SENATE VOTES FOR CASH BONUS

News Behind The News
 BY PAUL MALLON.
 (Copyright, 1935, by Paul Mallon)
 WASHINGTON, May 7.—You may shortly hear that the senate has authorized a committee investigation of the public works administration. A resolution authorizing it was drawn a week ago, but not introduced. It is to be a companion piece to the Couzens resolution recently adopted by the senate in a very quiet way.

PATMAN MEASURE FOR MONEY ISSUE FAVORED, 55 TO 33

Provides for Two Billion Dollar Issue of New Currency—President Roosevelt Expected to Veto

WASHINGTON, May 7.—(AP)—In the face of a promised veto, the senate today joined the house in voting for cash payment of the soldiers' bonus by a $2,000,000,000 issue of new currency.

The bill was passed by a vote of 55 to 33, far short of the two-thirds required to override a veto.

After a few formalities, the measure will be sent to the White House for an almost certain veto. Administration leaders predicted the veto could be sustained in the senate.

The bill was passed after the senate had rejected by wide margins the Harrison compromise and the Vinton cash payment bill providing for payment in old money.

The senate passed the Patman bill in the same form in which it was approved by the house, so that no conference will be necessary before the bill goes to the White House.

But a motion by Senator Clark (D., Mo.) to reconsider the vote by which it passed will hold up its transmittal temporarily.

Clark served notice he would make the motion, because it was apparent the bill could not be passed over a veto. He did not actually submit the motion, however, and so the bill will be held before the senate until he does.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—(AP)—The senate vote on final passage of the Patman bonus bill follows:

For the Patman bill, Democrats: Adams, Buchanan, Bankhead, Bilbo, Black, Bone, Bulow, Byrnes, Caraway, Clark, Coolidge, Copeland, Costigan.

Life Is Returned After Three Day Frozen Death

LOS ANGELES, May 7.—(AP)—A tiny guinea pig scampered around in its cage here today, restored to physical activity after what Dr. Baipr Willard said was a three-day "frozen death."

Conducting an exhaustive five-year search in the field of revivification, the young biochemist declared he had perfected an "almost perfect method" for restoring life to animals frozen to death.

He pointed to his latest experimental subject, the guinea pig. It was apparently enjoying a normal existence after its stay in a block of ice.

Dr. Willard said he was conducting similar experiments of freezing certain portions of the human body as a means of allowing injured tissue to resume its normal state.

"A primary object of this work," Dr. Willard said, "is to establish an unobtainable method whereby devitalized glands can be surely treated, along with the disorders arising from them.

He said that freezing gives impaired tissue in the body an opportunity to restore itself, "and in case of abnormal growths, destroys the connection between the parasite and the normal tissue."

In his guinea pig experiment, Dr. Willard said sodium citrate was injected to counteract blood coagulation.

"Then I restored normal body temperature with an electric current, blood transfusions and injections of adrenalin-epinephrine. Skipped a 113 medical processes, started heart action in the animals," he said.

Two others were described in a critical condition as a result of injuries suffered in the accident which brought death to Senator Bronson Cutting of New Mexico.

The condition of Paul Wing, Hollywood, was reported "very low." C. B. Drew, Santa Monica, Calif., although reported in a critical condition, was said by physicians to be resting easy after a blood transfusion.

SALEM WILL BUY CITY WATER PLANT

SALEM, May 7.—(AP)—In an unexpected move last night the Salem city council voted 10 to 4 to purchase the plant and equipment of the Oregon-Washington Water Service company here for $1,000,000.

Within a few minutes after the vote was taken water company officials had notified the council that the city's offer was satisfactory provided the company's directors and the trustees of the bond issued against the plant accepted it. Almost certain approval has been indicated.

Last night's decision by the council was expected to mean the culmination of six years of effort by the city to acquire the local water system.

DIME CHAIN FOE HELD BY POLICE ON SANITY TEST

Visitor From California On One-Man Crusade Against Popular Mail Racket Declared Mentally Deficient

Said by officers to be suffering from hallucinations, that he is commissioned "to save the nation from this chain-letter monkey business," a man giving the name of "Frank Parrell" and Willows, Calif., as his address, is held in the city jail by the state police on an insanity charge. Before his detention, "Parrell" engaged in a vigorous, if ineffectual, one-man onslaught against the popular fad of the day.

"Parrell" was examined by Dr. L. D. Inskeep, who pronounced him mentally deranged, and a victim of delusions of greatness and importance. The man's familiarity with medical terms denoting insanity, caused Dr. Inskeep to suspect he is an escapee from an asylum. The state police this noon wired Sacramento, Calif., for possible information along this line.

Launched Crusade

"Parrell" was arrested by the city police, after his activities had created something of a sensation, and attracted much attention.

The man registered at a local hotel late yesterday and immediately launched his crusade against chain letters. The hotel manager said he expended $12 in long distance telephone calls to Willows, Calif., urging residents of that city to combat chain letters. Today he paid his bill in full, and ordered a taxi to speed him to the airport, to take the morning plane for the north instead, after a short ride around the

HAMILTON MAY BE SPEAKER OF HOUSE

SALEM, May 7.—(AP)—Control of the house of the Oregon legislature will still remain in the hands of the Democratic party at the "inevitable" special session, even if the four vacancies in that branch are filled by Republican appointees, while Republican appointees in the senate would give the upper house a two-thirds majority for the Republican party. It was determined here today following the opinion of the attorney general, which disqualified four houses and two members of the assembly.

At the special session the house would be called upon to name a new speaker, who perhaps would be a Democrat. Representative Moore Hamilton of Medford was considered a leading contender for that post, while William Graham of Portland was declared to have the support of the Multnomah delegation. Ham Hamilton is serving his first term while Graham is serving his second, but upstate members, including Republicans, were expected to throw their support behind Hamilton.

Johnson Slaps Policies of Long, Priest, Townsend

MAYFIELD, Ky., May 7.—(AP)—Gen. Hugh S. Johnson swung back to Washington today from a foray into this democratic stronghold where he denounced the economic policies of Senator Huey Long, Father Charles E. Coughlin and Dr. F. E. Townsend. He called on the administration for "forthright repudiation" of three movements.

The United States chamber of commerce drew his praise for opposing the Long-Coughlin-Townsend proposals.

The NRA ex-administrator diverged from his prepared text to condemn Father Coughlin's currency proposals, as outlined in a radio address Sunday night. Johnson said this was "the only specific plan in all this radio howling."

"To hand pieces of paper to people and declare it money has never worked in the history of the whole world," Johnson shouted. He averred such a plan was intended to alienate the president's greatest following, "among the poor and oppressed." He said it would "take away the savings of every family" and make the workers' wage of little value.

The crowd, from eight western Kentucky counties, was driven by menacing weather from the proposed outdoors site to a tobacco warehouse. "Business does not go now," Johnson explained, "because it says it's a bogey men behind every door. I think its present jitters are pretty silly. . . . The present fear is supposed to be the share-the-wealth fiat money and Dr. Townsend bugaboo slight figures in its face."

Mamma of Quints Celebrating 26th Birthday Quietly

CALLANDER, Ont., May 7.—(AP)—Mrs. Olivia Dionne, mother of 10 children, five of whom are world renowned, yesterday observed her 26th birthday.

The robust, dark-haired, brown-eyed mother of the quintuplet sisters passed the day quietly at her home, with half of her children present.

The other five, Annette, Cecile, Marie, Emilie and Yvonne, remained at the Dr. A. R. Darpo hospital, not far away. Mrs. Dionne visited them during the day.

DIME CHAIN MAIL HITS POSTOFFICE LIKE CLOUDBURST

DENVER, May 7.—(AP)—Three Denver businessmen pleaded not guilty today to charges of using the mails to defraud in a $1 chain letter game.

R. M. Barnholt, oil man, said the government charge, filed by Postoffice Inspector Roy E. Nelson, will be fought vigorously.

"We do not intend to submit meekly to this attempt of federal authorities to brand as criminal the action we have taken in common with thousands of others," Barnholt said. "Neither we nor others are guilty of crime."

Like a flood breaking through a dam and flooding the valley, the chain letter scourge hit Medford full force today, with the strain so great at the postoffice, hub of the mass of letters that has straggled town-gate that substitutes were pressed into duty and letter cancellations at noon were tripled.

Barely noticeable at first, the swell in postal activity started the latter part of last week and increased steadily Saturday, Sunday and Monday. DeSouza estimated that the amount of mail circulating within and in and out of the city is 50 per cent above normal.

The postoffice crew is still able to handle the increase, with a little reorganization to allow more men for the cancellation department, but the clerks are wondering how they are going to cancel, file and distribute the mail if it keeps up the phenomenal club. Last Friday, an average day, 3000 letters were cancelled. Today, the same number were cancelled before noon, and the envelopes were pouring into the postoffice and letter boxes with a steady hum.

It's the talk of the town. Typewriters are clacking, and there has been a sudden demand for carbon paper to make the five stipulated copies of the chain formula for getting rich quick. Envelopes are a-flutter with the idea, and there's no stopping it, and for that matter apparently no one is trying to stop it.

WILL ROGERS SAYS:

SANTA MONICA, Cal., May 6.—Well, the Kentucky Derby is all over now and may be congress can settle down to work again.

Our big fleet has pulled out to practice. I don't know where a lot of these writers get the idea that we haven't got any army or navy or aviation. Course we could use a lot more of 'em, but to read some writers you would think that our whole defense force was sorter "Mickey Mouse."

I believe these boys can keep everybody off, if we just know enough to book all wars on the home grounds. The place we need our reinforcements is in the diplomatic end.

KLAMATH DIVORCEE GOES ON TRIAL FOR MURDERING BUTCHER

KLAMATH FALLS, May 7.—(AP)—Marion Meyerle, 35-year-old divorcee, went on trial for her life here today for the murder of Lawrence Lister, 40, Klamath Falls butcher.

Her countenance pale after three months in the county jail, Miss Meyerle sat with her counsel, David Vandenberg, who gained prominence as a defense attorney for Horace Manning in a recent Klamath murder case, as the process of selecting jurors got underway. A special panel of 30 has been called by Circuit Judge Ashurst.

Self-defense, the defendant's attorney, indicated, will be the basis for Miss Meyerle's acquittal plea. The prosecution, headed by District Attorney Hardin Blackmer, said it would attempt to prove the woman shot and killed Lister in a fit of jealousy.

Miss Meyerle, who said Lister "let her down" when she gave herself up at the police station, admitted slaying the butcher in a rooming house last February 1.
