

LOCALS WIN, 10-7, FROM COQUILLE IN HARD-FOUGHT TILT

With 2,000 rabid fans yelling themselves hoarse, the Medford Merchants slammed out a 10-7 win over the fast Coquille team yesterday. Four home runs were clouted, two for each team. The game was the opening of the season at the coast town, and nearly everyone in town turned out.

Hooper Hoffard, the grand old man of local baseball, took over the mound duties in the third when Hese blew, and pitched wily ball, offering nothing to the Coquille bunch which could get their teeth into and holding them to one hit in the first six innings he pitched.

Courtney and Calvert accounted for the circuit clouts. Calvert's drive going clear outside the gate in center field, the longest hit for the day. Donovan hit one in the same place, but was tagged going home. Woodyard led the Medford club in hitting with three singles.

COLUMBO, HEALY TO GRAPPLE ON THURSDAY CARD

Casey Columbo, supple wrestler from California, will return for an appearance on the double main event card next Thursday night at the Armory. Promoter Lillard announced today, with big Jim Healy of San Francisco as his opponent.

This bout promises speed and fireworks, and will probably be a tough one for Healy, who showed signs last week of being a toughy, although his fists failed to win him a match. He will probably have to resort again to fists and unethical wrestling to win from the smooth-wrestling Columbo, one of the fastest and best-like grapplers ever to appear here. It has been several weeks since Columbo trod Medford canvas, and scores of fans are welcoming his return.
