beatrice, turned an abandoned schoolhouse near Somerset, Pa., into a home when the depression came, but the stork found them just the same and left triplets. Here's the family. (Associated Press Photo)

Eagle Point

EAGLE POINT, April 25.—(Spl.)—A splendid service was given on Easter Sunday. The cantata was directed by Miss Yetta Olsen and the church was completely filled.

NEW APPLGATE ROAD COMPLETED

ANDERSON CREEK, April 26.—(Spl.)—The new Applegate short-cut road constructed by the Talent CCC was completed this week and a large amount of machinery was taken out through this district.

The boys of the CCC are entitled to much credit for working through the snow and stormy weather during the past five months, especially the lads who stood night guard by a lonely camp fire to warn motorists of the construction work.

Besides materially aiding control of forest fires, the new road will give access to fine scenery in this section.
