EXTRA EGGS UP; BUTTER STEADY PORTLAND MART

PORTLAND, May 1.—(P)—An advance of 1 cent down in the price on extra eggs alone was the feature during the late session of the produce exchange. These new prices placed both extras and large eggs on the same basis, which is not generally noted on the open market. The large eggs usually command a premium of at least a cent a dozen.
Strength in the egg trade has been suggested for some days at practically all other points except Portland. There was again a lack of change in the price on butter on the produce exchange with storage interests taking every pound of surplus they can find at full prices.
Demand for chickens was firm and prices were held high at 15c for light and medium hens to retailers and up to 18c for heavy colored sorts. Light broilers were around 15c and colored stock—1 1/2 lbs. and over—20c-21c with lighter stuff at 19c lb.
Slow demand was showing for dressed turkeys, due chiefly to the extremely poor quality of most arrivals. The hens were about the only ones that find any call and these were not any too good.
Top quality country killed calves was showing a slumping price with sales 11-11 1/2c but heavy and thin stuff was in good demand at a spread of 7 to 9c lb. Hogs, lambs and beef were steady.
First carload of California strawberries was due to arrive Thursday from Fresno. Some Florida stock arrived and was priced $2.50-3.75 for 24s.

"The Whole Town's Talking," the exciting comedy-drama which, the cinema sage says, affords Edward G. Robinson his greatest screen character role to date, will open its local engagement at the Criterion theater tomorrow.
Based on a story by W. R. Burnett, author of Robinson's greatest film success, "Little Caesar," and adapted to the screen by the two ace screenwriters, Robert Riskin and Jo Swerling, "The Whole Town's Talking" presents the hilarious and exciting adventures of a meek, poetic office clerk who is sprung into head-line news because of his remarkable resemblance to the country's most dangerous criminal.
To prevent the police from molesting him, the district attorney gives Robinson a letter, or passport, which is to identify him as the respectable citizen and not the public enemy whom he so strongly resembles. Killer Mannion, his double, obtains possession of the passport and thus goes about his criminal activities with comparative immunity.
Lovely Jean Arthur is cast in the picture as the girl whom Robinson has always loved, but has been too shy to woo. With his unexpected distinction and newly found courage he turns the tables on his hard-boiled counterpart and crashes through to a heart-stirring climax.
Also seen in the cast are Wallace Ford, Arthur Hohl, Arthur Byron, Donald Meek and John Wray.

Approximately 200 troopers including officers, inspected by Major-General George A. White, commanding general of the 41st division, which includes Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana.
An attendance of about 350 civilians witnessed the impressive battalion parade and presentation of awards, in which 49 officers and men received medals. The majority of these were received by the Ashland unit.
The 24th Coast Artillery efficiency trophy was presented Battery B of Ashland. Ten year service awards were presented Capt. Carl Y. Tengwald, commanding Co. A, 198th Infantry; Major Walter Abbey of the Coast Artillery, who was unable to be present because of illness; First Lieutenant Bentley of Ashland and Sergeant Roy H. Hewett of Co. A.
The battalion passed in review in salute to Major-General White, Brigadier-General Thomas E. Riley, who was expected to attend, in Washington, D. C. There were several distinguished visitors present who were invited to meet the commanding and staff officers after the review.
The entire review was under the direction of Major William H. Ellenburg, post commander. Music for the military drills was rendered by the Elks band.

Fredric March in Comic Role Heads Cast Rialto Film

If you're in the entertainment market for a landslide of laughs, you've a rare treat in store in "The Affairs of Cellini," starring Constance Bennett and Fredric March, which showed for the first time locally yesterday at the Rialto theater, to an audience which, if the incessant roars that filled the theater may be considered a fair judge, had the time of its cinema-going life.
Fredric March as the fiery, passionate 16th century Florentine goldsmith and lover, Benvenuto Cellini, is again the mad, impetuous March of "The Royal Family."
Constance Bennett is at her delightful best as the dallying Duchess and Frank Morgan, repeating the role of the Duke which he originated in the stage play, is better than we have ever seen him. Pay Wray is enchantingly lovely as Angela and others who are outstanding are Louis Calhern, Vince Barnett and Jessie Ralph.
ALBANY, May 1.—(AP)—Organization of the "Greater Willamette Valley Association" will be completed at a meeting to be held in the Eugene chamber of commerce rooms at 7:30 p. m. Friday. It was said here today by C. H. Murphy of Al-
