

ROOSEVELT URGES MORE SIMPLICITY IN CRIMINAL LAW

Message to Law Institute Lauds Move for Speeding Up Court Procedure in Prosecution of Crime

WASHINGTON, May 10.—(AP)—Continuation of efforts to revise the criminal law as an aid to solving the crime problem was advocated today by President Roosevelt.

He made this suggestion in a message sent to the American Law Institute after Chief Justice Hughes had urged simplified procedure in federal courts to speed a final decision of cases a more expeditious technicalities.

George W. Wickes, former attorney general and president of the organization called for a study of "conditions growing out of the recent unprecedented increase of bureaucracy in our government."

Seek Simpler Practice Explaining that congress has empowered the courts to change the method of procedure Hughes said: "The goal we seek is a simplified practice which will strip procedure of unnecessary forms, technicalities and distinctions and permit the advance of causes to the decision of their merits with a minimum of procedural encumbrances."

The president's letter said: "Last year I had the pleasure of sending a word of greeting to the twelfth annual meeting of the American Law Institute. On that occasion I took the liberty of making a suggestion—the suggestion that while you continued to carry forward the clarification and simplification of the common law through your great project of re-statement, you should begin to give serious consideration to work of equal importance in the field of the criminal law."

Lauds Move "I am happy to learn that your suggestion commended itself to you and that a committee composed of eminent lawyers, economists, sociologists, psychiatrists and other experts in the allied social sciences was appointed by your council to advise on the work which you can usefully do in this field."

"I am deeply interested to learn that you have received from this committee a report which has been approved by your council and which recommends that you prepare and from time to time publish parts of a proposed code of criminal law, using that expression in its widest sense."

"I expressed in my letter of last year my conviction that the adaptation of our criminal law and its administration to meet the needs of a modern, complex civilization is one of our major problems."

"I feel that the type of work proposed by your committee will, if executed with scientific care, be a valuable contribution to our progress toward the solution of the crime problem and I accordingly hope you will be able to see your way clear to carry through such an important public service."

"These meetings of the American Law Institute in Washington emphasize the public responsibility of the bar, not merely to practice the law, but to maintain its vitality and carry forward its growth and improvement by disinterested scientific work."

"In a country like ours, where so much depends upon the spirit and breadth of vision with which the law is administered, it is heartening indeed to witness this recognition of their public obligations by so many of the outstanding leaders of the bench and bar."

"I accordingly extend my warm and cordial greetings to your membership and wish to say that I shall be very glad to receive a committee from the institute if there are any matters upon which you especially wish to confer with me."

Miner Found Dead Near Oscar Creek

GRANTS PASS, May 10.—(Sp.)—Francis Marion Hayes, 73, was found dead near a mine on Oscar creek Wednesday morning about 8:30. Hayes apparently died from heart failure, according to Coroner Virgil Hull who returned to Grants Pass about 4 o'clock Wednesday with the body.

W. L. Slotboom, worker at the same mine, found Mr. Hayes near his cabin at the mine. Mr. Hayes was born November 6, 1859.

Her Majesty, 'Mom'—Mother's Day, 1935

Sunday, May 12, Mother's Day, the nation again will pay homage to mothers, living and dead. Here are two mothers who have come prominently to the fore since Mother's Day a year ago, and two others who have held their place in the world's spotlight—famous mothers of famous children.

At the left is Mrs. Sara Delano Roosevelt, mother of the president, who has watched with keen interest and devotion the activities of her son in the second trying year of his leadership. In spite of advancing years, 1935 found Mrs. Roosevelt an active woman in and about her home, widely acclaimed whenever she appears in public.

The year holds special significance for Queen Mary, right. The empire-wide celebration, the Silver Jubilee, marking the twenty-fifth year of her husband's reign, already is under way. How much Queen Mary, who is a model wife and mother, has contributed to the success of that reign, perhaps only members of the royal family know. Mary is the mother of six children, five living.

The rise of little Shirley Temple, 26-year-old mother of the "quints," has been working for months to gain possession of the babies, now wards of the crown.

To an inconspicuous French-Canadian mother, less than a year ago, the arrival of quintuplets brought fame that spread throughout the entire world. Mrs. Elize Dionne, 26-year-old mother of the "quints," has been working for months to gain possession of the babies, now wards of the crown.

Another trial which only the mothers of famous children can know. Apparently, the Hollywood consensus is that Mrs. Gertrude Temple, above, is a wise mother, keeping her famous little daughter, unspooled in spite of the plaudits of the movie-going public.

NORMAL PUPILS FINED FOR THEFT OF FLOWERS FROM ASHLAND YARDS

ASHLAND, May 10.—(Sp.)—Heavy fines were levied in city court Thursday on three Southern Oregon Normal school students, including two girls, who were arrested at 10 o'clock Wednesday night on charges of trespassing. They were specifically accused of entering upon the property of Charles W. Fortmiller at 5144 Boulevard and cutting bouquets of flowers, which the students said, were to be used as gifts for Mother's Day this Sunday.

The three were fined $25 and costs each, with $15 of each fine retained providing they repaid the loss sustained by Fortmiller. The arrest and conviction of the three students marked the culmination of a local police drive to apprehend the persons who are alleged to have been cutting and taking flowers in various yards for the last two weeks, at which time complaints from property owners first reached the Ashland police station.

Chief of Police C. P. Talent said Thursday that his department would crack down vigorously on anyone found to be engaged in taking shrubbery or flowers from either private or public property.

Doe Takes Dog's Job of Driving Stock RILEY BROOK, N. B.—(UP)—The Leland uses his reindeer as a beast of burden, but on a farm near here a doe has taken over the job of driving cattle to water from a farm dog. A farmer found the doe abandoned near a roadside when it still was a fawn. He raised it in his kitchen. It is now two.

The doe took on the job of driving the cattle herself and whenever the farm dog tries to dispute her away she charges him.

Arizona Policeman May Try Wrestling PHOENIX, Ariz.—(UP)—Gangsters' dyduards may be goblins, but there's a Phoenix "copper" who shouldn't try any strong arm stuff on his own.

His name is Lefty Moffard, 205, and he has a mean flying mare. In other words, he's a wrestler, and has a good hold. Recently he drew with Joe Savoldi, who said he had "everything but experience." Moffard, who is 27, is thinking of quitting policing and turning full time professional.

Married in Smallest Park VIBALBA, Cal.—(UP)—Under Lone Oak Tree, smallest city park in the world, Miss Joanne Farmer and Norman E. Mitchell, both of Follows, were wed. The couple, the minister and friends overflowed the small six-foot circle that incloses the aged oak tree in the center of the city's main street.

Sentenced for Spanking Wife SALEM, Mass.—(UP)—William Kruttschnitt, 42, a laborer, was sentenced to serve three months in the House of Correction. He spanked his wife.

SHREDDED WHEAT RECIPES

Popularity Begins at Breakfast Popular people are usually well people. They are the people who feel fine, enjoy life, who see the bright side of things. . . . And almost always you'll find they are the people who eat right! It is an accepted fact that the whole grain of the wheat is nature's most nourishing food when prepared in the easily-digested and delicious form of Shredded Wheat. In fact, you could live, be strong and enjoy the best of health on just this famous cereal, milk and fruit. . . . and nothing else. The fine balance of such a combination gives your body all it needs for energy, tissue building, resistance to disease, strong bones, and it contains just the right amount of brain. Here are suggestions that add infinite variety to your breakfast menu:

Shredded Eggs on Shredded Wheat Biscuits
6 Eggs
6 Shredded Wheat Biscuits
2 tablespoons butter
salt and white pepper
1 cup milk

Turn the milk into a shallow dish. Prepare the biscuit baskets by crushing an oblong cavity in the top of the biscuit with the bowl of a teaspoon, and removing the inside shreds. Dip the bottom of the basket lightly in the milk and place in buttered pan. Put little bits of butter in bottom of biscuit baskets, salt and pepper lightly and break an egg into each basket. Put little bits of butter on top, salt and pepper, set in moderate oven until white of the egg is set. Remove from pan with pancake turner to warm plate and serve at once.

Shredded Wheat Substitutes for Pancakes
Saturate the biscuits thoroughly with hot water, lay all over the top thin slices of butter and serve, while still hot, with ample maple syrup or powdered or plain sugar.

Shredded Wheat Cream Toast
1 quart of milk
4 tablespoons flour
1 tablespoon butter
salt to taste
6 Shredded Wheat Biscuits

Heat the milk in a double boiler, put the cover on. When hot, add the flour previously mixed with a little cold milk, stir, and cook until smooth and thick. Add the butter and salt, and keep hot while preparing the biscuits, splitting them lengthwise, then toasting lightly. Finish by turning the hot cream sauce over the biscuit and serve.

Shredded Whole Wheat Porridge
For those who like a mush or porridge there is nothing so nourishing and satisfying as Shredded Wheat porridge, and nothing so easy to make. Put the Shredded Wheat Biscuits in a small saucepan, add salt and enough water to cover the bottom of the pan; stir and boil until it thickens, then serve with milk or cream. Better than ordinary porridges for youngsters or grown-ups.

Total Age 714 Years SELMA, Cal.—(UP)—Mathematicians got busy on their adding machines today and computed the combined ages of Mrs. Lucy Sanderson, 87, and her 11 living children as 714 years. Mrs. Sanderson claimed some sort of a record, following published reports from a family in Tulsa, Okla., having a combined age of only 632 years.

Marked Center of World DELPHI, Greece.—(UP)—One of the curious sights of Delphi, famed in history for its oracle, is a block of marble with which the ancient Greeks believed Zeus marked the center of the world. According to legend, the god released two eagles from the sides of the earth and discovered the center of it by their meeting here.

Excavations Revealed Snakes COULEE DAM, Wash.—(UP)—Lensing of Central Washington's rattlesnake population will be an incidental benefit of Grand Coulee Dam. Excavations for the dam uncovered numerous snake dens, with the reptiles coiled together in great balls, hibernating during cold weather.

Sams Valley

SAMS VALLEY, May 10.—(Sp.)—Miss Helen Williams, appointed by the lecturer, conducted the Mother's Day program for Grange Saturday night. The program, also honored of Miss Florin and was one of the most interesting enjoyed for a long time. Rev. Baird of Medford gave a tribute to mothers after which he gave several comic readings. Music was furnished by six young people from Medford. Refreshments were served by the young people of the Grange.

Mrs. Steve Wilson was hostess to the Ladies club Thursday afternoon at her home at Table Rock. Twenty-five members were present. Refreshments of ice cream and wafers were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ober of Long Beach, Calif., are house guests at the W. W. Edgington home this week. Elmer Whipple, visiting here in Medford, gave an interesting magic show at the school house Wednesday night. The proceeds went to aid the 4-H clubs of Sams Valley.

Man Prefers Pen To Going To Work FREMONT, Ohio.—(UP)—Because he preferred going to prison rather than working for the township trustees, W. G. Jones, 55-year-old farmer and relief client, was given a one to three-year sentence in the penitentiary.

Jones, charged with non-support of his five children, was sentenced by Judge A. V. Baumann. Township trustees had complained that Jones had squandered an inheritance of $700 and refused to work.

Milk Temperature Cause of Murder

PARIS.—(UP)—Louis-Julien Pruvost, 53, pickman, chopped his wife to death with a hatchet because she complained about the temperature of the milk he served her.

Returning from work, Pruvost found his wife sick in bed, so he brought her a glass of warm milk. She said that it was too hot and he brought her another glass of milk. This time she remarked it was too cold. He left the room again, but came back with a starched and killed her. He then ran over to the Saint-Fargeau police station and gave himself up.

Porters of Paris Complain of Wine PARIS.—(UP)—Porters at the Gare St. Lazare here are getting what they call "aine shoulders" from carrying so much baggage containing cases of wine for returning Americans. The travelers are jubilant, but the porters complain that baggage is heavier and must be handled with greater care.

The cause of it all is that recently the American Embassy announced that under Secretary of Treasury Sturgeon's order, Americans returning to the United States can take in wine and liquor duty free to the limit of $100 personal exemption.
