

YERBA BUENA SHOALS PICKED AS SITE FOR FAIR

An exposition association selected a site in mid-bay to hold a 1938 world's fair in celebration of the completion of the San Francisco-Oakland bay bridge and the Golden Gate span. The shoals north of Yerba Buena island, center of the bay structure, will be filled in and hold the buildings of the exposition. An artist's conception of the fill-in is shown left of the island. San Francisco is shown in the foreground and Oakland and Berkeley across the bay with the bay bridge as it will look when completed.

BYRD SHOWN ON RETURN FROM 'LITTLE AMERICA'

After having endured trying physical conditions while gathering scientific data on his second exploration of the frozen South Polar wastes, Admiral Richard Byrd (center, right) is shown at Dunedin, N. Z., upon his return to civilization. He was greeted by Dunedin city leaders. A smiling close-up of the intrepid adventurer, revealing an appearance older than when last photographed, is shown at the left. (Associated Press Photo)

INSPECTS BRIDGE AS 'SNUB' ARGUED

Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins (center) appeared unconcerned over the argument between Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and Miss Martha Ijain as she inspected the Golden Gate bridge project. She said she was impressed by the lack of accidents on the project as she looked the job over from the base of the San Francisco pier with Bridge Superintendent G. A. McClain (left) and Rivet Foreman S. E. Stanley. They wore helmets, part of the dress of all the workmen, to avoid injury from falling objects. (Associated Press Photo)

SHOWS COURT HOW TO MEND RUNS

Sally Blue of Clarendon, Va., shown after a Supreme Court session in Washington, D. C., as she demonstrates the way she showed the justices how to mend hosiery. The demonstration was made in connection with a patent suit on methods of fixing runs. (Associated Press Photo)

MEMENTO OF A WEALTHIER DAY

Colorado officials are displaying the $7000 wedding gown found in the meager possessions of "Baby Doe" Tabor, one-time mistress of millions, after her death in a hovel on the Matchless mine property near Leadville. Seventeen trunks, containing the dress and a valuable collection of silver, were found after the widow of Senator "Silver Dollar" Tabor had been found frozen to death in her bare cabin. (Associated Press Photo)

MAGAZINE PUBLISHER MARRIES

Eugene V. Brewster, 62-year-old former publisher of movie magazines, is shown here with his bride, the former Miss Liane Hill, 36, of Brooklyn, in Jersey City, N. J. It was Brewster's fourth marriage. One of his earlier trips to the altar was with Corliss Palmer, film actress. (Associated Press Photo)

TENNIS STAR JUDGES CANINES

Helen Wills Moody, former world's champion tennis player, took time from her practice for a comeback on the courts to judge entrants in the children's class at a San Francisco dog show. (Associated Press Photo)

'DIZZY' BECOMES GODFATHER

"Dizzy" Dean, ace of the St. Louis Cardinals pitching staff, was godfather for these five-months-old twins of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Newman. The tots were christened Patricia Ann and Virginia Lee. Mrs. Mark Koenig, wife of the New York Giants infielder, was godmother. (Associated Press Photo)

PARENTS OF BOY QUESTIONED

This was the first posed picture taken of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Streicher, sr., in Ypsilanti, Mich., after they were questioned by police a second time in connection with the death of their seven-year-old son. The boy was stabbed to death and his body stuffed under a bird's nest. (Associated Press Photo)

Confesses Murders

Police announced Thomas McFarland (lower) had admitted in a Brooklyn, N. Y., station that he had killed his mother-in-law, Mrs. Nora Kelly, 60, and her granddaughter, Florence McVey, 18 (top). Physicalians said both had been assaulted. (Associated Press Photos)

Wins Last Love Suit

Mrs. Maud Kimbell (above) won $15,000 in her $100,000 alienation of affections suit against Charles Severy, manufacturer, and his wife in New York. The judge said, after the decision, that it was probably the last suit of its kind in the state as the legislature has outlawed love palm suits. (Associated Press Photo)

Mendieta Opposed

Cuba added to the wave of international turbulence as bombs burst in Havana and a strike gained headway in opposition to the government of Pres. Carlos Mendieta (above). (Associated Press Photo)

Victim Recovering

Although Jack Fleckner, 11 (above), has six pieces of a bullet in the left lobe of his brain, he is recovering in Port Clinton, Ohio. Doctors said the right lobe was taking over the function of the left side. (Associated Press Photo)

GOVERNOR PLEADS CASE BEFORE OHIO LEGISLATURE

Gov. Martin L. Davey of Ohio addressing a special joint session of the legislature in Columbus after Harry L. Hopkins, federal relief administrator had taken over relief administration in the state. Davey later filed a criminal libel action against Hopkins and the Ohio senate voted to investigate the state relief situation. (Associated Press Photo)

AIRPLANES ROAR OVER BERLIN IN MIMIC WAR

Planes of this type were among those taking part in air maneuvers over Berlin as Germany announced its intention to rearm. Smokepots and cannon-cracker bombs gave a realistic imitation of an enemy air raid in the spectacular attack. (Associated Press Photo)

Helen Hornberger has been named to the pep committee of Occidental college, Los Angeles, and will aid in arranging football rallies. (Associated Press Photo)

Sheik Outfielder

Vince De Maggio (above), brother of Joe of the Seals, will start the season in the outfield for the Hollywood baseball team. (Associated Press Photo)