Lion Tamer With Al. G. Barnes Circus

Terrell Jacobs is one of the youngest animal trainers appearing with any circus today. He was born in Indiana and comes from real circus stock. His parents and grandparents were all circus people before him and his act this year is nothing short of surprising. Nineteen lions and tigers go through their paces with clock-like precision under the careful and capable guidance of this intrepid young man. He has been with a circus in some capacity or other since he was fourteen years old. He traveled with his father when he was just a youngster, during the summer holidays from school, but went along with it as a regular worker as soon as he was old enough to.

There will be two performances given here starting at 2 p. m. and 8 p. m. with the doors opening one hour earlier.

Some discussion was prevalent as to changing the date of the next meeting as the 14th falls during the week of State Grange convention, but decision was reached on Thursday night to continue as planned.
